

Chapter 841

"Now introducing the ambassador of our medicine, Zabrina Yalden!"

On the site of the press conference, the host had already commenced the ceremony.

"Zabrina, hurry up and go onstage!" Hadley urged her.

Zabrina glanced at Chuck with her beautiful eyes as if she was apologizing. She did not expect Hadley to be so disrespectful to Chuck.

Chuck simply shrugged and said, "It's your turn."

"Yes." Then, Zabrina began to ascend the stage while all eyes were fixated on her.

"Which company are you from?" As soon as Zabrina left, Hadley questioned.

"Oh, I'm not from any company!" replied Chuck.

"You're not from any company yet you're talking about making a big investment? You must be a scammer. I've seen too many people like you. Go lie to someone else and stay away from Zabrina in the future! If I see you talking nonsense again, I'll get someone to deal with you!" Hadley spat in annoyance.

He refused to be civil to a swindler like Chuck.

"You'll get someone to deal with me?" Chuck echoed indifferently.

"That's right, you'd better behave appropriately... Ah! Hello, Miss Lane!" Just then, Hadley spotted Yolanda coming down from above.

He smiled and greeted her, paying Chuck no attention at all.

She was a big shot!

As Zabrina's agent, he knew that Yolanda had managed several industries as a manager. Her boss was also the investor of Zabrina's last movie.

She was incredibly rich!

The endorsement allowance for the ambassador of the medicine was no small sum. As the pharmaceutical company was a big client who had cooperated with them for a long time, he could not offend her.

"Hello!" Yolanda greeted casually.

Hadley wanted to get on her good side. But when he tried to, Yolanda stopped him, saying, "Hold on!"

"Okay!" Hadley responded simply, thinking that Yolanda had something else to do!

To his surprise, Yolanda approached Chuck.

"You only have to go onstage for a while later. After all, you're the boss. You can say whatever you want and it'll be fine," Yolanda suggested.

A press conference was very important!

It would be fine to let everyone know the boss behind the scenes.

"I guess I still count as one!" Chuck mused.

He was not used to being under the spotlight, or being on the covers of newspapers and the media. It was something Chuck did not enjoy.

So, on such an occasion, it was enough for Yolanda to go onstage on behalf of him.

"Alright." What else could Yolanda do?

Chuck had always kept a low profile.

"Miss Lane, he... He's the boss?" Hadley overheard their conversation.

His face had turned a little pale.

It turned out that Chuck was the real big shot.

"Yes, that's right. This is my boss, Chuck. What's the matter?" Yolanda enquired.

"Nothing." Hadley's face took on an unpleasant expression. While his mouth was wearing a smile, it was uglier than a grimace. "Mr. Cannon, I'm sorry about earlier. I thought..."

How could he have known that such a big shot would keep such a low profile?

"Oh. Do you want to teach someone like me from a small movie company a lesson?" Chuck responded nonchalantly.

"It's not like that, Mr. Cannon. Listen, I just..." Hadley's smile grew more unsightly.

Only then did Yolanda understand. Her expression was no longer kind.

"Hadley, my boss, Chuck invested in Zabrina's film. The product she's endorsing now is the product from Chuck's pharmaceutical factory. After cooperating twice, it seems that you are disinterested in cooperating any longer?"

"No, I didn't mean that!" Hadley's face turned pale.

If the contract was terminated because of him, how could he, a small agent, handle the responsibility?

"Then what do you mean? You even wanted to teach my boss a lesson? Hmph. Today, I'll call the Big Boss of your agency!" Yolanda warned coldly.

"No! Miss Lane! Mr. Cannon!" Hadley's tears leaked out from the corners of his eyes.

He was in immense fear. If Big Boss found out about this, he would definitely lose his job as a manager!

"It's too late!" Yolanda decided bluntly.

Hadley's face was pale and his heart was filled with despair!

Meanwhile, Chuck and Yolanda continued to watch. The whole press conference turned out to be very successful!

The pharmacist's explanation paired with Zabrina's popularity compelled many merchants to place orders.

It could be considered a great success!

"Chuck, one boss has ordered thirty million products! Another has ordered ten million products. Other bosses have altogether placed orders of almost three hundred million products today! It's so popular! This medicine is an instant hit!" Yolanda had been waiting for that outcome all along.

The success of the press conference meant that this new medicine had gained instant popularity!

There were so many orders that they wouldn't even be able to produce enough.

Chuck felt at ease. After working hard for so long, he finally had something in return.

After that, they would take over the country's market before distributing their product to the rest of the world. Their annual revenue would be incredibly lucrative!

"We'll start building the lab tomorrow to develop new medicines. The factory should increase the production rate as well. I'll get Betty to export the goods to other countries to sell," instructed Chuck.

Karen's industry spanned across the world too. There are lots of pharmacies to which they could directly supply their goods.

In that way, their turnover would be fast.

"Okay, I'll do that next!"

Yolanda has also planned and made the necessary preparation.

Therefore, Chuck could be rest assured that Yolanda would take care of the matter. There were so many people around the world, so it would be amazing if they could occupy one-third of the market.

Chuck was also looking forward to the establishment of his business empire!

"Right, we should start planning for the movie company. I have a plan for a superhero movie where we can let Zabrina act as the heroine. I'll make a ten-year layout and invest ten billion dollars in it! This big project has to be handled well! I'll look for a talented professional to work as the chief producer!" announced Chuck.

He had to venture into the film industry.

It was a lucrative source of income. Hence, Chuck decided he must earn as much as he can from it.

Yolanda was stunned to hear that. Nevertheless, she replied, "Okay, I'll start planning for the movie company tomorrow! I'll start preparing for the movie too."

"Yes!"

When Hadley heard those words, regret filled his entire being.

Ten billion dollars was an astounding sum of investment!

It was a huge investment!

Chuck knew that there would be a celebration party later, so he just wanted to eat a bit.

"Zabrina, apologize to Mr. Cannon for me. I really didn't mean it," Hadley begged Zabrina.

"It won't be good for me to say it. He is my boss too. Do you still expect Chuck to forgive you after speaking to him like this?" After saying that, Zabrina went to have a talk with Chuck.

She was really interested in the movie that Chuck had proposed.

Hadley was extremely remorseful. Soon, he received a call from the Big Boss. Within ten seconds, he began to sob. "Big Boss, don't fire me. Please don't. I know I was wrong. Big Boss..."

In response, his boss hung up the phone.

The press conference was a success. Just as Chuck had expected, many news outlets reported about Zabrina endorsing the medicine the next day.

On the Internet, there were also some people who were curious so they tried using it. They were convinced about the effect of the medicine.

Consequently, they became voluntary spokespeople advertising for the medicine!

The Internet had even coined the product as "Godly Medicine"!

It really blew up right away!

Within three days, Chuck's pharmaceutical factory had received over five billion orders!

In the meantime, more and more things were being set up. Chuck asked Yolanda to expand the factory immediately!

They had to keep up the production!

After all, Chuck planned to earn a hundred billion through the sales of that medicine!

Nevertheless, that product would be one of his many medicinal products as there were new products lined up one after another, waiting to sell out right away!

Chuck could see the hope of his commercial empire!

At the same time, good news came saying that Nancy had completed the construction on the gambling chain too.

Besides that, Chuck had purchased more than a hundred jewelry stores in the past in a massive investment.

Finally, the products were on the market!

Chuck hadn't forgotten about Zabrina. He asked her to endorse the jewelry from his jewelry store!

As a popular celebrity, the number of visitors Zabrina brought was huge!

The popularity of the medicine and Zabrina's second endorsement brought a huge number of people to Chuck's jewelry stores!

As for the jewelry, it also made a crazy amount of profit!

Chuck's business empire was slowly starting to form.

Chapter 842

The outline of his business empire was forming!

Chuck knew what to do next.

All he needed to do was to follow the plan he had laid out.

The hidden family had incredible strength. It was very difficult to survive when caught in the middle like that.

However, there was no other way. The world was only so big. So what if he was begging for survival?

Chuck was not afraid!

It was his only chance to confront the hidden family.

It all depended on how much time Sabina gave Chuck.

He had to make full use of the time.

At the same time.

In the Yeager family.

Sabina was working out in a spacious gym.

She lifted a 200 kilogram weight.

Then, she started doing deep squats.

At the moment, there were over 30 people in the gym. They were reporting the situation in the family one by one respectfully.

After Sabina took over the Yeager family, the whole family had undergone a thorough reform.

It was as if she had flipped the earth on its axis.

In fact, in the entire Yeager family, Sabina was the only one who was suitable to be the head of the family!

Her reform had completely redefined the hidden family!

The hidden family still had to be kept a secret, but its strength could not remain stagnant.

Although she had only taken over the hidden family for a little over a month, the descendants from the Yeager family could already see changes!

Its strength had increased; the increase was akin to that usually observed after dozens of generations, so much so that it empowered the Yeager family's descendants!

Loomis's reign as the head of the family for those few days was incomparable to hers.

When it came to reports that were important to the Yeager family, Sabina listened quietly.

"As for the business in the United States, we have to control and suppress all of Karen's industries! I have to let her know that in front of the hidden family, people with decades of experience are worthless!" instructed Sabina.

"Yes, Miss Yeager! We'll do as you've instructed!"

"Go and do your work! By the way, have you taken care of the security design for the Yeager family according to my plan?" Sabina questioned.

"I've already done it based on your instructions! I can assure you, Miss Yeager!"

"I hope that something like people breaking through the Yeager family's security and holding people hostage never happens again!" Sabina's beautiful eyes glared coldly.

Last time, Karen's people had broken through the Yeager family's line of defense. It almost wiped out all of the Yeager family's soldiers.

It was a great shame for the Yeager family.

"Please be rest assured, Miss Yeager. I guarantee that the incident where Karen broke in last time will never happen again!" guaranteed Sabina's subordinate, Alfred.

Alfred was currently the eldest member of the Yeager Family.

"I can't be rest assured. How about the person I asked you to look for?" questioned Sabina.

"Miss Yeager, after Karen wiped out the strongest person in the Yeager family, I have been looking for the strongest person around the whole world. I've found a prospect!"

"Keep going! You have to keep going! The number of people in the entire world who would be able to withstand Karen's personal strength should be able to be counted on your fingers!" Sabina commanded icily.

"Miss Yeager, are you not a match for Karen?" The Yeager family's descendants looked at each other in dismay.

"No, not right now! If there's anyone who can be Karen's match, it should be those three people from the Whitlock family! Especially Eleanor, who's a combat genius in the Whitlock family! She might be Karen's match, or maybe even better than Karen. That's because Karen has already entered her forties and her golden age as a woman is about to pass. No matter how powerful she was before, she can't outrun time. Her age won't be kind to her. Since she's in her forties, it means that her body is starting to go downhill. Meanwhile, Eleanor from the Whitlock family is in the prime of her life! A person's age is always the biggest reason for the gap in physical strength! If she goes against Karen, I think there's a 60 percent chance that Karen will die..."

Sabina's eyes were shining.

"Eleanor from the Whitlock family won't make a move easily!"

"Who knows? Adriana from the Whitlock family has always been very shrewd and unpredictable! Maybe one day, Karen will be unwell and Eleanor would have a chance to make a move. That is possible too!" Sabina analyzed. "But I won't put my hopes in Adriana. I have to deal with Karen personally!"

"Miss Yeager, you have to be careful. You can't confront Karen alone! If she is driven to desperate actions, she might bring you trouble, Miss Yeager!"

"No, Karen won't force her way out like a cornered animal. She's a mighty stallion, a warlord in her own right!" Sabina's eyes flashed.

The members of the Yeager family suddenly fell into silence as they were filled with concern.

"That's right, Miss Yeager. The other families in the Three Greatest Households have been staying dormant. Maybe they're doing something in secret?" Someone in the Yeager family had thought about the last family in the three hidden families.

That family was keeping too low of a profile!

"There's no question about it! The Cannon family has been keeping a low profile for a long time. The current head of the Cannon family is a sly old fox. He must have made a plan. There might be a lot of people who've become the chess pieces of that cunning fox. I suspect that cunning fox must be using his chess pieces very well... I need to think about this carefully." In Sabina's last training session, she had been deliberately collecting information on everything about the Cannon family.

However, she had barely gotten a thing.

There was no way that the Cannon family could keep quiet forever.

They had to prepare for an attack at any moment.

With Sabina's foresight, how could she forget about the existence of the Cannon family?

She had to make preparations beforehand.

"I suspect that the Cannon family has let some people out in the wild too. You have to find out who these people are!"

"Miss Yeager, rest assured! We will start to pay attention to this matter. But as the elders, we have all agreed that you haven't done the most important thing yet at the moment!"

Alfred suddenly smiled and said.

"What is it?"

Dumbfounded, Sabina continued to lift the weights.

She had been going on for a long time, but she didn't feel tired. She could continue.

"As the head of the family, we elders are all satisfied. However, it won't do if you fight alone. There has to be someone to share the burden of the Yeager family with you!"

"What do you want me to do?" she asked.

"Miss Yeager, you're already 20 years old. You should look for someone to marry! You should pass down your genes as the head! This has been the rule of the Yeager family for aeons! There are a total of 39 historically recorded heads of the family. Thirty-one of them are men and eight of them are women! Out of those eight female elders, each of them had at least seven children! They started looking for someone to get married to ever since they took over as the head. Usually, they would bear a child in the second year of their rule... Miss Yeager, you can start working on this too! We have already found some good people for you! You can try and see them and bond with each other! Of course, you can have as many as three, five, or ten at the same time..." Alfred smiled slightly.

Sabina was silent for three full seconds. "Let's talk about this later!"

"That won't do! This is the Yeager family's tradition. After becoming the head of the family, you have to give birth to a child in the second year!" Alfred insisted. As he spoke, the other descendants of the Yeager family gazed at Sabina, their eyes shining and leaving Sabrina stunned.

Chapter 843

"Miss Yeager!"

The Yeager family's descendants called out to her in reminder because Sabina had fallen into silence.

Sabina came back to her senses and put down the barbell in her hand. "I know the rules."

"That's good. I thought you didn't know about this rule, Miss Yeager! The hidden family has been passing this down for so long. Genes are very important and inheritance is paramount! That's why you should hurry up! You must give birth to your first child next year!" Alfred was at ease to hear her acknowledgement.

The other members of the Yeager family felt at ease too.

It was one of the Yeager family's superstitions. The new head of the family had to have a child a year later. It was a practice that signified that the Yeager family would have children from generation to generation.

"Yes, I know!" Sabina promised.

"That's good. As the elders, we have found ten people that we collectively decided on. They're outside the door. These people are all elites in the business world. Therefore, there is absolutely no problem in terms of height or appearance and most importantly, business genes. I'll let them come in and let you have a look!" Breathing a sigh of relief, Alfred clapped his hands.

"Don't!" Sabina stopped him instinctively.

"Miss Yeager? Are there any other problems?" Alfred had a surprised expression on his face.

Sabina fell into silence.

The Yeager family's members exchanged glances. Alfred approached her and coaxed, "Could it be that when you were let out, you found someone you liked?"

"No! There's nobody I like!" Sabina's beautiful eyes turned cold!

"What about someone you're interested in?"

"No!" repeated Sabina, her gaze growing increasingly frosty like ice.

"Are you angry?"

"No!" Sabina was indifferent.

"Oh, that's good! Since you're already the head of the family, normal men definitely can't touch you. They have to be tested in regards to their height, appearance and meet the genetic requirements. Only then can you..." Alfred elaborated a lot on that matter.

How could any man be allowed to touch the head of the Yeager family?

That was impossible!

They had to pass the Yeager family's test. Only then could they ensure that Sabina would give birth to a child with good genes.

That was why there was no choice but to do so.

"Alright! Stop talking and let them in!" Sabina wiped away the sweat on her forehead.

"Clap, clap, clap!"

Alfred clapped his hands.

The door opened and ten handsome men came in.

There were some with blond hair and blue eyes and others with black hair.

They all had the body of a standard model.

"Miss Yeager, you can choose!"

Sabina stared at them coldly. Once again, the members of the Yeager family looked at each other in dismay in her silence. Did she not like any of them?

"Miss Yeager, due to time constraints, you can just pick one today. Choose one that you find pleasing to the eye! Once today has passed, your first child will be born in ten months," explained Alfred.

"I..." Sabina shook her head and fell into silence.

"Miss Yeager, do you want to have a child after getting married? There's no problem with that. You can do the deed tonight and we can hold a wedding tomorrow! Miss Yeager, we know that it may be too sudden today. But we all came here based on the rules that were passed down from past generations. Even if you feel wronged, you still have to follow the rules!" Alfred and the others began to nag her.

"I know!" Sabina sighed. "Just pick any of them to stay behind!"

After she said that, she went to take a shower.

Alfred and the others breathed a sigh of relief.

The ten handsome men were all looking forward to it.

Alfred looked around a few times and pointed to a black-haired man named Fletcher. "It's you. Everyone else, leave!"

Fletcher was ecstatic!

It was his honour to be chosen by the head of the hidden family.

It was akin to money falling from the sky!

The other nine men were extremely disappointed.

"Let me tell you. You will do whatever Miss Yeager wants you to! If Miss Yeager gets pregnant after tonight, you will be able to enjoy endless wealth and prosperity!" Alfred told him.

"I understand!" Fletcher's eyes twinkled.

"Okay, you wait here. We'll go out first!" Alfred led the rest out of the room.

Fletcher was excited!

He could hear the sound of Sabina taking a bath inside.

After a while, Sabina came out.

Fletcher swallowed hard.

Sabina's appearance after leaving the shower was simply breathtaking. When Fletcher had come over, he initially thought that the head of the family would be an ugly woman. He didn't expect that she would be so beautiful!

Her figure and appearance were top tier!

"Miss Yeager, you are so beautiful!" Fletcher kept swallowing. He couldn't help it!

"Beautiful! You think I'm beautiful?" Sabina repeated indifferently.

She walked closer step by step.

Her presence was simply intimidating.

How could Fletcher stand it? He was so scared that he knelt down.

"Miss Yeager!"

"Don't you have any bones? Why are you kneeling down?" Sabina glared stonily at him.

"I..."

"Are you a man or not?"

"Yes! I am!"

"If you are, then look at me!"

Fletcher raised his head in fear, his face betraying his disgust. "Miss Yeager, what's with the wound on your arm?"

He didn't expect a beautiful woman like Sabina to have so many injuries. They were like earthworms, crawling on her arm. They were disgusting!

"I got hurt."

"It's fine. It's just an arm injury."

"It's not just that! I'm covered in wounds all over!"

Fletcher was dumbfounded. "Miss Yeager, you..."

"It's disgusting!"

"Yes... no! No! Miss Yeager! You're very beautiful!" Fletcher could not accept it. Why?

Her legs were full of scars. Just how disgusting they were?

"If I'm beautiful, why don't you look at me?"

"I'm looking, I'm looking!" Fletcher leaned close to Sabina and looked at her.

He suppressed his disgust. Once the lights were turned off, it would be the same. Who cared about her? He would get so much money he wouldn't even be able to use all of it!

Fletcher approached her.

Just as he began to take off Sabina's clothes, she emotionlessly spat, "Get lost!"

"Miss Yeager!" Fletcher was terrified!

"You don't understand me. Get lost!" Sabina spoke icily.
