

Chapter 745

"Black Rose, you...?"

While Alexandrina was stunned, Black Rose had already left.

What happened?

"Don't tell Chuck about her situation?" Alexandrina murmured.

"Hey, why would Chuck ask about your situation?" Alexandrina shouted behind Black Rose, who had just left.

"Why? Exactly... How could he possibly come over and ask about me? In his eyes, I'm just a bodyguard. When I get hurt, all he can do is pay me and then kick me out. I'm no longer useful to him now. Why would he look for me again?" Black Rose thought.

She shook her head and stopped overthinking. She felt uncomfortable and furious. Why was she making a fool of herself?

Black Rose laughed at herself mockingly and left.

Alexandrina was even more confused. What on earth had happened?

"Boss." Frieda came out at this time. She happened to see Black Rose leaving.

She had just noticed that Black Rose's face was frighteningly pale!

During this period of time, Frieda's improvement was rapid. It shocked Alexandrina. Frieda felt that she could kill Black Rose with her current strength.

What's more, Black Rose was gravely injured now!

"Don't attack Black Rose!" Alexandrina said and went into her room.

Frieda smiled a sinister smile, her face full of smug. "Why should I listen to you? Don't attack Black Rose? Who do you think you are? After I get rid of Black Rose, I'll deal with you..."

.....

The Four Greatest Households, in the Lee family.

At this moment, Elijah's face was gloomy and dark.

Brayden was enraged to the extreme. The rest of the Lee family members were all restless.

"I've told you! Karen, that b*tch, has offended the hidden family. Does she want to die? If she wants to die, she shouldn't drag us along!"

Brayden just got the news, and everyone was in danger.

No one could offend a hidden family!

Even if Karen destroyed the Oatker family, what would it mean? In the eyes of a hidden family, the Oatker family was nothing but trash!

Not to mention the Lee family, which had suffered huge losses.

"Ugh, why would Karen do this? Isn't this bad for our family?" Someone shook his head and sighed.

As one of the Four Greatest Households, how could they not know the power of a hidden family?

Offending a hidden family meant courting death! They might as well prepare their coffins ahead of time.

Elijah kept silent.

Brayden said, "Dad, we'd better pledge our allegiance to the hidden family in advance. Otherwise, Karen will definitely drag us down! The hidden family is no joke!"

Hearing Brayden's words, Elijah was furious. "Brayden, how dare you say such a thing?"

Elijah felt disappointed.

How could Brayden be so spineless?

"Dad, I'm also thinking of our future. The hidden family is going to deal with Karen. With our relationship with her, we will definitely be implicated. It's better to surrender in advance so that there is a possibility of survival!"

Brayden was worried.

The other Lee family members looked at each other in dismay. Brayden was right, although he didn't have a backbone.

If the hidden family took action, how could they survive the aftermath? The Lee family was Karen's support, so the hidden family would definitely eradicate them.

No one spoke.

"Unfilial son!" Elijah shouted angrily.

He walked over and slapped Brayden in the face.

None of the Lee descendants dared to speak.

"Dad, you have to think for the future generations of our family! It's our misfortune to have that b*tch in our family! We can only find a way to make up for it!"

"You!"

He slapped Brayden again.

Brayden stepped back. His face was red and swollen.

"Dad!"

"I've already let Karen down, and now you want me to do it again? I can't do that! Our family must not be spineless!" Elijah chided.

Everyone remained silent.

"Dad, Karen is no longer one of us. Why are you thinking about her?" Brayden was also pissed off.

He had always hated Karen and Chuck!

"Bastard!" Elijah was getting more and more furious.

"Clap, clap, clap!"

Someone was clapping his hands. A group of people suddenly came in, one of whom was flanked in between.

"Brayden, you really know how to adapt. You're much more flexible than this old thing!" Loomis smiled harmlessly.

"Who? Who are you?" Elijah shouted.

Everyone from the Lee family turned pale with fright.

Why didn't the bodyguards outside make any movement at all?

How did these people get in?

"Your bodyguards are rubbish. No wonder Karen was able to break into your place in the middle of the night."

Loomis laughed mockingly.

Lee family's guards were really vulnerable when facing the Yeager family.

"Who are you? Are you from the hidden family?" Brayden couldn't help but be shocked.

The other members were also astounded, and terror naturally spread across their faces.

If he wasn't from a hidden family, how could he disregard their family's guards and get in?

Elijah's eyes flashed.

"Not bad, Brayden. You've got some insight. I heard you're a fence-sitter. Which side would you take now? Oh, you'll die if you stand on Karen's side. My side is much better!" Loomis laughed.

Controlling the Lee family to go against Karen and having her family kill her, it seemed very interesting, right?

This was Loomis' first plan.

Torment.

Pain! He wanted to make Karen and Chuck fall into despair.

It was only then that he would feel a little bit of satisfaction.

Brayden was shocked. "You..."

His face turned red. He couldn't be angry with Loomis for his words. What right did he have to be mad with him?

"I'll only ask you once, which side are you on?"

Loomis' voice was not loud, but it shocked everyone.

If Lee family didn't submit to the Yeager family, everyone would die. If they did so, they could survive!

It was a decision of life and death.

The hall was as silent as death.

Unknowingly, everyone stared at Brayden. They were in a complete dilemma!

What should they do?

What should they choose?

"I... I submit to you! Master!" Brayden fell to his knees.

The Lee family's descendants were stunned.

"B*stard! B*stard!" Elijah was so furious that he started coughing.

How could his own son kneel in front of others?

"Dad, you're old and muddleheaded. It's Karen's own business to offend the Yeager family. Why should she bring us into this?" Brayden said rudely.

"Have you forgotten what we did to Karen?" Elijah said indignantly.

"I don't think I did anything wrong to her. She was the one who didn't know any better!" Brayden shook his head coldly.

Brayden told the others, "Do you want to die or live? Are you going to be dragged down by Karen? I don't want to! She's not even one of us. Who is she to me?"

He walked to Loomis's side and bowed his head politely.
"Master!"
