

Chapter 724

In fact, Chuck knew roughly why Sabina had invited him here.

Brooke must have woken up in the past few days after Sabina asked Karen for the antidote.

However, they had wasted too much time. Brooke definitely wouldn't live much longer.

Chuck knew Brooke hated him. Well, he wanted to kill Brooke as well.

To let him die of illness was already a bargain for him.

"So?"

"Your head, I want it." Sabina approached him!

Chuck chuckled.

"What are you laughing at?" Sabina's eyebrows furrowed.

When Chuck smiled, she felt he was quite annoying.

Why did Adriana like him?

He did not have even the tiniest bit of charisma.

"Looks like we're in the same situation. Last time, it was me trying to kill you, and this time, it's you wanting to kill me."

"Hmph! You want me to let you go?" Sabina was enraged.

"I didn't say that. Don't get me wrong!"

Sabina got closer step by step.

All of a sudden!

Boom!

A cold bullet fired from somewhere, it barely missed Sabina's ear and hit a tree.

It was just a small tree, so its trunk was damaged immediately!

Chuck was dumbfounded.

This was a warning from Black Rose.

She was warning Sabina not to do anything out of place. Stay away from Chuck!

Chuck felt touched. Black Rose did not have many words, but her heart was soft under her sharp words.

Sabina's beautiful eyes did not move. She looked calmly into the distance.

"Her shot doesn't seem to be accurate," she said.

Chuck smiled. "It's okay. Keep going! She's not so accurate."

Sabina stared at Chuck for a few seconds. Those were three long seconds.

Sabina felt like she had the ability to dodge Black Rose's bullets and cut off Chuck's head in three seconds!

But she couldn't do it!

She was mad at herself. How did she become like this?

She found a place to sit down.

Seeing this, Chuck grinned. That was why he came here. He was sure that Sabina would not do anything to him.

Because Chuck knew her.

He sat beside her and put his arm around her shoulders. Sabina shouted angrily, "F*ck off!"

"We are brothers. What are you afraid of?" Chuck put his arm around her shoulders and rubbed her back.

Just like what brothers would do.

Sabina swat away Chuck's hand. "Don't go too far! Stay away from me!"

She knew Chuck meant nothing else. It's just a way of expressing familiarity. If he had really done anything, she would have lost her temper long ago.

Not to say that she would stab Chuck, but he certainly could not avoid being punched and kicked.

She had never been hugged by other men, and Chuck did not count. In Sabina's mind, Chuck was not a man, but a sister.

A younger sister!

Because she was a little older than Chuck.

"You can't even kill me, let alone my mom. I won't let you do this either." Chuck shrugged.

"I could've killed you in the three seconds just now..."

"Don't underestimate me. You want to kill me in three seconds?" Chuck laughed.

"You can think whatever you want!" she snorted.

"Actually, I have a new idea."

Sabina didn't reply. Chuck put his arm around her shoulder, and Sabina said angrily, "Tell me! What idea?"

"You will sit as the head of the Yeager family, and you and I won't get in each others' way! Can you do that?"

Chuck had this idea since the last time. What's more, Sabina did nothing to him just now.

Therefore, Sabina had no intention to kill him. So what if she became the Yeager family's master?

"I can't, absolutely not. Once I become the family head, your family will be done!" Sabina directly rejected his suggestion.

Was it possible?

It was absolutely impossible!

"Okay, let's go. Let's find a place to have some good noodles," Chuck said as he pulled Sabina up.

Sabina kicked him angrily. "Who's going to have noodles with you? I'm going back!"

"Then how are you going to explain it to your grandfather?" Chuck asked, his smile fading away.

Brooke was still the family head, which meant he still had the right to dismiss Sabina as the heir.

"How? Cut your head off and give it to me. I'll bring your head back to him!" Sabina sneered.

"I can't do it myself."

"Go to hell! I'm leaving! We can't be friends anymore, I'll definitely do something to you. Even if I did not, there's still..."

Sabina stopped talking and stopped herself from mentioning Adriana.

"What is it?" Chuck asked in surprise.

"You're nothing special. How can you have any charm?" Sabina became more and more confused. Why did Adriana only want Chuck?

He was ordinary-looking, and his voice was unpleasant.

Chuck was in a daze. Why did Sabina say that?

Was she looking down on him?

This was totally slanderous!

Chuck couldn't stand it.

"You're not any better! Look at your chest, d*mn it! What is that? Your legs are long, but they're... Tsk Tsk." Chuck sneered.

The two cursed each other, and they began to fight.

No one took it seriously. After beating him for a while, Sabina stood up and said, "Stop it. I'm going back. My grandfather won't live long."

Chuck didn't laugh. After all, Brooke was Sabina's grandfather. But he really wanted to laugh.

However, he had to hold back his feelings since Sabina was still there.

"Alright, you can go back now. Ask me out if you need me," Chuck turned around and left.

"Ask you out? In your dreams!" Sabina laughed coldly.

But all of a sudden, her cell phone rang.

She took it out and saw a message on her phone. "I can't hold on anymore, come back now..."

"Grandpa!" Sabina turned pale with fright!

Chuck instantly stopped her and asked, "What happened?"

"My grandfather is dying. Chuck, it's all your family's fault. I'm never letting you go!" Sabina shouted.

Chuck was wordless.

What else could he say?

This was the cycle of karma. Besides, who could escape old age, sickness and death?

"Wait. Don't you think it's weird that your grandfather sent you a message?" Chuck held her hand and did not let go.

Sabina was furious and lost her mind.

She landed a slap on Chuck's face!

Chuck's cheek reddened.

On the other side, Black Rose gnawed her teeth.

She immediately pulled the trigger!

Bang!

The bullet shot out. It also missed Sabina and hit a tree!

Black Rose was fuming now.

Soon, Sabina came back to her senses. Seeing Chuck's face, she felt startled as she did it to him. "I'm sorry..."

"It's okay, take a look at the message again. Your grandfather is dying, but he can still send you a message?" Chuck's face was burning, but he could understand her.

Sabina shook her head. "If there's something wrong, I still have to go back because he's my grandfather."

"So you'd act on emotions too!" Chuck sighed. And he thought Sabina was cold-blooded!

After all, she had been away for so long. Family affection really didn't matter to her.

"I've always been emotional. Didn't you notice?"

Chuck did not know how to answer her. If Sabina did not have such a character, he would probably have fought to the death with her long ago.

After saying that, Sabina had already ran far away. She got in the car and drove away.
