

Chapter 218

The crowd looked in the direction of the sound. Then the crowd separated into two parts and created a path in between.

A cool and beautiful woman in a white dress came over quickly.

She was tall and graceful with an aura of invincibility. She looked around the venue arrogantly. This made many of the girls to shrink back with self-abasement.

Her beautiful eyes looked over coldly, which made countless people bow their heads. It was as if she was the Ice Queen walking through her kingdom.

"Who is she? How dare she speak up for that loser?"

One onlooker sneered.

Some of the guests who recognized the woman had already changed their facial expressions. They quickly covered their mouths, "Are you crazy? Don't you even know who Miss Su is?"

"Miss Su?"

The person who sneered just now was stunned and then suddenly thought of something. His face turned pale immediately and then he kept silent.

It was Yusra Su.

"Miss Su?"

Manager Ma's facial expression changed the moment he saw Yusra. A bad feeling welled up in his chest.

He squeezed out a smile, "Why have you come here early? Why didn't you inform us?"

"Hmmp, if I didn't come now, you probably would have driven away the guest that I invited."

Yusra snorted coldly. She was hot-tempered and did not give a hint of a smile. She was so angry that she looked as if she was going to kill someone.

"Mr. Smith is my honored guest. What are you trying to accomplish by driving him away and calling the police?"

Manager Ma's face changed completely on hearing Yusra's words.

This loser was Miss Su's distinguished guest?

How could this be possible?

After all, all the rich and powerful families in the capital city had to be polite to Miss Su whenever they met her.

How could Miss Su know this kind of loser who wore cheap clothes with her distinguished status?

Manager Ma tried to defend himself. "I didn't know that this gentleman was invited by Miss Su. If I had known earlier, I wouldn't dare to have done anything like that."

Yusra remained unmoved. Instead, she smiled apologetically at Jason.

"Sorry, I'm late."

"I didn't expect my men to be so ignorant and cause trouble for you."

She was still very angry after apologizing.

What kind of person was this Jason?

He was the young master from the Smith's, her fiancé!

These people accused Jason and even wanted to kick him out of her birthday party. Did they not have any respect for her at all?

Moreover, it was not easy for her to invite Jason here.

So Yusra was very angry!

Jason's face was as calm as usual as if none of the earlier accusations had even happened.

"It's okay. I'm used to it."

He glanced at Manager Ma and said calmly, "However, this manager seems to have some kind of problem with me. I told him that I was invited here. I even asked him to go to the receptionist for confirmation but he wouldn't listen to me."

Manager Ma trembled and almost could not stand still.

He forced a smile, "Miss Su, please listen to my explanation."

"You don't have to explain."

"I will report this matter to my father and let him fire you immediately. You will lose your managerial position in Shang Jiang City."

Yusra's words were simple but they made Manager Ma sink into darkness.

Now, Manager Ma could only look at George Wei with a pleading expression. He was hoping that Master George would stand up for him for the sake of all the hard work he had done for him.

However, Manager Ma did not know that George was also terrified.

From the moment Yusra appeared at the banquet, his heart was beating hard.

When Yusra said that Jason was an honored guest she had invited, he could not believe it.

This was Yusra. Master Su's granddaughter!

Harry Su's youngest daughter!

Not only George but even his father had to smile and talk nicely with whenever he met Yusra.

Although the two families had a good bond, the Su's was the wealthiest family in the capital city.

George's family was only able to rule Jinling.

How dared George's family claim to be the best in front of the Su's?

That was just asking for trouble!

Moreover, the power of Su's was deep-rooted in the capital city. George's family could not compare with them.

George could only bite the bullet and come forward when he saw the expression of pity on Manager Ma's face.

"Sister Yusra..."

Yusra turned to look at George and said with a faint smile, "What's wrong? Do you have an explanation? Don't lie to me. I know your character very well."

George could no longer suppress the anger in his heart when he heard this and said unwillingly, "It was this guy who tried to steal my girlfriend..."

"Shut up!"

Yusra's expression turned sour when she heard this and then shouted angrily.

She looked at George, feeling she should never have set high demand on such a waste.

Stole his girlfriend?

Jason was not that kind of person.

"I thought when Uncle Wei sent you training with the Imperial Guards then it would have helped you to control your playboy habits. I didn't expect you to become even worse."

"Such a kind-hearted person like Mr. Smith was accused by you. This shows me how you normally behave in your everyday life."

"I will talk to Uncle Wei personally regarding this matter."

After she finished, she did not even bother to look at the pale-looking George. She turned to Jason, "Mr. Smith, my birthday party is about to begin. Let me show you around."

"All right." Jason nodded.

After saying that, he glanced at George faintly. Then, he turned around and left with a smile.

Manager Ma could not hold back any longer. He lay down on the ground, his face was cast with a shade.

On the other hand, George lowered his head and gritted his teeth. He clenched his fists tightly.

Jason's glance was shown as if he was mocking George. It really hurt George's self-esteem.

"B*stard!"

George finally snapped after Jason and Yusra had walked a short distance. He suddenly took a wine glass from a nearby table and smashed it on the ground.

"Master George, please behave yourself."

Another one of the managers in charge came out and cleaned the mess. He noticed what was happening. He frowned and tried to calm George down.

George looked around and saw that everyone was holding back their laughter. When he thought of how he had been humiliated in public, he could only leave with hatred.

....

"How does he know Miss Su? That's impossible!"

Mason Cui's expression changed slightly when he saw

Yusra. He then exclaimed in a low voice.

"Mason, who is Yusra?"

Josie Tang asked with curiosity.

Yusra had been keeping a low profile this whole time. She rarely joined in the circles of Shang Jiang's richest people, so few people had heard of her.

If it were not for Jason, she would not have held this birthday party in the first place.

"She is Old Master Su's grandchild and Harry Su's youngest daughter."

The muscles of Mason's face kept twitching as he said this in a low voice.

"Is she?"

Josie heard this and was inexplicably shocked. Rebecca Xia and the others beside her felt their hearts skip a beat as well.

Harry was much more famous than Yusra.

Harry was the first son of Su's family. He was Old Master Su's son and now he was Su's family's host.

He was in charge of the capital city's richest family, the Su's.

Every state in the country, not only in Shang Jiang City, would tremble when they heard the Su's name.

People with the status of Mason did not even have the right to meet Harry.

His father, Hector Cui would perhaps have the opportunity.

Since Yusra was Harry's daughter, she was definitely of higher status than anyone at the birthday party here.

Josie felt worried. She could not afford to offend someone like Yusra. Even Mason and George could not afford to offend Yusra.

"We have offended the idiot. What if he wants revenge?"

Josie was at a loss of what to do.

This was Miss Su. How could any ordinary person dare to provoke her?

Who knew that the loser actually knew Miss Su?

Mason's face darkened and he did not say a word. He felt a lot of hatred towards Jason.

He thought that it was a small deed by helping Manager Ma, but now it had become quite a big problem.

Now he understood the reason why his father did not let him provoke Jason. Did his father know Jason?

Yasmine Qin and others were looking at this scene in surprise.

Unexpectedly, Jason actually fought back!

"Who is that woman? Can't George do anything to her because of her high status?"

"That's right. Didn't you say that he was a loser? How could he know such a powerful woman?"

"Do we have such a person in Shang Jiang City's elite circles?"

They had only heard Yusra's name because of their status, but it was impossible for them to meet her. So they were in awe!

Only Yasmine dared to speak in a low voice.

"That's Yusra. She's Su family's third daughter."

All the women's expressions changed when they heard this.

The Su's from in the capital city was very famous.

Yusra was the apple of the Su's eye. She was like a princess. These girls, whose families just worked in Shang Jiang City with a net worth of only tens of millions, did not have the same status compared with Yusra.

"Is this loser actually Yusra's friend? Besides, Yusra's attitude towards him was a little unusual. Does he have some kind of a special background?"

The girls' impressions towards Rita Han changed when they thought about this.

Before that, they thought this silly girl was being cheated by that guy. They never would have expected that she would have such good insight. The guy she was with was not a loser. In fact, he seemed to be very rich!

Rita was still frozen on the spot. It seemed that she had not woken up from the previous encounter.

Rebecca came over and pulled at her. She whispered, "They are gone. Don't stand there stupidly."

However, she was not as calm as she looked.

Ivy and Lex were already hiding.

When they saw Yusra's appear, they became scared.

Their loser brother-in-law actually knew the host of the birthday party!

She was the Su's third daughter, the top wealthy family in the capital city. She was Yusra Su!

No, she must tell her cousin about this!

Ivy hurriedly dialed Cindy's mobile phone and said anxiously, "Cindy, come to Sunset Heights immediately. There's something wrong with Jason. There's a big problem!"

Chapter 219

Meanwhile, Cindy Jiang who was rushing to the hospital from her office received a phone call from her cousin.

"What's wrong with Jason Smith?"

Cindy smiled gently as she stood by the roadside trying to hail a taxi.

"Cindy, why would I lie to you? You'll understand when you get to Sunset Heights!"

Ivy Jiang was in a hurry. She stared at Jason who was walking with Yusra Su close by. She saw that they had actually entered the inner hall.

What the hell was going on with this loser?

How could he actually knew Miss Su!

Wasn't it scary?

Was he still that same loser brother-in-law to her?

"Sunset Heights? Why is Jason there?"

Cindy looked at the time. It was so late. What was Jason doing there?

"Wait a minute."

After Cindy finished talking, Ivy used her mobile phone to take a video of Jason and Yusra. Coincidentally, Yusra was holding Jason's arm like an obedient little daughter. She leaned on his shoulder and looked very happy.

Of course, Ivy did not capture the moment when Jason pushed Yusra away. She just sent this clip to Cindy.

Cindy's expression changed after she received the video!

This really was Jason!

The woman beside him looked familiar!

Yusra Su!

All of a sudden, Cindy's heart missed a beat and she felt sorrow.

Had he gone to look for his ex-fiancée?

Any woman would feel uncomfortable when watching a video like this.

What to do. This little b*tch, Ivy, had purposely sent the video.

"Cindy, did you see that? Jason is having an affair behind your back. He is hooking up with a rich family's daughter!"

Ivy called Cindy again and cursed.

Cindy's voice was a little husky and it was obvious that she was not in a good mood. She replied, "Okay, I know."

She hung up the phone. Sat alone in a taxi and tears rolled down her face as she looked out the window.

There was no other explanation.

Cindy felt helpless when it came to encounters with Jason's troublesome ex-fiancée.

She was willing to believe Jason, but she felt a pain in her heart!

It hurt her to the core!

She kept telling herself, "Don't overthink. Don't overthink."

She kept telling himself that she believed in Jason.

Cindy checked her contact list. She would have phoned Jason immediately right away if this had happened in the past.

However, she knew that she could not do this now. She believed Jason must have his reasons for finding Yusra.

He was her husband.

He was the only person in this world that she could trust.

After breathing a sigh of relief, Cindy calmed down and said to the driver, "Sir, please hurry up. My daughter is waiting for me in the hospital."

Cindy did not go to Sunset Heights. She was willing to believe in Jason.

She would pretend that she did not see this.

Meanwhile, Jason and Yusra entered the inner hall.

"Jason, come back to me and divorce Cindy. I love you. I really love you."

Yusra's love had already started to overflow at this moment. She hugged Jason tightly and did not want to let him go.

Jason felt very helpless. He knew that this would happen.

Jason pulled Yusra's delicate hand away from his arms. He turned to look at her crying face, "Yusra, I'm sorry. There's nothing between us anymore. I only love Cindy. She's my wife. Let's forget the past. Is that okay?"

"No! Why? Why can you have happiness when I can't?"

Tears welled up in Yusra's eyes. She was crying so hard.

She had just expressed her thoughts to Jason but she had been rejected again.

She even showed off her figure and the scar on her chest to him.

Jason remained indifferent even after she did all of these things.

"Yusra, listen to me..."

Jason felt a headache. He really did not know what to do when he saw Yusra being like this.

He did not want to hurt this woman who always loved him so much, but he had no choice.

"I won't listen! I won't listen!"

Yusra covered her ears and cried hysterically, "It's all because of her! If she didn't exist, would you fall back in love with me?"

Suddenly, Jason's eyes turned cold. He stared at Yusra and asked, "What are you planning to do?"

Yusra wiped her tears, her attitude changed from a little girl to a cruel woman, "What am I planning? I have told you before, Jason. No one can have a thing or a person that I can't have. I won't do anything to you because I love you. I don't care about that b*tch, Cindy. I don't even care about your daughter either. Anyone who tries to stop me will die!"

Suddenly the atmosphere became tense because of what Yusra said!

Jason's eyes turned cold and he was in a rage. He reached out his hands, gritted his teeth, and grabbed Yusra's fair wrist, "Yusra, what do you mean? I warn you, if you dare to do anything to Cindy or my daughter, I will never forgive you! I won't let the Su's get away with it either!"

As Yusra's wrist was being held by Jason, a determined look flashed in her eyes. She sneered, "Jason, when will you worry about me like how you worry about Cindy?"

Pat!

Jason pushed Yusra's hand away and said coldly, "Don't cross the line!"

After that, Jason turned around and was got ready to leave.

However, Yusra sneered again, "Do you know the reason why I asked you to come here tonight?"

"What do you mean?"

Jason's eyes turned colder. He turned around and stared at Yusra.

Jason's mobile phone rang. It was from someone he knew.

"Speak!"

Jason said coldly. His whole body was tense and very anxious.

This phone call meant that something might have happened to Cindy and Angela.

"Young master, madam and miss are fine. We've just dealt with a group of people."

On the other end of the phone, a cold male voice replied, "It seemed to be a group of ruffians who wanted to kidnap madam at the hospital's entrance."

"I see."

After that, Jason hung up the phone and stared at Yusra angrily. He asked in a low voice, "Did you send your people to the hospital?"

Yusra knew that her plan had failed. She just wanted to teach Cindy a lesson.

She raised her chin arrogantly and did not look moved. She said in a cold voice, "Yes, I wanted her to have a taste of the pain I've felt over the years. I hate her and I hate you!"

Slap!

Jason slapped her. He felt as if he wanted to kill her. He shouted, "Yusra, don't drive me crazy!"

She had crossed the line!

Why did she have to cross the line?

Jason's heart became extremely cold at that moment.

For those who crossed the line, Jason would kill them without exception, even if that person was Yusra!

"Push it? Aren't you pushing it with me too?"

Yusra covered her face with her hands and tears welled up in her eyes.

Jason slapped her.

Jason did not want to argue with her anymore. He warned her in seriousness, "Don't do this again! I will inform the Su's to take you home!"

After that, Jason turned around and ran out of the banquet hall in a hurry.

Yusra stood alone in the big inner hall. She was squatting down and crying with her hands covering her face.

A middle-aged man wearing a white traditional suit came in. He shook his head and looked at Yusra, "Yusra, why do you want to make yourself suffer?"

It was Harry Su, the Master of the Su's from the capital city.

He was of high status.

When he saw how sad Yusra was, he, as a father, felt the pain too.

However, he did not dare to question the will of Master Smith.

Even the Su's, the wealthiest family in the capital city, was like an ant in front of Jason.

The Su's could only be promoted from a second-rate family to a first-class family because of support from Jason.

Harry did not dare to question Jason because the Su's would always be in his debt.

He would destroy the Su's because of his daughter's annoying behavior.

"Come home with me tomorrow." Harry shook his head helplessly.

Jason hurried to the hospital and saw Cindy accompanying Angela.

They looked very warm and sweet lying on the bed together.

Jason could finally relax.

He gently walked to the bedside and sat down. He watched Cindy and Angela who were sleeping soundly.

"I'm sorry. I'm late." Jason said softly.

Jason was very conflicted now. All kinds of feelings welled up in his mind. All of a sudden, what just happened came to his mind.

He wanted to guard Cindy and his daughter vigilantly.

After seven years, he had forgotten a lot of things.

He never revealed his identity in order to protect Cindy and Angela.

Even if he had endured the abuse for three years, he had never revealed anything.

"Bear with me. I'll bring you and Angela home soon."

Jason said. He leaned over and kissed Cindy's fair forehead. Then he kissed Angela's little face.

After that, he turned around. He walked out of the ward and came to a corner of the hospital entrance.

After a while, a figure walked out of the darkness and said lazily, "Young master, why don't you tell madam about your identity?"

Jason lit a cigarette and gave one to him. "I know what to do. You have to watch the Wei's from Jinling for a few days."

The man in the dark answered and blew out a mouthful of smoke. Suddenly, he became very emotional, "It's been seven years and I've been looking forward to it. Young master, when are you going to attack the Yun's?"

Chapter 220

Jason Smith sighed, "It's almost time. Before I go back to my real home, I don't want to take any action just yet."

The figure in the dark said nothing before leaving.

When Jason got to the villa the next day, he saw that Amanda Yang had already occupied more than half of the house.

She had moved all the things from the old house. She looked at Jason proudly, "How is it? I've made a good arrangement for this house, haven't I?"

Jason looked around at the decorations for a while, then went upstairs to check the other rooms. He saw that the luxurious villa had been turned into something like a residential house with decorations.

Amanda even altered Cindy Jiang and Jason's room.

Their wedding photo was moved to the ground floor's bedroom.

Amanda felt nervous when she saw Jason coming down from the master's bedroom with a gloomy look on his face. She glanced at Charles Jiang who was beside her.

Charles ignored Amanda which made her glare at him fiercely.

"Take your things out!"

Jason walked over with a straight face and glared at Amanda.

Amanda did not want to move her things. The master bedroom was luxurious. She liked it and did not want to give it up.

"No! This house was bought by my daughter and you spent her money. Besides, do you want your father-in-law and me to live downstairs?"

Amanda said rudely, "Your father-in-law and I are old, so it's only right that we live in the best room. I won't move my things!"

Jason raised his eyebrows and felt too lazy to argue with Amanda. He said coldly, "I don't want to talk nonsense with you. Move your things out of my room today. If I return and see that your things are still there, I will ask the security guards to kick you out!"

After that, Jason left the villa without looking back.

This made Amanda angry.

"D*mn it, why is this loser so fierce with these days? What was he saying just now? Was this villa bought using his money?"

Amanda was very unhappy. She was so angry and sat on the sofa.

Charles had a headache, "I advise you to treat Jason better in the future. Can't you see that Jason is no longer the coward that we used to know?"

This crazy woman did not understand anything.

"Hey! What do you mean Charles?"

Amanda tilted her head and did not understand what Charles meant.

Charles thought for a moment, "Think about it carefully. What did Jason give me on my birthday? Scholar Tang Bohu's authentic painting that was worth millions of dollars!"

Amanda snorted, "Well, I thought you had something important to tell me. He bought that painting from the antique market."

Charles shook his head, "It's not like that. Think about it."

What did he give your father on his 70th birthday? A jade thumb ring worth one hundred million. Do you think he got it from the antique market? Moreover, he gave it to your father for no reason. He didn't seem to think that was an expensive gift."

Amanda's heart missed a beat. The more she thought about it, the faster it beat.

What was wrong with Jason?

Charles finally made Amanda realize something. He got up and sighed. He shook his head, "I advise you to respect Jason, otherwise, nothing good will come of it."

After that, Charles left the villa to play chess.

Amanda sat on the sofa. The more she thought about it, the more she felt curiosity about Jason.

How could it be? This loser was useless. What on earth was going on?

Could he be an anonymous rich second generation?

That could not be true. Otherwise, why would he suffer for three years in the Jiang's?

No. She had to try to get him to spill the beans.

As Jason was talking to Joe Qiao at the Sheng Ding Group that afternoon, he received a phone call from Amanda.

"Jason, Cindy's uncle is having a business trip in Shang Jiang City and he wants to come over to our house. He wants to treat us a meal, do you want to come?"

There was a hint of flattery in Amanda's tone from the way she spoke.

There was no other way. Now, Amanda knew that Jason owned the villa too.

She had to please Jason at first. Then, she would lie to him and then investigate his background.

In the end, she wanted to remove Jason's name from the villa and changed it to hers!

In this way, she would be able to threaten him with her power.

"Me? I don't want to go. Please say hello to uncle on my behalf and tell them that I have something else to do tonight. I'm busy."

Jason was not a fool. He was suspicious of Amanda's tone, so he did not want any trouble at the dinner.

Moreover, this uncle's family had always been in conflict with the Jiang's.

Although they had moved to Jinling a while ago.

He had even not seen them for two years.

Amanda was stunned for a moment and then became angry. She questioned, "Jason, what do you mean? You're being so rude. Uncle wants to treat us to a meal. Do you think I want to bring you along? If you want to say hello to them, please do it yourself!"

After that, Amanda hung up the phone in anger.

This Jason was getting more and more ridiculous!

Jason was a little confused. He felt helpless. It seemed that he had to attend the dinner tonight.

After phoning Cindy, Jason got ready to pick her up later that night.

Coincidentally, Joe had helped Jason buy a car. It was not very expensive. It was a BMW 5 series. It was just average.

That evening, Jason drove the brand-new BMW 5 series and waited downstairs at Cindy's office.

When Cindy saw the new car, she was stunned. She was very surprised and confused. "Where did you get the money to buy this car?"

Jason leaned against the car door, wearing a pair of sunglasses. He looked so handsome.

Jason bent down like a gentleman, opened the car door and invited Cindy to get in.

Jason said, "Didn't I mention that I still have some money. I bought the car for you. It's so exhausting for you to always take public transport to work."

Cindy was very touched but she still rolled her eyes at him, "Don't spend too much money in the future, do you understand?"

Jason shrugged his shoulders indicating that he understood.

The Ocean was a relatively upscale restaurant in Shang Jiang City. Cindy's uncle treated them here which showed that he must have been quite wealthy.

Jason and Cindy parked the car at the entrance and gave the keys to the valet. Then they went upstairs together.

As soon as they entered the private room, they saw that Amanda, Charles, and uncle Sean Ren's family had already arrived. Some other uncles and aunts that they did not know were there as well.

"Hi, uncle, aunt."

Cindy greeted her relatives one by one.

Jason nodded and greeted them one by one too.

However, the uncle's family showed a sardonic look as if they did not care about him.

Especially Clara Ren, his uncle's daughter, looked coldly at Jason. She just sat down and felt disdain for him. Jason looked like he had never been to a high-class restaurant before. He seemed to be obsequious and timid.

What the hell? Why did they ask him to come over?

Clara and her mother looked extremely similar. Although she was over forty years old, she dressed very fashionably. She squinted at Jason and said coldly, "It seems that anyone can eat luxurious meals these days."

She just wanted to humiliate Jason in front of the relatives.

Amanda looked at him coldly and did not say a word. She already despised Jason in her heart.

She would not have brought Jason, if she had known earlier that he would be humiliated.

However, Amanda was very unhappy with Francesca Miao's attitude.

As soon as they arrived, they could not wait to humiliate Jason. This was like a slap in the face of Amanda.

The other uncles and aunts looked at Francesca doubtfully at that moment. They looked at the man who sat opposite them.

People with discerning looks immediately understood the conflict between them. They knew that this family did not like Jason very much.

Some nasty and ironic smiles started to appear on some people's faces.

The atmosphere was slightly awkward

Jason just sat down. He glanced at Clare's mother and said with an embarrassed smile, "Then I'd better not stay. I have things to do. Uncles and aunt, please enjoy your meal. I'll leave now."

Just as Jason was about to get up and leave, he turned his head and the smile on his face suddenly disappeared.

He would never forget how Francesca Miao mocked him at his wedding. The way she showed off how rich her family was.

Jason was still hiding his identity back then and did not want to get into trouble. So he was always polite.

It was different now. There was no reason for Jason to endure these kinds of people looking down on him anymore.

They could not fight with him.

"I'm going home too. Uncles and aunts, please enjoy your meal."

Cindy stood up with a cold face too as well and got ready to leave.

"All right, all right. Cindy and Jason, please sit down."

Sean spoke with a calm face at this moment. He glared at his wife and muttered, "What are you talking about? Why can't you just let us enjoy the meal?"

Sean was really fed up with his wife. She just wanted to compete all day long.

After all, Jason was Cindy's husband. How could she humiliate him like this?

Francesca crossed her arms in front of her chest and showed no respect to anyone. She scolded like a shrew, "How can I enjoy a meal? You only know to eat and always want to bring these poor relatives. Sooner or later, they will ruin your life!"

"It's not like you don't know who you invited. Why did you bring this trash here? How can we enjoy the meal? It stinks in here!"

Francesca cursed Jason and the Jiang's indiscriminately.

Cindy who was sitting next to Jason held him tightly with her hands. She looked very angry as well.

Her aunt's temper had always been like this. She had always looked down on Cindy's family.

However, it was too much of her humiliating Jason in public.

"Let's go."

Cindy stood up and was trembling with anger.

However, Jason suddenly stopped Cindy just as she was about to leave and said with a smile, "I'm not leaving. Let's eat here."

Chapter 221

Cindy Jiang was slightly stunned and looked at Jason Smith suspiciously. She was very puzzled.

Why did Jason want to stay here after being humiliated by her uncle's family?

Amanda Yang was very angry as well. She was ready to get up and leave but she was stunned when Jason said that he wanted to stay for the dinner.

Amanda had no idea whether she should leave or stay at the restaurant.

It was very embarrassing.

"Jason, what are you doing? Who said you could answer back? Hurry up and apologize to your aunt."

Amanda had no choice but to vent her anger towards Jason.

Cindy's uncle's family had a lot of great achievements in Jinling. They were the richest and the most powerful among the family's relatives.

In the past, Cindy's aunt had humiliated the Jiang family many times.

Amanda still had bad memories of them, and she was even not herself when she met up with Cindy's uncle's family.

Even Charles Jiang, who was a chief officer in the past, still could not compare with Sean Ren.

There was no other way because Jinling was the main city in the Southern River District.

Moreover, Sean knew a lot of powerful people.

"Mom, why should I apologize? Don't forget that Cindy is now the CEO of a company. Why do we need to bow down to them?"

Jason said with slight displeasure.

After he had finished, the atmosphere in the room changed.

Sean's family members looked at Jason suspiciously and then at Cindy.

"CEO?"

Francesca Miao asked in an unfriendly tone.

Amanda realized what was going on and immediately became her usual self.

That was right. Cindy was a CEO now. She even knows Master Smith of the Smith Group from the capital city. Her company has even obtained a one-billion-dollar investment from him. She is not weaker than the Ren's. Why should she be afraid?

"Oh, it's not a big deal. She has only become a CEO recently. Just a CEO, it's nothing. Even if Cindy got a one billion dollar investment, she can't compare with your family."

Everyone knew that Amanda was trying to show off with the way she spoke.

Francesca frowned and muttered, "One billion dollars?"

She looked around and did not say anything more.

Had Cindy, her niece-in-law, now become successful?

The dinner's atmosphere suddenly turned awkward and the air also became horribly cold.

Sean quickly smiled at Cindy and Jason, "Cindy, Jason, sit down quickly. Don't pay attention to your aunt. She has been in a bad mood recently, please don't mind her. I apologize on her behalf."

Jason and Cindy sat back at their places after hearing this.

Several sarcastic looks from those sitting at the dinner table were cast in their direction.

Now, even those who depended on a woman for a living could eat for free food without any worry.

"All right. All right. It's rare for us to have dinner together so we must enjoy it."

Sean smiled, "I have invited a Shang Jiang City's leader to come over later. He'll be here soon."

Everyone smiled and began to have small talk.

"Sean, your daughter is so beautiful. Where is she working?"

A middle-aged man looked at Clara Ren as he asked with a smile.

The middle-aged man had a son who intended to enquire about marrying Sean's daughter. After all, Sean's family was quite rich with their dealing in real estate.

If it was not for this, Sean would not have invited the manager of Shang Jiang's real estate tonight.

It was known that Sean was going to be involved in Shang Jiang City's real estate industry.

"Haha. Thanks for the compliment. She doesn't want to work in my company so she works in Aspen Real Estate. It's not bad because she is their department manager."

Sean laughed. His daughter had always made him proud of her.

"Clara works in Aspen Real Estate? Oh! That's great. It's one of the top five real estate companies in the country!"

A fashionable woman looked surprised and envious.

Clara replied politely with a smile, "Aunt Quelle, don't say that. It's just a way for me to climb the social ladder."

"Wow! Working in Aspen Real Estate is much better than my son is doing. He works in Great Eastern Real Estate. If there's a chance, I'll introduce him to you."

Aunt Quelle said with envy as she also flattered Clara.

"Sure."

Clara was generous.

"Better don't. Your son is so naughty, he might be a bad influence on my daughter."

Francesca was teasing Aunt Quelle.

The two women immediately had a topic to chat and laugh about.

"By the way, I don't know where this guy works. Does he live off his wife?"

Suddenly, someone changed the topic back to Jason who was eating.

"Yeah. Look at the way he eats. I think he must be very frugal for most days. He has never eaten these good things. No rush, eat slowly."

A woman teased.

"Haha, he's just a loser who relies on his wife to support his life."

Aunt Francesca satirized him. She thought of her daughter working in Aspen Real Estate compared to Amanda's low-class son-in-law who sent deliveries and lived off his wife. All of a sudden, she felt superior and proud of her daughter.

"Jason, are you still delivering takeout?"

Francesca asked with a slight smile.

This question made Amanda and Charles blush. They sat there awkwardly and did not say a word.

It was so embarrassing.

They should not have come here for dinner.

"What? Delivering food? That can't be true. Didn't they just say that his wife is a CEO?" Someone said in surprise.

"CEO? What kind of CEO? Some kind of small company?"

Francesca unceremoniously disclosed, "Jason, don't just focus on your food. I'm talking to you."

So frivolous and arrogant!

Sean saw this and wanted to stop it but he just shook his head helplessly.

He had tried his best to take care of these poor relatives.

To be honest, he just wanted to let this play out so that Jason would be encouraged to work harder.

It was so useless of him to rely on Cindy to support him.

Amanda was even angrier. She glared at Jason who was only focused on eating his dinner and scolded him fiercely, "Jason, your aunt is talking to you!"

Jason was not worried about making a fool out of himself in public because he had got used to it in the Jiang's.

Cindy secretly pulled Jason's hand and asked him to remain calm.

They were all her relatives, so Jason could only bear with it.

Jason put down his chopsticks and smiled in embarrassment. He said, "Auntie, thank you for your advice. I will work harder."

"Haha, don't blame me for being so strict with you. What will your future be like if you don't work hard?"

Francesca became very happy. She showed the attitude of an elder by teaching Jason a lesson unscrupulously. "Even if Cindy is a CEO now, she still works in a small company. How much can she earn in a year? If a man doesn't work hard, he will find himself getting divorced. What will you do in the future, if Cindy wants to divorce a useless thing like you?"

"Well, you are right aunt. I will work harder."

Jason nodded heavily. He did not want to listen to this woman's nonsense. She thought she could teach Jason a lesson just because she was older than him.

"I'd like to propose a toast to uncle and aunt. Thank you for your concern."

With this, Jason held up his wine glass. He stood up and finished the drink.

"Aunt, I'm sorry. I don't agree with you. Jason is my husband. I'm willing to support him, even if he is what you call a 'loser'."

Cindy who had been holding her tongue suddenly stood up and said this coldly.

"Well, I don't mind if you're willing to support a loser," Francesca said with a sneer.

Amanda tugged at Cindy in anger and whispered, "What are you doing? Sit down. Why are you defending that loser?"

The rest of the people at the dinner table looked at Jason with disdain.

Jason obviously had no ambition.

After being scolded like this, he did not do anything. He even had to rely on his wife to back him up.

Such a f*cking loser!

Jason was not stupid. Sean Ren's family were his elders so he did not mind them giving him some advice. Why did these other people sneer? It had nothing to do with them?

Soon, Sean took a look at his mobile phone. He got up excitedly, "He's here. Follow me to welcome him."

Since the host had spoken, they could not stay there. They all got up and walked out of the private room and came to the hall.

Sean stood in front of the crowd, whereas Jason stood beside the crowd. He was chatting and laughing with Cindy.

"Are you okay after what happened just now?"

Cindy asked with concern. After all, she was annoyed because so many people had just humiliated her husband.

Jason shook his head. He touched Cindy's smooth and tender face, "It's okay, I'm used to it. It's good to have you by my side."

This interaction was seen by Francesca. It did not leave a good impression on her.

"Useless. He only knows how to sweet talk. No wonder he's to be poor for the rest of his life."

Clara said with contempt.

Jason turned his face and looked at the chubby Clara who was wearing jeans. They were skin tight and she also wore a pink sweatshirt. He ignored her since he did not want to quarrel with her.

A good man would never fight with a woman.

A man in a black suit carrying a briefcase came through the door of The Ocean. He looked gentle and wore glasses. He talked formally, "Mr. Ren, I'm sorry that I'm late. I got caught in a traffic jam."

"Oh! It's okay. It's an honor that Director Cui can come here in person. Let's go, please come in."

Sean strode over and shook hands with the man.

This was not an ordinary person. He was Hector Cui, the top executive in Shang Jiang City's real estate industry.

"Great."

Hector answered with a smile and followed Sean inside.

As he walked through the crowd, the observant Hector saw Jason standing in the corner.

Mr. Smith?!

He was here too!

Hector was overjoyed. He quickly forgot Sean and the others and walked quickly towards Jason.

Hector had just talked to Joe on the phone the day before and already knew Jason's identity.

Hector had been honest all his life and had always done good things for people.

Therefore, Jason's request for Joe to investigate Hector was not successful.

Jason and Joe had just discussed about Hector in the morning.

Sean and others were stunned as well. What happened to Hector? Why had he left them to go somewhere else?

Was he rushing to the toilet?

When they came to their senses, they saw that Hector was walking in the direction of Jason who was flirting with Cindy in the corner!

Chapter 222

Hector walked over quickly, unable to hide his joy, "Mr. Smith, you're here too. It's great to meet you."

Jason was talking to Cindy. He looked up when he heard the voice and saw that the person in front of him was unfamiliar. "Who are you?"

"Oh! Mr. Smith, you must be so busy and forget my name. My name is Hector Cui. The incident at Dragon City happened because I didn't manage to teach my son Mason Cui well. Mr. Smith, I hope you don't mind."

Hector was flattering. His words were very respectful.

Jason remembered who he was when the man had finished talking. He smiled, "Director Cui, nice to meet you."

Hector still wanted to talk with Jason while Sean Ren and others came over looking unhappy.

Cindy who was beside Jason looked at him suspiciously. How did he know the top guy from the real estate industry?

"You know Hector?"

She tugged at Jason and looked at him suspiciously.

Jason thought for a moment and nodded. "I kind of know him. I'll tell you later."

Suddenly, a deep voice came from behind.

"Jason, what are you doing? Why didn't you say hello when you met Mr. Hector?"

Sean looked dissatisfied at that moment. When he saw Jason's cynical look, he became very angry.

Hector was the most important guest tonight, he was Shang Jiang City's top real estate manager. If anything went wrong, then Sean's plan to expand in this city's real estate development would fail!

Therefore, he could not make any mistakes!

This was the reason why he was angry with Jason.

"Look, this is what you get for trying to help your poor relatives. What will you do if he has offended Hector?"

Sean's wife, Francesca Miao said these few words. It immediately tore apart the last bit of hypocrisy in Sean's heart.

"That's right. Dad, look at Jason. He's such a loser. Such a relative will ruin our family's lives"

Clara Ren was in support of her mother.

She had never respected Jason. Moreover, she used to be very jealous of Cindy, so she would not show any pity.

The crowd walked forwards. Sean with a look of unhappiness scolded Jason, "Why don't you apologize to Mr. Hector right away?"

Jason was a little confused when Sean said this. What had he done wrong?

Jason looked at Hector who looked panicked.

To make Mr. Smith apologize to him?

It must be a huge joke!

If Mr. Smith got angry and felt so inclined, then the Cui's would be finished!

Therefore, Hector yelled, "Sean! How dare you speak to Mr. Smith like this! Apologize to him now!"

"Mr. Smith?"

Sean was stunned. Why did Hector respect Jason so much?

How could this be possible!

Hector was the Shang Jiang City's top manager. Jason was just a poor loser relative of his. He even lived off a woman!

What the heck was going on?

Not only Sean, but his wife, Clara, and all his friends were stunned as well.

"Mr. Hector, are you kidding? Jason is just my loser relative. How do you know him?"

Sean asked with a puzzled face.

"Don't judge people by their looks. Do you think you can so easily condemn Mr. Smith?"

Anger flashed over Hector's face. He could not wait to give Sean a scolding!

It was so absurd!

How dared he criticized Mr. Smith!

Sean was stunned as well. He could obviously see that Hector respected Jason very much. It was not a joke.

What on earth was going on?

What was Jason's true identity?

Wasn't he just a loser from the Jiang's?

Sean glanced at Amanda Yang and Charles Jiang who also looked confused. Charles was okay because he knew Hector. So he hurriedly walked forward and shook hands with him. "Mr. Hector, I didn't expect that you were today's distinguished guest."

Hector glanced at the obsequious Charles and asked suspiciously, "Who are you?"

"I'm Jason's father-in-law. My name is Charles. I used to be a chief officer."

Charles' love of being an officer was reignited again in his heart.

Jason actually knew Hector. This was incredible.

Charles had never really achieved what he wanted. Was this a chance for him?

"Hello. So you're Mr. Smith's father-in-law."

Hector nodded hurriedly and bowed to shake hands with Charles. His face was beaming with a smile. "Chief Charles, you really have a good son-in-law, so amazing."

Charles was very happy too. Was Hector trying to suck up to him?

He looked at Jason suspiciously and saw that Jason was smiling calmly.

Charles was right. Jason had really changed and became somewhat incomprehensible.

No way. When he got home, he had to teach that crazy woman a lesson again. Amanda could no longer offend Jason.

Jason even knew Hector. It was obvious that his identity was not so simple.

Amanda saw this scene and her heart started beating quickly. She knew who Hector was. When she saw how Charles was acting, she immediately understood.

However, Hector was also fawning over Charles because of Jason.

What was going on?

Wasn't Jason a loser?

"Sean, apologize to Mr. Smith. Otherwise, your project will never be approved."

Hector stopped smiling and began to pressure Sean with his power.

Sean was so anxious that sweat appeared on his forehead. He said to Jason unwillingly, "I'm sorry. My attitude just now wasn't right."

Jason smiled, "It's nothing. We are all relatives."

After that, a group of people laughed to calm the awkwardness of the atmosphere.

Only Clara and her mother looked unhappy. They wanted to make things difficult for Jason but they did not expect him to know this big shot.

The others were shocked as well and they just smiled awkwardly.

It was a miracle that loser Jason knew Hector. He was in charge of Shang Jiang City's real estate management department!

The few of them returned to the private room. Everyone saw that Hector continued to show respect for Jason when he talked.

This made them feel very uneasy. Hector, who was of high status, actually respected this loser so much.

The dinner finished soon. After sending Hector off, the rest of the people in the room looked at Jason with eyebrows raised.

Sean kicked his wife with his legs under the table and winked at her.

"Jason, do you really know Hector? Why didn't you tell me earlier?"

Francesca's expression had changed into one of flattery. "Don't take what I said to heart. I apologize."

After that, she took a whole cup of wine.

"Jason, your uncle is going to expand the real estate industry in Shang Jiang City this year. Since you know and seem to be respected by Mr. Hector, can you please put good words in for your uncle?"

Francesca sat in her seat and said this with a smile on her face.

If it were not for her husband's career, she would not ingratiate herself with such a poor loser.

"Aunt, I thought I was a loser? I'm afraid that I can't help uncle."

Jason replied with a smile without even batting his eyelids.

Francesca was stunned and cursed in her mind, "What are you pretending to be, idiot?" Then, she smiled awkwardly and was speechless for a while.

"Jason, is it so difficult to do this for my mother? Do you really think you are so great? You only know Hector. Why are you being so arrogant? Do you think my father can't do it without your help?"

Clara was very angry. She felt disgusted, especially when she saw that Jason did not even bother to look at her!

Such a loser! Why was him so proud of himself?

Wasn't he just a loser who relied on his wife?

"Well, Clara. How can you talk to Jason like this? Be polite to him in the future, after all, he is your brother-in-law."

Sean's face turned red as he scolded Clara.

"Humph!"

Clara folded her arms around her chest and glanced at Jason coldly. She hated him so much!

"Jason, can you help me? If you can't help me, then I won't trouble you."

Sean did not want to put all his hopes on Jason. After all, Jason has always been a loser in the past.

Even if he knew Hector, it would not change much.

After thinking for a while, Jason turned to look at Cindy, "Dear, should we help them?"

Cindy was stunned. She did not expect that Jason would ask her to make this kind of decision.

"If you can help them, just do it. We are all relatives."

Cindy smiled. All of a sudden, she felt she was important and was extremely proud in front of her uncle's family.

Who said that her husband was a loser?

Jason did not say anything. He agreed to help and called Joe Qiao without any further hesitation.

Soon, Hector called Sean, "Mr. Sean, come to my real estate department tomorrow if you are free."

"Thank you, Mr. Hector. Thank you, Mr. Hector!"

Sean was very happy. He hung up the phone with gratitude and then praised Jason again and again.

He did not expect that Jason's phone call would actually work for his plan.

"Why don't you apologize to Jason?"

Sean glared at Francesca who was beside him and berated her.

Francesca sat in her seat for a while and said in a muffled voice, "I'm sorry. What I said just now was nonsense."

Oh my god! She was so angry!

The Jiang's loser son-in-law was actually capable.

Meanwhile Amanda and Charles were over the moon.

Unexpectedly, Jason had actually made them proud.

Afterward, everyone kept complimenting Jason and flattering Charles and Amanda.

Then, Amanda and Charles drank more wine out of happiness.

After the dinner, Jason waved off his uncle's family and hailed a taxi for Amanda and Charles.

Then, Jason and Cindy were about to drive home.

However, Cindy got a phone call and her expression changed just as they were halfway. She said anxiously, "Hurry up. Go to the hospital. Something has happened to mom and dad!"

Jason was stunned. He turned around in a hurry and asked, "What happened?"

Chapter 223

Cindy Jiang was very anxious, "I don't know. It was a call from the hospital saying that there has been a car accident."

A car accident?

OMG!

Jason Smith immediately stepped on the gas pedal and rushed to the hospital.

When they arrived at the hospital, Cindy rushed out of the car anxiously. She saw a lot of ambulances parked at the entrance with many wounded people being taken out of them.

The hospital was chaotic!

Lots of nurses and doctors were shouting desperately,

"Here. Here. This patient is seriously injured! Stop the bleeding!"

"We need a breathing bag here!"

"Please transfer some staff from other hospitals here immediately and contact the Director!"

The scene was very chaotic. Many people were covered in blood. They were being carried down from continuously arriving ambulances!

There was blood everywhere!

And some were even with broken limbs!

Miserable howls kept ringing out!

Cindy was scared and trembled. She covered her mouth and kept searching the blood-covered bodies on the ground that were covered with white cloths.

"Mom? Dad? Where are you?"

Cindy cried out in a hurry. She was so sad that her face was covered with tears.

Jason helped her up and lifted several white clothes covering the people. They had died in such horrible ways that Jason could not bear to see them!

There was a smell of blood which stung the nose!

"Cindy, don't worry. It's okay. They'll be fine."

Jason comforted her. At first glance, this looked like a major traffic accident.

"What should we do? What should we do? Jason, I can't find my parents. Are they..."

When she saw the shocking scene at the hospital entrance, Cindy cried so loudly that her body began shaking.

Jason was very anxious as well. After all, they were his in-laws. If something had really happened to them, he would not know what to do.

"Doctor, may I ask are there any wounded people named Amanda Yang and Charles Jiang?"

Cindy asked anxiously. She caught a blood-covered doctor who was running by.

"Are you Amanda and Charles's relatives?"

The doctor looked at Cindy and Jason suspiciously. Obviously, he knew them.

"Yes, yes, yes. Where are my parents? Are they all right?"

Cindy did not want to think anymore and her big watery eyes were full of tears.

"They're over there."

The doctor pointed casually to the resting area down the corridor. Many people were sitting there. All of them had injuries.

Cindy saw Amanda and Charles as she looked. They were sitting in the corner, covered with gauze and blood on their heads.

"Dad, mom!"

Cindy rushed over in a hurry. She hugged Amanda and Charles. Then burst into tears.

She was scared!

She was scared to death!

Luckily they were fine!

"Cindy, you might have never seen me again."

Amanda cried as well because she had been scared badly by the traffic accident.

Many people had died because of a major accident just now. Fortunately, their driver was skillful. He quickly turned the car, so Amanda and Charles had only hit their heads and got a few bruises.

They had not suffered severe injuries.

"Mom, are you okay?"

When Jason saw that his in-laws were fine, he breathed a sigh of relief. He ran over anxiously.

"Are you blind? Can't you see our injuries? Do you think we're all right?"

Suddenly, Amanda was angry. She pointed to her forehead and scolded, "What's wrong? Are you dissapointed to see that we only have minor injured? Did you hope that your father and I would die in the accident? And you could take over our family's property?"

Amanda was very angry and afraid. When she saw Jason's attitude, she became even angrier.

Was this guy blind?

Jason was stunned that he was being accused.

Was Amanda still feeling trauma from the car accident so wanted to vent her anger at him?

"Mom, I didn't mean that. I..."

Jason sighed helplessly.

"Why are you sighing? Why? Am I right that you're unhappy now? Jason, I've always known that you're not a good person. Have you been a loser for three years because your plan is to take my family's property and Cindy's company as well?"

Obviously, Amanda was accusing Jason.

"Mom, why are you saying this? Jason and I came here as soon as we heard the news. He is very anxious too."

Cindy could not stand it anymore. Her mother was being so unreasonable. How could she blame Jason for everything?

Moreover, Jason did not care one bit about her family's money.

Jason had even bought Palace No.1.

"Don't scold Jason, Amanda. He did nothing wrong. What's wrong with you?"

Charles had a headache. He covered his forehead as he glared at Amanda.

After all, Jason had made them proud earlier that night.

How could this crazy woman be so ungrateful?

His career now relied entirely on the relationship between Jason and Hector Cui.

"What are you doing? You and Cindy are working together to defend this loser now? Do you still respect me?"

Amanda was very angry. When she saw Charles and Cindy united, she became even more dissatisfied.

She was the owner of that house.

Jason was a nobody.

"Mom, can you stop being unreasonable?"

Cindy felt so frustrated. What was wrong with her mom? Why did she suddenly had such a temper?

"I'm being unreasonable? Look at him. He hasn't even checked on us. Although we just have external injuries, what if we have internal injury too? He just stands here and does nothing. Isn't he looking forward to us dying?"

Amanda said angrily. Her eyebrows were lowered and expression was cold. Her eyes revealed her anger towards Jason.

"Okay, dad, mom. I'll go and call the doctor now."

Jason could not do anything, so he turned around and trotted to find the doctor.

Jason did not know how he had endured for the past three years with a troublesome mother-in-law like this.

When Amanda saw Jason leaving, she murmured, "Look! He really wants us to die. He stood there like an idiot for so long without calling the doctor to check on us."

In Amanda's eyes, Jason should not exist.

Cindy was feeling helpless. She took Amanda's hand and said in a tender voice, "Mom, can you please not treat Jason like this anymore in the future? What's so bad about him? He and I have been married for three years and we have Angela. Isn't Jason your son-in-law and Angela your granddaughter?"

Amanda was speechless and murmured, "I didn't mean to be angry but I just wanted to vent as soon as I saw him."

"I won't treat him well until he has millions of dollars or his family has some power. I won't recognize him as my son-in-law if he keeps living like a loser."

Amanda pursed her lips arrogantly.

If Jason was here, he would probably sneer when he heard this.

His family's business in the Smith Group in the capital city already had hundreds of billions in assets.

Moreover, the Smith family's power was not trivial.

It was very strong!

Charles could not help but say, "Amanda, please don't talk too much. Did you just forget how Hector treated Jason at dinner just now?"

Why was this crazy woman so forgetful?

How could Jason be an ordinary person since he knew and had respect from Hector Cui?

Had Amanda forgotten all the things he had told her the day before?

When Charles talked about this matter, Amanda's eyes widened!

She was so scared by the car accident that she had forgotten all about it.

Hector, the top real estate manager was so polite to that loser, Jason.

There must be some secrets that she did not know.

"Cindy, do you know what's going on?" asked Amanda.

Cindy shook her head, "I don't know. I'll ask him when he comes back."

"Okay."

Amanda nodded.

She had to find out how Jason knew Hector.

After a while, Jason came with the doctor. The doctor said impatiently, "Didn't I just do the checkup? It's not a big deal. You can go back and rest for a few days. If you're worried, you can stay in the hospital and be observed for a few days."

The doctor had already checked Amanda and Charles and said there was nothing wrong with them. They only had a few scratches bruises.

"Doctor, you can't be so careless. I feel dizzy now. Please check me again. If something happens to me, your hospital will be held responsible for it."

Amanda did not care. She put her hand on her forehead and acted as if she had a headache.

The doctor was stunned. What was wrong with this woman? This was really just a waste of medical resources.

"Okay, go and register for a checkup yourselves."

After that, the doctor turned and left. He had a lot of things to do, seemed like he would have to stay up all night.

"Why are you still daydreaming? Are you not going to register?"

Amanda glared at Jason and scolded him. She was injured.

Jason ran to register. Amanda got checked again thoroughly and she was fine.

Amanda felt relieved.

When they returned to the villa and Jason saw that the master bedroom was still occupied, his expression turned a little cold. He asked, "Didn't I ask you to move your things?"

Amanda was very nervous when she saw Jason's facial expression. Although she had cursed him in the hospital, she was still a little flustered when she arrived at the villa.

After all, this villa was not in her name.

This gave Amanda a headache. She promised herself that she must drive Jason out!

"Oh! My head hurts. My head hurts. Charles, help me go upstairs for a rest. Oh! My vision is so blurry."

Amanda pretended and held Charles' hand to be helped upstairs.

Jason still wanted to say something but Cindy pulled him over, "Forget it, let them stay for a few days. Anyway, there're so many rooms here. I don't mind."

Jason did not say anything but felt helpless.

Suddenly, Cindy asked, "By the way, Jason, how did you get to know Hector? He seems to be very respectful to you. Are you hiding something from me?"

Chapter 224

Jason Smith thought for a moment when he saw the confused look on Cindy Jiang's face, "Cindy, Hector actually knows Juliette. He is just being polite to me for her sake."

Juliette?

Cindy was stunned. She suddenly remembered that Jason's stepmother seemed to be a very powerful woman.

She nodded to show that she was not suspicious, "No wonder. I thought you were..."

"Thought I was what?"

Jason suddenly became nervous.

Had Cindy guessed something?

"Nothing. You should go to bed early. I have a lot of things to do at work tomorrow."

Cindy said with a smile and did not think anything more.

After a few days, Amanda Yang had almost fully recovered and continued to misbehave again in the villa.

Charles Jiang was really upset when he heard her muttering on about owning the villa all day long.

"Amanda, can you stop going on about these things all day long? Isn't it nice for us to just stay here as a harmonious family? Are you only happy when you make trouble?"

Charles felt very helpless. When he saw Amanda asking for a lawyer's help, he felt that this family would be in a mess sooner or later because of her.

Amanda hung up the phone and glanced at Charles. "What do you know? You only know to play chess with those old men all day long. Do you ever pay attention to what happens at home? Cindy bought this villa. Why is it in that loser's name? I don't agree! I must change his name to mine. In this way, that loser won't be able to act arrogant in front of me."

Arrogant?

He was a useless guy. How could he be domineering in front of her?

He would not even let her sleep in the master bedroom. Wasn't it a waste for that loser to sleep in such a luxurious room?

Charles sighed, put down the newspaper, "Stop, I'll tell you something."

"What do you want to talk about? Do you still want to speak up for the loser?"

Amanda stared in an unsatisfactory manner and scolded, "Charles, do you think I don't know your intention? There's no point fawning over that loser just because he knows Hector Cui. I investigated the whole thing, the staff in the real estate department don't even know who Jason is. They have no idea why Hector respects Jason so much. I think Hector must be just a fool like you."

"Maybe both of you have been deceived by Jason and don't know what's going on."

Amanda muttered a lot. Charles could not bear it anymore. He got up angrily, "You're really blind! You just do whatever you want. When you destroy this family, I'll see how you react then."

"Charles! How dare you yell at me!?"

Amanda stood up angrily and pointed at Charles. She went up and scratched at him over and over. "You even dare to raise your voice now. Where did you get the guts? I'll scratch you to death!"

Charles was so upset that he ran out of the villa, shouting as he went.

On the other hand, Amanda looked triumphant.

She got dressed up, picked up her handbag, and went out.

She had made an appointment with a lawyer. She wanted to inquire about the change of the house owner's name and the marriage property distribution.

After she went out, she rushed to a cafe where she had arranged to meet.

When she was halfway to the cafe, she made a phone call to Randy He. She had called him several times over the past few days but no one ever answered.

Amanda heard that Randy's family had moved out of Shang Jiang City. Even Kingsley He's company had been relocated too.

How could Amanda not feel nervous?

Randy was her dreaming son-in-law.

"Excuse me, sir. I want to go to the cafe. Where are you going?"

Amanda looked out from the car window and noticed that the road was not right. Where was the driver going?

They were heading to the suburbs!

"Hey sir, do you know how to get there? I'm getting out of the car if you don't know the way!"

Amanda scolded, "What an idiot! How can you become a taxi driver without even knowing the way? Are you trying to cheat my money? I'm not a foreigner. I will complain about you if you charge me using the meter!"

Amanda cursed from the back seat of the car. Suddenly, she noticed that the driver was wearing a mask and hat, which covered his face.

Oh! Was this man going to rob her?

Amanda panicked and slammed the door desperately, "I want to get out of the car! Stop the car! If you don't stop the car, I'll call the police!"

The driver turned the steering wheel and the car trembled. Amanda knocked her head on the door and suddenly she felt dizzy and then became unconscious.

When she woke up again, she found herself in an abandoned workshop. Her hands and feet were tied to a wooden chair. Her mouth was covered with green tape too.

Boohoo!

Amanda's hair was now disheveled. She was so scared that she could not stop crying.

Many hours later, a man wearing a cap and mask came in through the door. He was holding a baseball bat in his hand.

When the man got close to Amanda, he ripped off the tape on her mouth quickly.

Hiss!

All of a sudden, Amanda's mouth was torn and blood gushed out!

"Ah! Help! Help!"

Amanda gasped and shouted desperately.

However, no one couldn't hear her.

The driver stared coldly at the panicked Amanda, and said in a low voice, "Stop yelling. It's twenty minutes from here to the city. No one within five kilometers will come to save you from this abandoned workshop."

Amanda was scared out of her wits when she heard this and shouted desperately.

"Stop shouting. Stop shouting!"

The driver suddenly got angry. He raised the baseball bat in his hand and hit Amanda's head with it!

Boom!

Amanda's head was buzzing and she fell to the ground. Her head was bleeding a lot.

After several hours, Amanda was exhausted when she woke up again. Her head was very painful and half of her face was covered with sticky blood. She shouted in a low voice, "Help! Don't kill me. My daughter and I have money. How much do you want? I'll give it to you. Don't kill me."

Amanda pleaded while lying on the ground.

Had this man really kidnapped her?

The driver threw away down instant noodles and walked over with a baseball bat in his hand.

The crackling sound shook Amanda in the core.

She shouted, "Don't kill me, I'll give you money! I'll give it to you!!!"

However, she froze like being strike by a bolt of lightning when she saw the approaching figure.

"Is it really you?" Amanda shouted in horror.

The driver wearing the tight black suit took off his hat coldly and sneered, "Aunt Amanda, how have you been? You still remember me."

"Randy... Randy, have you captured the wrong person? I asked you to teach that loser, Jason a lesson. Let me go. My head hurts. Send me to the hospital."

Amanda cried and shouted. She was really scared out of her wits.

Randy was two steps away from her. He squatted down. His face was so skinny and pale that he looked like a ghost. His eye sockets were deep and he had dark black eye circles.

"Hush," Randy raised a finger near his dry lips and said with a cruel smile, "Aunt Amanda, I didn't capture the wrong person."

What did he mean?

Amanda panicked even more. She begged for mercy with her pitiful face, "Randy, did I do something wrong?"

Randy sneered. He slapped Amanda a few times and said angrily, "Don't you know what you've done? Do you know that it's all because of you that I've become like this? My family went bankrupt and my uncle was arrested!"

"It's over! Everything's over! It's all because of an old b*stard like you who likes to spread fake news!"

Randy almost roared crazily which made Amanda tremble all over. She sobbed for a while, "I... I don't know what you're talking about. Randy, if it's really my fault, please forgive me. Please let me go."

"Let you go?"

Randy stared at Amanda coldly with his eyes wide open. He stretched out his hand and grabbed Amanda's hair hard, "Then who let go of my family?"

Amanda was very confused now and did not know what was happening at all.

Randy was so scary.

How could such a person be her son-in-law?

"Randy, Randy you must have misunderstood something. I really don't know anything."

Amanda was so scared that she continued to tremble all over.

"You don't know? I will hit you until you remember what you have done!"

Randy shouted. He got up and kicked Amanda's abdomen a few times. He picked up the baseball bat and hit Amanda for more than twenty minutes!

Randy only stopped hitting Amanda when she was lying on the ground as if she was almost dead.

"Ran... Randy, don't hit me. I was wrong... Help..."

Amanda felt pain all over her body as if she had been torn apart.

It hurt so much.

She felt like she was going to die at any moment.

"You don't want to die? That's fine. I won't kill you if you help me to do something."

Randy looked coldly at Amanda who was lying on the ground, covered with wounds.

Amanda was like a dying dog. She knelt down and held Randy's leg when she knew she had a hope of living. She was begging, "I... I'll do it. I'll do it. Don't beat me again..."

Soon, Randy brought Amanda who was covered with wounds back to Dragon City.

Amanda was limping. She was wearing a hat and mask and took Randy into the villa.

Randy felt hate for Jason down to his core when he saw the luxurious Palace No.1!

"D*mn Jason, I'm going to take revenge today! I going to take revenge for my family!

I'll kill Cindy Jiang in front of you and then kill you!

After that, I'll run away!

"I'll never return to Shang Jiang City ever again!" Randy cursed in his heart.

"Call Cindy and ask her to come home!"

Randy sat on the sofa. He was eating grapes as he ordered coldly.

Amanda was very timid now. She curled up in the corner, trembling with fear, and took out her mobile phone to dial Cindy's number. "Hello, Cindy, please come home. I'm in a lot of pain. Maybe I still haven't recovered properly from the car accident..."

Cindy who was at her company felt nervous when she received the call, " Okay mom, please wait for me. I'll come home right away."

"Okay."

Amanda nodded and said in a hurry, "By the way, come home by yourself. Don't bring Jason with you."

Chapter 225

Cindy Jiang was slightly stunned. Why couldn't she bring Jason Smith along?

Why not?

She did not want to have any drama with Amanda Jiang so she agreed. She drove the BMW, which Jason had bought for her, and rushed back to the villa.

Meanwhile, Amanda hung up the phone and curled up in the corner. She trembled with fear and hesitated, "Ra.. Randy He, you won't do anything to Cindy, will you?"

Amanda was very worried, especially when she understood how terrible Randy was just now. How could Amanda live and face Cindy in the future if Randy did something to her?

Randy smiled coldly. He got up. As he was approaching Amanda, she was so afraid that she fell to the floor and screamed.

"Don't worry, Aunt Amanda. I love Cindy, so I won't do anything to her. I just want to tell her something."

Randy sneered and revealed a blue pill in his hand. He threw it to Amanda, "Make a cup of tea for Cindy and make her drink it. Then you can leave."

This was a special kind of imported pill. Its effects were very powerful.

No matter what kind of honest and virtuous woman, as long as someone took this pill, she would become very horny and climb on the first man she saw!

Randy was very jealous when he thought about not getting Cindy's love but she had married Jason.

What did Jason have to win her over?!

How could a loser like Jason turn the tables on him?!

"Jason, are you so proud?

I'm going to torture Cindy to death. I'll show you what your wife looks like when she's horny and I'm on top of her!"

Randy cursed secretly while gnashing his teeth. He was planning to make love with Cindy in the villa. Afterward, he would call Jason to come over and make him see it with his own eyes!

Watching his wife getting horny with another man.

Haha!

Amanda trembled all over when she saw the blue pill and asked cautiously, "Randy, what kind of medicine is this?"

Slap!

Randy slapped her in the face, "What are you talking nonsense about? Just do what I order you to do. Do you want to get beaten again?"

Amanda obeyed him after being slapped. She turned and took a cup of water. She put the pill inside in front of Randy. The pill dissolved quickly. It was colorless and tasteless.

She panicked and became afraid. She prayed silently, "Cindy, don't blame me. There's nothing I can do about it. Please don't drink it."

At this moment, a pair of fair and tender long legs stepped through the door. Cindy had arrived.

Cindy really thought something really bad had happened to Amanda from the phone call just now so she rushed home immediately.

However, she did not expect that there would be another man in the villa.

This man was no one else other than Randy!

"Randy? Why are you here?"

Cindy's mind was full of questions as she looked at Randy who was sitting on the sofa with a sneer.

"Oh! Cindy. Aunt Amanda invited me to come over because she told me that you have moved to a new house."

Randy smiled and explained. He looked innocent but his eyes were full of evil.

Randy could not help to get excited when he saw Cindy's beauty. Besides that, he gazed at her voluptuous body and her pair of perfect long legs.

Finally, it was his chance to get this woman!

He had been waiting for ten years to get Cindy!

Cindy frowned slightly and turned to look at Amanda who was walking over with a cup of tea. She asked anxiously, "Mom, what's wrong with you? Didn't you say you felt uncomfortable? Why are you wearing a mask?"

"Cindy, I've caught a cold. Have some water. You must be thirsty after rushing home."

The cup in Amanda's hand was shaking slightly.

She really did not want to do this. However, what else could she do as a weak woman?

If she did not obey Randy's commands, she would be dead and Randy would hurt Cindy anyway.

It should not be a problem for Cindy to satisfy Randy for a while.

Cindy frowned and took a few sips without thinking. Then said, "Mom, I'll take you to the hospital."

Amanda did not move. Instead, she looked at Randy who was sitting on the sofa with his legs crossed. Randy said coldly, "Go upstairs!"

Amanda rushed upstairs after hearing Randy's order. She looked back at the muddled Cindy in the living room and whispered, "Cindy, don't blame me..."

"Cindy, now it's just the two of us. Can we talk?"

Randy gulped and looked at Cindy with greed in his eyes.

Cindy felt uncomfortable, especially when Randy stared at her. Her heart suddenly sank when she saw how strange Randy was being today. His eyes were full of provocation and lust.

"I don't want to talk with you about anything. I'm going to ask Jason to come home."

The first thing that came to Cindy's mind was Jason. She took out her mobile phone and was about to make a phone call

Slap!

Randy got up angrily and slapped Cindy in the face like a tiger pouncing on its prey. Meanwhile, her phone fell to the ground and smashed to pieces!

"You're asking for trouble!"

Randy roared and stared at Cindy with a fire burning in his eyes.

Cindy was scared out of her wits. She covered her face and looked nervously at Randy who was standing in front of her. She said calmly, "Randy, what do you want? This is my house. You'd better get out of here now!"

"Get out of here?"

Randy chuckled and grabbed hold of Cindy's long hair. Her beautiful fair face was reflected in Randy's eyes.

He reached out and gently stroked the face that he had been thinking about for a long time. He said with a cruel sneer, "Cindy, I want you to pay for rejecting me!"

Puff!

Randy pounced on Cindy. He held her in his arms and wanted to kiss her.

Cindy struggled violently and pushed Randy away. She was so scared that her face turned pale. "Randy, you're a monster! What are you trying to do?! I warn you, I will never forgive you if you dare to touch me! Jason will not forgive you either!"

Jason. It was Jason again!

Randy's mind exploded when he thought of Jason. He was full of uncontrollable anger!

"Cindy, I advise you to obey me in order to avoid any suffering! No one will come to save you here today. I'm going to torture you in front of Jason!"

Slap!

Cindy raised her hand and slapped Randy on the face harshly. She used all her strength and said angrily, "Pervert!"

On the other hand, Randy sneered. He tilted his head and stared at Cindy with lust in his eyes. "Hit me. Just keep hitting me, I like it when you hit me!"

He punched onto Cindy. Then, he dragged and threw her on the sofa.

"Ah! Let me go! Let me go! Help! Mom, save me. Save me..."

Cindy struggled violently and shouted desperately.

Amanda was feeling nervous in the master bedroom upstairs. She covered her ears and pretended that she heard nothing.

"No, no, no. He will kill her. Moreover, Cindy is my daughter."

"No, no, no. I can't go downstairs because he would kill me too."

Amanda was going crazy. Cindy's cries of help coming from downstairs was torturing her.

However, she was scared and panicking.

Randy had completely lost control of himself downstairs. He let out a wretched grin and pressed Cindy onto the sofa.

Cindy was so anxious that she was sweating all over. Suddenly, she felt weak because of the water that she had just drunk.

She could not understand why her mother would do this to her.

Her mother was trying to ruin her.

In desperation!

Cindy used her knee to hit Randy's crotch hardly.

"Ouch!"

Randy felt pain in his groin area and fell to the ground.

Cindy wanted to get up at this time.

"F*ck! I'll kill you! Come here!"

Randy was furious. He stood up, enduring the pain. He pulled Cindy's hair and dragged her back.

Slap! Slap! Slap!

He slapped Cindy very hard a few times. The next second, Cindy feebly collapsed on the sofa. These slaps made her dizzy and she snorted, "Help... Help. Jason, help me..."

Randy sneered and looked at Cindy who was resisting ever more weakly on the sofa.

Hiss!

Randy tore off Cindy's white shirt, and this revealed her tender shoulder.

"Ah! Let go of my daughter!"

Suddenly, Amanda found her courage. She held up a golf club in her hand and smashed it on Randy's back!

There was a thud!

Randy lay down on the ground, turned his head, and stared at Amanda coldly. He reached out his hand to grab the golf club from her hand and swung it!

Clang!

After Amanda had been hit, she fell to the ground and did not get up for a long time. She cried, "Cindy, I'm sorry..."

The weak Cindy who was on the sofa saw her mother being abused by Randy. She felt sad and cried, "Randy... I beg you, please don't hit my mother, don't hit her... I... I'll do it..."

Randy stopped hitting Amanda. He turned around to look at the collapsed Cindy and then walked over with a cold smile.

Out of the blue!

Two figures broke in through the door!

"Randy, you're dead!!!"

A furious roar rang through the villa and shook the entirety of Dragon City!

Jason's eyes were blazing with anger and he looked like an animal that was going to kill his prey. He stared at Randy fiercely!

Chapter 226

He looked he was going to explode at any time!

Jason could not longer conceal himself when he saw what was happening!

D*mn Randy He, how dared he still came to his villa!

He was definitely asking for trouble!

Jason would not come back if Paul Reed had not told him earlier that he had seen Amanda Yang bring a strange man back to the villa. Judging from how she was walking, it seemed like she had been beaten.

The villa's security guard could do nothing about it because it was Amanda who brought him in personally. The guards had a policy where they would never question the residents from Dragon City.

Besides that, Amanda deliberately covered her wounds so the security guards did not notice.

Most of the servants in the villa were dismissed by Amanda a few days ago. It was because she thought it was a waste of money.

She kept the maids' salary money for herself.

There were almost no maids left, so only a few of them here in the Palace No.1.

Jason's eyes were wide open and he felt uncontrollable anger. He stepped forward and kicked Randy He!

Before Randy had time to react, he saw a bigfoot kick heading towards his face!

Bang!

Randy fell back and hit the wall hard. He fell heavily on his back and could not get up for a while.

"F*ck! Jason, you've f*cking come at the right moment."

Randy tried his best to get up from the ground as he took a few deep breaths. His grimace made him look terrible.

"Jason!"

Cindy was now very weak. She struggled to jump into Jason's arms.

She was trembling all over with fear. Her crying face looked so pitiful.

Jason held Cindy tightly and he became even angrier.

Jason blamed himself for not being able to protect Cindy even after moving into the villa.

Randy needed to die!

"It's okay Cindy. I'm back."

Jason carried Cindy aside. With a cold murderous look, he took a few steps towards Randy and shouted, "Randy, I let you go last time. This time, you're just seeking death yourself!"

Randy gave a sinister sneer and stared at Jason, "Jason, don't pretend. I'm here for revenge! You can try to kill me if you've got the balls!"

Boom!

As soon as he finished speaking...

Jason leaned forward and slammed his knee against Randy's chin!

There was a cracking sound!

Several teeth flew out of Randy's mouth and there was a splatter of blood!

"Ah! F*ck!"

Randy let out a miserable cry of pain. When he was about to fight back, Jason gave him another hard kick which made him fly back!

Randy fell to the ground with his mouth full of blood. The pain in his abdomen made him soberer.

Randy knew that he could not succeed. Now, he just wanted to run away as fast as he could.

After all, he knew Jason's methods of revenge. He thought it was better to live to fight in the future than just to die.

The best thing for Randy to do would be to flee overseas.

However, just as Randy was about to get up, a bigfoot stepped heavily on his back and pinned him on the floor!

Jason's eyes were red and full of anger. This d*mn Randy, he let him go last time but he still had not learned his lesson. He had crossed his bottom line yet again!

"Randy, you're asking for trouble! Even if you're Juliette's nephew, I won't let you off this time!"

Jason roared. He grabbed Randy's hair and lifted him up!

"Jason, I advise you to let me go as soon as possible! My aunt is Juliette Yun and she's a member of the Yun's in Jinling! I have half of the Yun's bloodline. If you dare to hurt me, you will die!"

Randy glared at Jason angrily without any fear.

In Randy's mind, the Yun's was the greatest!

Jason was nothing!

He was just a loser who was forced to escape from the Smith's. Could he even turn the world upside down?

If he could, then why had he been such a coward over the past few years?

Jason really did not know where did Randy got his courage. How dared he act so arrogant? Was it because he had always been pampered by the Yun's?

Or was he just dumb?

Bang! Bang! Bang!

Jason who was in rage punched Randy in the face a few times until blood dripped from his face!

These punches fell on Randy's eyes and nose. In just a few seconds, Randy had bruises on his face and was covered with blood. He groaned and spat out some of the blood.

"How dare you touch me! I'll ask my aunt to destroy the Smith's!"

Randy whimpered. A hint of coldness flashed in his eyes.

"Destroy me?"

Jason sneered. No one had dared to talk to him like this before.

Ring!

Suddenly, Randy got an urgent call. He held up the phone in his hand. The caller ID displayed was Juliette.

Randy's face was covered with blood. He smiled with sadness, "Look, my aunt is calling me. Do you still dare to provoke me?"

Pat!

Jason grabbed the phone and heard a cold voice coming from it, "Jason, let Randy go. I'll send him abroad immediately. He's still young and doesn't know how to behave. I'm willing to give all of Randy family's money, as well as half of the Yun's property to you."

Juliette was sitting in the Royal Villa at that moment and looking at Kingsley He. He was kneeling in front of her. Her expression showed coldness.

Kingsley choked with tears and felt pain in his neck after kowtowing so many times.

He noticed that his son was missing ten minutes ago. He found Randy's plan in his room. Although it was just a very rough plan, Kingsley knew that his son wanted to take revenge on Jason.

His son was really looking for trouble!

Why was he still being so ignorant? Why did he want to provoke Jason again?

He was a member of the Smith's from the Sacred Island!

They were the Smith's that had more power than all of them!

With just one finger, they could shake their world into pieces!

"Madam, I beg you to save Randy. He was just overwhelmed by hatred."

Kingsley knelt down and continued kowtowing.

The He's had already been destroyed, so Randy and Kingsley had been staying in the Royal Villa for the past few days.

Juliette had told them that if they moved to Jinling, then they could rebuild the He's in three years.

However, Randy went too far this time. He dared to provoke Jason again and even planned to kill him and Cindy.

Foolish!

Stupid!

When Jason received the call from Juliette, his face turned cold. He was like a beast trapped in the abyss. He stared at Randy who was sneering and bleeding.

Randy smiled coldly, "Are you not going to hit me, Jason?"

Hahaha! Once a loser, forever a loser! I'm going to kill you! Come and try to kill me!"

"Jason, Randy is from the Yun's bloodline. I won't allow you to hurt him. Half of the Yun Family's property will be used as a bargaining chip to make a deal with you."

Juliette's tone was indifferent as if she knew that Jason would not resist the deal.

However.

"Get lost!"

Jason's roar was like a rumbling thunder that swept over the whole villa and even spread to rattle the Royal Villa!

Juliette was scared and froze. Her face was covered with cold sweat and her body began trembling.

Jason's roar was terrifying!

It was even scarier than Titus Smith's roar from the old days!

Finally, Jason had grown into someone with the power of an emperor!

D*mn it!

This was the last thing Juliette wanted to see.

"Jason, I'm Juliette. As the Smith's second wife, I order you to let Randy go!"

Juliette suddenly stood up from the sofa and felt chills down to her bones.

"I'll keep repeating over and over, Juliette. You're not qualified to order me! You're not a threat at all in my eyes! If you want to use the Yun's as your bargaining chip, I'm willing to take your offer. When the time comes, I hope the Yun's still exists so don't you regret your decision!"

Jason said coldly. His eyes were blazing with anger.

Pat!

After hanging up the phone, Jason smashed it up immediately.

Randy was really scared now. Especially when he met Jason's cold eyes, he started to tremble all over.

It was so horrible!

Jason looked like he really wanted to kill someone.

Cindy leaned on the wall weakly and looked at Jason's back with blurred vision. She saw Jason holding Randy's hair tightly with his hands. He really had the intention to kill Randy.

Was he still her husband?

Meanwhile, Amanda climbed to Cindy's side. She had wounds all over her body and groaned.

She looked at Jason who was teaching Randy a lesson over there and her mind went blank.

Was this the loser, Jason?

She was so scared that she did not even dare to raise her head. She had humiliated and bullied Jason so much in the past. She had even tried lots of ways to drive Jason out. Now, Jason looked so aggressive and it almost scared Amanda out of her wits!

She dared to provoke Jason so many times in the past!

Amanda felt scared until she trembled when she imagined the consequences of offending Jason!

Jason dragged Randy from the ground and put him near the coffee table. He then pinned Randy's hand hard on the coffee table.

"Give me a dagger!"

Jason raised his hand and shouted coldly without even looking at Paul Reed who was standing in the doorway.

Paul pulled out a dagger from his belt and handed it to Jason respectfully.

Jason played with the shiny dagger.

"Jason, do you really dare to touch me?"

Randy was scared out of his wits when he saw the dagger moving in Jason's hand. However, he still pretended to be calm and sneered.

Pfft!

Just as his voice reverberated!

Jason raised the dagger and stabbed the back of Randy's hand with it. The dagger pierced through Randy's hand and stabbed into the marble coffee table!

His movement was neat and clean without any sense of hesitation!

"Ah! My hand! My hand!"

Randy screamed in pain and his legs were kicking in pain. His right hand was firmly nailed to the coffee table. Blood was flowing all over the floor!

"Please spare my life! I was wrong, I won't dare do it again! Jason, spare my life!"

"Now, it's time for the other hand!"

Jason said coldly. He did not pay any attention to Randy's begs for mercy.

He mentioned earlier that even Juliette could not save Randy!

Swish!

Puff! Puff!

Jason held the dagger in his hand once again. He raised the dagger in his hand and stabbed Randy's left hand until it was also nailed firmly on the coffee table!

"Ah!"

Randy's scream, which was like a pig being slaughtered, resonated throughout the villa.

Cindy had already passed out.

Amanda was so scared that she almost fainted.

How could Jason be so cruel? He was so cruel and relentless when he became angry!

Amanda could not wait to kneel down to Jason and beg for mercy. She wanted to beg him for forgiveness for all her rude and unreasonable behavior.

"Stop!"

Suddenly, a cold yell sounded from the door!

Jason raised the dagger in his hand and was about to pierce through Randy's right leg. When he turned his head, he saw Juliette dressed in a cheongsam standing at the door. She had lots of black-suited bodyguards behind her.

"Aunt Juliette, Aunt Juliette. Save me. Help me!"

When Randy saw Juliette entering, his sense of survival was ignited.

However!

Puff! Puff!

Jason sneered and the dagger fell down from his hand. It pierced Randy's right leg and cut his leg tendons!

Jason slowly straightened up. He took a towel handed over by Paul. He wiped his hand and said coldly, "Juliette, what are you trying to do by bringing so many people to my villa?"

Chapter 227

Juliette Yun who was wearing a white lotus-embroidered cheongsam walked gracefully towards Cindy Jiang. She saw Cindy lying unconscious on the floor and shouted at Randy He. She said coldly, "I will take Randy home."

After she finished talking, some bodyguards behind her came forward to take Randy.

She did not ask for Jason Smith's permission and showed him no respect.

Amanda Yang suddenly looked up and was shocked when she saw Juliette!

It was her! It was her!!!

It was the woman who had taught Amanda a lesson!

Amanda's pupils enlarged immediately. She would remember Juliette for the rest of her life especially after all of those slaps she took to her face. She still remembered vividly!

She knew that Juliette was a very powerful woman. Now, this powerful woman was in her own villa.

It seemed like she was coming to save Randy.

Did Jason know this woman?

"You... It's you. You are the one who hit me last time!"

Amanda pointed at Juliette and stammered nervously.

Juliette just glanced at Amanda without care. Her cold gaze pierced through Amanda's heart. Amanda was so scared that she quickly covered her mouth and remained silent.

"Take him away," Juliette said in a cold voice. Several bodyguards walked from behind her.

"You'll take Randy home over my dead body."

Paul Reed suddenly shouted and stood in front of Jason. He was glaring at the bodyguards in black suits.

His violent aura could be compared to that of the Yun's well-trained bodyguards!

"Get out of my way!"

The sunglasses-wearing leader of the black-suited bodyguards said ruthlessly to Paul.

In his eyes, Paul was just well-built but did not have the skills to fight. He only needed to use a few moves to defeat Paul.

To them, Paul's fighting skill was bad to them!

All of these bodyguards were well-trained. They were all bloodthirsty and proficient in different fighting skills from all over the world!

All of a sudden, several bodyguards came out. The skills they had acquired were more than enough to suppress Paul.

Paul could see that they were very strong, so he took a few steps back unconsciously.

However, he stood out again and roared, "Come on! I'll kill anyone who dares to fight me!"

He had made an oath to defend Mr. Smith with his own life!

This was Paul's only motivation now.

Even if it would cost him his life, he was willing to do it.

The leader of the black-suited bodyguards had a cold look behind his sunglasses. He tilted his head and the bodyguard next to him came forward to fight.

Boom!

One punch!

The bodyguard punched Paul in the chest and abdomen before Paul even knew what had happened. Paul staggered several meters back!

Paul was shocked. The bodyguards were too strong!

However, he could not be defeated like this!

Mr. Smith was still here!

Paul became agitated and suddenly rushed out with his clenched fists!

However....

Boom!

Paul got kicked!

He flew backward and crashed into a pillar. The wall pillar cracked in half.

Paul endured the pain and got up again. He rushed up but Jason stopped him and glanced at him, "That's enough. Enough."

Jason knew very well that Paul was no match for these bodyguards.

If he went on like this, he was just digging his own grave.

These people were the Yun's special guards. Every one of them was a special mercenary that had been handpicked through a series of tough assessments!

Therefore, they could not be defeated by an ordinary person.

The bodyguards' leader looked at Paul with disdain. He then walked towards Randy who was screaming in pain.

However, Jason said calmly, "I will kill the whole family of whoever dares to take him away. This includes the Yun's too!"

His voice was neither loud nor quiet but it was so clear that it made everyone tremble.

Juliette frowned and stared at Jason. Her eyes were cold, "Take him away!"

As soon as she said this, the bodyguards stepped forward and said to Jason, "Master Smith, please excuse us. Miss Yun wants this person."

Yes, Juliette was still their Miss Yun in the Yun's.

Although they were afraid of Smith's, their lives belonged to the Yun's.

"You can try."

Jason said lightly. He did not care about Juliette's manpower at all.

The bodyguards' leader was silent for a while before saying, "Master Smith, don't blame me for being rude."

After that, he waved his hand and shouted, "Do it!"

Several bodyguards rushed from behind him with the intention of controlling Jason.

One of the bodyguards reached out to grab Jason's wrist.

Suddenly!

A flicker of light reflected!

Swish!

A dagger flew through the air and pierced through the bodyguard's hand. The dagger became nailed to the wall with a clang. Blood dripped from it!

"Ouch!"

The bodyguard covered his hand. He let out a muffled groan and retreated immediately!

Several bodyguards protected Juliette immediately and pulled out the batons from their belts!

They did it in the blink of an eye!
Just like this.

Dozens of eyes stared at the lazy-looking figure who suddenly appeared from behind Jason.

Everyone became extremely tense and focused.

Where had this person come from?

They could not believe that they had not spotted him!

They were obviously not comparable to this person's power!

The bodyguards' leader suddenly realized that this person must be an international killer!

His skill must be immense, judging from his throwing skill!

"Young master, how do you want them to die?"

The man who stood behind Jason had an innocent and harmless face. However, his eyes were extremely cold.

As he spoke, the corners of his mouth curled into a smile.

"Kill them all!"

Jason said coldly and there was a hint of scary coldness showed on his face.

"Charge!"

The bodyguards' leader roared and these followers all rushing forwards up together.

The man behind Jason just looked at them for a second before he sneered with disdain, "There are too few of you."

Bang! Bang!

Clap! Clap! Clap!

All the bodyguards were defeated in just a few moments. The villa was a mess. Full of whining. Jason and Juliette looked at each other.

All of Juliette's bodyguards were defeated within a short period of time. Her bodyguards either lost their limbs or their fighting spirit.

The man stood among the bodyguards that he had defeated. His body and his face were covered in blood.

He got up. He turned the dagger in his hand and handed it to Jason who was behind him.

Jason took it, turned the dagger, and then suddenly threw it!

Swish!

The blood-stained dagger shot straight at Juliette. It flew right by her fair neck, cutting off a strand of her black hair.

Thump!

The dagger was shaking violently and making a buzzing sound. It was embedded into the villa's door.

At that moment, Juliette gulped and a cold sweat broke out on her forehead.

However, she still just stood there proudly. She did not even look at the bodyguards lying on the ground. Instead, she stared coldly at Jason, "What do I have to do for you to let Randy go?"

Jason shook his head. He stepped on the coffee table and then on Randy's wounded hand with a dagger in it.

"Puff! Puff!"

All of a sudden, the dagger plunged deeper!

"Ouch!"

Randy who had already passed out due to the pain woke up again and screamed, "Aunt Juliette, save me! Please save me! I don't want to die! I'm your nephew! Save me..." Juliette stared coldly at Randy and scolded him, "Shut up!"

Randy quickly closed his mouth and endured the pain.

"Let's discuss the conditions."

Juliette turned to look at Jason. "There must be something you want. Whatever it is, I will do."

Jason lifted his foot and tugged at Randy's hair. He said coldly to Juliette, "Juliette, I was afraid of you before so I chose to compromise and remain dormant. Everyone now thinks that I'm a loser. However, you didn't expect that I've been living cautiously for the past seven years. I did this so that I could kill you myself when the time came."

Juliette's expression changed when she saw the look in Jason's eyes.

It turned out that Jason already knew her plan.

Juliette had never really respected Jason. What she was most worried about were the few people in the Smith's and Titus Smith.

However, Jason's aggressiveness was very scary!

The sleeping tiger had finally woken up.

Jason pulled Randy up along with the dagger penetrated through his hands. This left a mess of flesh and blood.

He kicked Randy to the ground in front of Juliette and then threw the dagger in front of her. He looked at her beautiful face coldly, "There are only two options. Either you die or Randy dies."
