

Chapter 1

"Sign this divorce agreement and go to the Civil Affairs Bureau with Felicity tomorrow."

William Lu raised his head and saw his mother-in-law, Rebecca Zhang, throwing two sheets of paper in front of him in disgust.

A beautiful woman with a pale face stood behind her.

She was William's wife, Felicity Bai.

Everyone in Qena City knew about her.

She was blessed with outstanding beauty, but her marriage was inferior and lowly.

Everyone in Qena City knew that she married a good-for-nothing guy.

Seeing that Felicity was as cold as ice, William's heart ached. His hands trembled as he picked up the divorce papers.

Finally, the day was arriving.

When Felicity saw William picking up the agreement, her expression darkened and she turned her face away.

She had given up on her husband, who had been protecting her for the past ten years.

"William, I still remember!"

"Ten years ago, on a snowy night..."

"You were dressed in rags and held a wooden stick in your hand. You didn't know me but in order to protect me, you were bitten by stray dogs all over your body, still, you refused to retreat.

"Using the stick as a sword, you became my knight in shining armor!"

"From then on, I began to admire you."

"You are a hero in my heart."

"I still remember your courage. What about you?"

"Over the past few years, you have lost all your enthusiasm and courage..."

"Look at yourself now. You speak softly every day. You even refused to retaliate whenever I hit or scolded you. Are you still a man?"

"I really don't want to see you like this..."

"I have been waiting for you for ten years, but you have also let me down for ten years."

"If only you had taken a stand and objected to these divorce papers today!"

"Then, I would have given myself to you for the rest of my life!"

"Unfortunately, you didn't..."

"You didn't even have the courage to keep your wife."

"Perhaps it'd be better if we just end this here..."

At the thought of this, Felicity could no longer hold back the tears in her eyes and turned to leave.

However, Rebecca looked at William with disgust, feeling extremely satisfied.

Ten years ago, her silly daughter had saved a homeless kid and insisted that he stay at their home. Since then, the kid had been in their home for ten years.

Her daughter even tried her best to get everyone's approval of this boy. Three years ago, she finally got married to him.

The news caused a sensation in the whole of Qena City.

The Bai family, which was revered by many because of Felicity's beauty, had become the laughing stock due to this matter. Since then, the family had been unable to recover from it.

The goddess of the city had married a poor worthless guy.

This joke had been circulating in Qena City for three years.

Now, her daughter finally understood.

As long as her daughter divorced this guy, she would be able to start a new life in Qena City with her incomparable appearance.

Fernando Lin, who had been pursuing Felicity for a long time, seemed to be a good candidate. His family was rich and powerful. Recently, the Bai family had also asked for help from the Lin family.

Hehe...

"Sign it! My daughter is going on a date with Fernando Lin tomorrow." Rebecca cursed at William's unmoving figure.

William sighed and put away the divorce agreement. He said coldly, "Just give me a moment, I was making soup for Felicity."

Rebecca looked disdainfully at William. Over the past ten years, this guy had always put on a sour face, as if he didn't take the Bai family seriously at all.

Only Felicity could make him smile.

"Who do you think you are!"

"You'd better sign it!"

Rebecca urged again and then left the kitchen.

After they left, William suddenly smiled bitterly, and his eyes were filled with tears.

He looked at the pot of bubbling soup, and his eyes were burning.

"Felicity, do you know why I don't fight or retaliate all these years..."

"Because you are sick."

"Your body is weak, so you cannot be provoked."

"You would always get sick at the end of the month, and it was unbearable for you every time."

"So I just couldn't bear to aggravate you even further...."

"If it weren't for the fact that I have added medicinal herbs to this pot of soup every month, you wouldn't have been able to last for more than fifteen years..."

"Just one more year, and you would be completely recovered."

"It is a pity, just one year..."

"Why can't you give me another year?"

"Are you really that disappointed in me?"

"My true identity is something you still do not know!"

"Because of that one sentence of yours, because you said that you needed company, I had stayed by your side for ten years!"

At the thought of this, William's heart ached terribly.

But at this time, his cell phone rang.

He picked up the phone and frowned slightly.

It was a phone number that had not appeared for ten years.

Was it possible that his family...

"Hello," William answered immediately.

At the other end of the phone came an old and sorrowful voice. "Young Master, the Old Master had passed away last night..."

His words were like a thunderclap, and William was in shock.

"Grandpa. He has passed away..." William lamented in his heart.

William was born into an aristocratic family with famous medicinal skills. They were the Lu family from the North.

His parents died early. He had been envied and hated by other people in the family because of his talents since he was a child.

His grandfather was the only one who doted upon him.

But in the end, in order to keep him safe for the rest of his life, his grandfather had faked William's death and sent him out of the toxic household. He wanted to keep him safe from all the pernicious politics and ulterior motives in the family.

It was also on the first night when he was wandering on the street that he met Felicity, the girl who had made his heart ache for the longest time...

"Young Master, the Old Master has been paying attention to you in silence, all these years. He has also been cultivating power for you. There is also a letter he wants to pass to you. I will pick you up now," The man on the phone said chokingly.

William agreed. After hanging up the phone, he sat directly on the ground.

"The one who often carried me on his shoulder and liked to stab my little face with his stubble..."

"Who sneaked into my room in the middle of the night, taught me medicinal skills, and knocked on my head whenever I fell asleep..."

"Grandpa's gone..."

William did not notice that his face was full of tears.

It was not until thick smoke and a smell of burnt food wafted over that William's attention was roused.

"Oh no, the soup is burnt!"

William quickly got up, but it was too late.

At this time, Rebecca rushed in directly from the outside, covered her nose and shouted, "F*ck! Are you out of your mind? Are you trying to burn the house down and take revenge on the Bai family?!"

"Why is your heart so wicked?"

"Felicity must have been blind to have married you!"

"Sign the divorce agreement now! I can't wait any longer!"

Behind Rebecca, Felicity's eyes were gloomy, but she didn't speak.

"William, I didn't know you could shed tears too.."

"Are you crying because our fate has come to an end?"

"Unfortunately, it is useless."

"It's been ten years. Do you even understand my feelings and intention?"

"What I need you to shed for me, is not the tears of cowardice and helplessness."

"What I need from you is your courage and willingness to live for me!"

"If you dare to live for me, I will dare to die for you..."

"You don't understand..."

William had started to space out...

The pain of loss and cold words severely stabbed William's heart!

Suddenly, he seemed to have come to a realisation!

His gaze suddenly turned sharp.

He raised his head and looked at Rebecca and Felicity.

One of them looked arrogant and ruthless!

The other was cold as ice. Ten years of tenderness had turned into desperation!

"I do not care about such a family!"

"You'd better not regret it!"

"My grandfather was the only one in the world who loved me and cherished me."

"I do not need your sympathy or pity. From now on, I will walk this path alone!"

Thinking of this, William suddenly stood up, grabbed the divorce papers on the table and signed them!

After signing the papers, he glanced at Felicity again and walked out of the kitchen without looking back!

His glance shocked Felicity.

The look in his eyes...

Cold and arrogant!

He looked like a wounded but stubborn lone wolf!

Watching him leave in big strides, Felicity thought she saw an illusion!

It was as if the indifference in her eyes had shot through his body like arrows, leaving it battered in blood!

It was as if every step he took was filled with pain, causing him immense grief and hurt.

His gaze, and his figure!

It looked exactly the same as it was ten years ago, when William had rescued her and turned to leave!

But now, it was not his body that was hurt, it was his heart...

Thinking of this, Felicity's tears fell and she rushed towards the door!

When Rebecca saw Felicity chasing after William in regret, she cursed loudly and chased after her daughter furiously.

At the door, Felicity saw a cold and arrogant William.

He seemed to be waiting for something...

Was he waiting for her to persuade him to stay?

Felicity wanted to approach him, but she suddenly felt disheartened. She retreated after taking a step towards him.

Why should she ask him to stay...

"It would be better to cut off our relationship than to continue hating each other. From now on we will be apart from each other. And we'll finally be happy..." Felicity thought in her heart.

Rebecca rushed up to them and scolded William, "You are so arrogant! How dare you give us this kind of attitude? For so many years, you ate and drank from ours. Even when our Bai family feeds a dog, it knows how to be grateful! Even when you got married, you couldn't even give us a wedding gift. Did my daughter even say anything then? How dare you put this show in front of me?"

Seeing that her mother still refused to give up, Felicity hurried up and tried to dissuade her.

However, Rebecca sneered and said, "Felicity, can't you tell what kind of person he is yet? Do you really think he was going to leave? He is a good-for-nothing without any money. Where can he go? He deliberately pretends to be pitiful to get your sympathy."

"I've seen through him a long time ago!"

Felicity couldn't bear to see William being humiliated and yet not retaliate. She choked and said, "Mom, stop it. You know he's penniless. It'd be better for us to part ways amicably. Do you have any money in your pocket? Can you give some to him..."

Rebecca looked at the quiet William with red eyes, she felt very happy!

"Ten years. After enduring him for ten years, it finally came to an end!"

"I'm going to let this guy starve to death on the street without any money!"

"He ought to know that if it weren't for us and the Bai family, he wouldn't be better than a stray dog on the streets!"

Seeing that Rebecca had refused to help William for the last time, Felicity sighed and turned back to take the money.

Rebecca's gaze suddenly turned stern. She quickly pulled Felicity back.

At the end of her sight, a black line slowly appeared.

"Felicity, look, is that a Rolls-Royce Phantom? It's the first time I've seen it. It's so beautiful!"

"I wonder which rich man is driving it. If you get in the car, it will be a perfect match - a beautiful lady sitting in a luxurious car. You should live this kind of life, do you understand?"

However, Felicity's eyes were fixed on William. She didn't even look at the luxurious car.

At this moment, Rebecca suddenly cried out!

The Rolls-Royce came to a stop in front of their door!

Rebecca suddenly became excited!

"I know! It must be Fernando who had come to pick you up for a candlelight dinner!"

"I told him today that you were going to divorce this good-for-nothing. He must be very happy."

"I didn't expect that his family would be so rich. Felicity, your good days are coming!"

Hearing this, Felicity's expression turned ugly.

Her mother was going too far.

William was still here. She had deliberately said these words to embarrass William even more!

Rebecca snorted when she noticed Felicity's eyes were on William. Then she took out a stack of money and gave it directly to William!

"D*mn it! I'll just assume that I stepped on sh*t and lost 1,000 yuan!"

"It's better to give the money to a beggar than to him!"

"At least the beggar knows how to be grateful!"

"Get out of my way! Do you hear me? My daughter is going to have a date with her new boyfriend."

A driver wearing white gloves stood by the car. He then opened the door and greeted William with a respectful posture.

Seeing this gesture, Rebecca excitedly pushed Felicity towards the car and urged her to hurry.

On the other hand, William's hand was stuffed with a thousand yuan. He suddenly sneered.

"Money..." He thought to himself.

"Everything in the world is for the sake of money."

"And everyone strives in this world for the sake of money."

"Money is nothing!"

"I have more than enough money!"

"I have power that can conquer the world!"

"It's just that I don't care!"

"All I want is my grandfather, and..."

"To grow old with the person I love..."

Thinking of this, William sneered and suddenly tore the banknotes in his hand!

The ten banknotes were thrown into the air, and the shredded pieces fell slowly onto the ground.

He strode towards the car. When Rebecca was about to reprimand him, she saw an extremely shocking scene!

The driver bowed respectfully to William.

William opened the door and got into the car without looking back!

Chapter 2

Rebecca Zhang and Felicity Bai were filled with disbelief!

The car was not sent by Fernando Lin to pick Felicity up!

It was here to pick William Lu up instead!

It was the Rolls-Royce Phantom!

A luxury car worth tens of millions!

How could William sit in such a luxury car?

Where did he get the money? Where did he get the connections?

Where did he get the right to do that?

Even though William had married into the Bai family, in reality, his status was even worse than that of the housekeeper and nanny!

Over the past ten years, he isolated himself in the Bai family residence. As such, he didn't have many friends, let alone money.

There was another important reason why Felicity was cruel to William. At the end of each month, William would shamelessly ask for money from her.

But now, he who had no money and status, was chauffeured by a Rolls-Royce!

This!

The two of them looked at each other, and their eyes were full of shock!

Felicity suddenly looked at the torn pieces scattered on the ground, and a strange feeling suddenly arose in her heart.

His good-for-nothing husband seemed to be extraordinary!

William was in the car, and his eyes were red.

His grandfather had just passed away, and his most beloved wife was also, at this moment, leaving him.

His world had crumbled that instant. The reality was so ruthless and suffocating.

After a long while, the car finally stopped in front of a villa halfway up the mountain. William looked up and saw a strange-looking Qilin pattern carved on the gate of the Wang family. (The Qilin is a mythical hooved chimerical creature known in Chinese culture which will bring good luck.)

Was this a Blood-stained Qilin?

While William was still lost in his thoughts, he suddenly noticed an old man with white hair coming towards him. The old man's eyes were filled with grief. One of his feet was a little weak, and he was staggering over to William.

He was one of his grandfather's most trusted subordinates, Harper Wang. He was also a rich man in Qena City.

Ten years ago, his grandfather had sent William to Qena City. By chance, William entered the Bai family.

Under William's grandfather's orders, Harper came to Qena City to secretly protect William.

When Harper saw William, his eyes turned red and his tears immediately fell. "Young Master, I'm sorry..."

William suppressed his tears and followed the old man into the villa.

In the room, Harper immediately took out a letter and an ancient box. He choked and said, "Young Master, please read this letter first."

When he opened the letter and proceeded to read its first sentence, the tears that he had been holding back immediately fell.

"I'm sorry, William. Grandpa has left, but no matter alive or dead, my heart always aches whenever I see you suffer..."

The letter was very long.

It looked as if he was reminiscing the guilt and helplessness he had been feeling over the past ten years.

After reading it, William's face was already full of tears.

It took a long time before the tears finally stopped.

"Mr. Wang, how did my grandfather die?" William suddenly asked in silence.

At this time, a murderous intent flashed across Harper's eyes. He gnashed his teeth and said, "The Old Master was poisoned to death! The Master of the Lu Family and several elders worked together to break his hands and feet, and then fed him with poison! The Old Master was severely infected and he passed away after crying out in pain for 48 hours!"

Hearing this, William burst into tears again!

His grandfather was a high-skilled doctor!

He didn't expect that his grandfather would suffer such painful humiliation before he died!

Broken hands and feet!

His whole body was severely infected!

For 48 hours!

Thinking of this, William clenched his fists so tightly that his fingernails sank into his flesh. He would never forget how his grandfather was tortured to death!

The Lu Family!

Harper gritted his teeth and said, "They must have done it for The Scripture of Tranquility."

William's heart skipped a beat.

"The Scripture of Tranquility?"

"Isn't that the legendary medical skill of the Lu family? Why?" William asked.

At this time, Harper looked deeply at William and whispered, sending goosebumps all over his body.

"Your grandfather had completed the second half of The Scripture of Tranquility by chance!"

William suddenly trembled.

So that was what happened!

The Scripture of Tranquility was handed down from generation to generation by the Lu family in North Lake City. It had been handed down for thousands of years, but the second half of the Scripture was not recorded.

The first half talked about the wise ways to save the world and its people.

The second half was filled with ways to kill men!

For thousands of years, countless erudites from the Lu Family wanted to complete the Scripture, but their efforts were in vain.

William did not expect that his grandfather would complete it!

No wonder the Lu Family had tortured grandfather so cruelly!

They must have done it to force his grandfather to hand over his completed copy of the Scripture.

However, his grandfather was shrewd and he saw through the evil side of the Lu family. He didn't want them to misuse it, so he refused to give in to their demands.

That was why he was tortured for 48 hours before he finally found peace...

"Young Master, the book is here. It's a unique copy." Harper clicked on the antique box.

William looked at the box, and his heart was filled with sorrow.

"Young Master, the Old Master has left his last words before his death. I'll recite them to you."

"The Old Master knew that despite your arrogance, you still have a kind heart. Therefore, he knew that when you heard the news of his death, you would definitely avenge him."

"However, the Lu family is not someone that you could mess with now."

"The Old Master gives you two choices."

"You can either take away 100 million yuan from me and live the rest of your life in peace."

"Or you could inherit the Scripture of Tranquility. From then on, you must train for the betterment of the people. However, you must also meet these two conditions before the Old Master allows you to go after the Lu family."

"You must first earn a hundred billion yuan. Then, you must master the Scripture of Tranquility until its fifth chapter!

Hearing this, William frowned slightly.

Seeing William frown, Harper sighed in his heart.

Obviously, the last two conditions were set up by the Old Master to prevent the Young Master from avenging him.

A poor boy like him wouldn't be able to earn 100 billion yuan in his lifetime.

And it would be exceptionally difficult for him to master the Scripture of Tranquility until its fifth chapter.

It was known that the complete edition of the Scripture of Tranquility had ten chapters in total.

If an ordinary person was talented enough to master the book until its fourth chapter, he would have become an excellent doctor by then.

The fifth chapter...

Not only must he be talented, but he must also have the fate to...

"Your grandfather hoped that you would choose the first choice," Harper said sincerely.

How could William not understand his grandfather's painstaking efforts?

The Lu Family was too powerful.

They were so powerful that people could not help but feel despairing!

Harper was well aware of the dangers of seeking revenge. He gloomily handed William a bank card and said, "Young Master, I hope you will be safe for the rest of your life. That way, I will be at ease."

"I'll burn this box immediately and leave no chance for the Lu Family!"

William took the bank card in a daze, and his hands were shaking.

He walked out in a daze as if he had made a choice.

Seeing this scene, Harper felt an immense sorrow in his heart.

This grudge was really difficult for the Young Master.

Perhaps, it would be better this way...

The Young Master was a rational person. He knew what to take and what to give up.

Harper silently recited his memorial speech, took out his lighter, and was ready to burn the box.

At this moment, he suddenly heard a crisp crack behind him!

He turned around, but his pupils contracted!

He saw William, who was in a daze before, had broken the bank card with one hand!

All of a sudden, a terrifying chill burst out of William's body!

His eyes were as sharp as knives!

His body was like a demon!

"Grandpa... if I don't want to resign myself to fate, I will never yield to others!"

"Even the Gods of Heaven and Earth will not be able to force me!"

"With the Scripture of Tranquility and a single stroke of the needle... life, and death will not be decided by God anymore."

"It will be up to me to decide!"

Chapter 3

Upon hearing this, Harper was filled with excitement and tears burst from his eyes!

Young master!

He was young and frivolous, and did not know what death was. He did not know how precious life was!

He was so arrogant that he wanted to scold him!

It was so arrogant that it made people think—

"My body may fail and my body may be burnt into ashes, but I am still willing to sacrifice myself to fulfill the Young Master's wishes!" Harper said as he knelt down in front of William. His enthusiasm was comparable to a young man's.

He was initially disappointed when William chose to take the bank card. After all, he knew that it was the wisest choice for William.

He felt disappointed but more so regretful.

It meant that no one could fulfil the old master's wish and avenge him, forever.

But now, when he saw that the young master charging ahead towards the unknown, even if he knew that it was too risky and dangerous, he just wanted to follow him through thick and thin and risk his life!

"Young Master, the old master didn't misjudge you!"

"Since you've chosen this difficult path, I will fight alongside you to my grave!"

Harper trembled and handed the box to William.

William opened the box, and there were three things in it.

An old yellowed handwritten script, titled "The Scripture of Tranquility".

There was also a set of glittering silver needles, and the first half of each silver needle was faint scarlet in color.

William's eyes reddened.

These were the silver needles that Grandpa had carried with him for decades. There were a total of 100 needles. One needle symbolized 100 years and a hundred needles symbolized 10,000 years!

These were the 10,000-year Needles of Ruby Flower!

"Then, I will pierce through the entire Lu family's soul with grandpa's silver Needles of Ruby Flower!" He thought.

When William looked at the last thing, he was startled.

It was an antique yet elegant jade pendant. The pattern on it was exactly the same as the blood-stained Qilin on the gates of the Wang Family residence.

"This is a Qilin Amulet. Your grandfather wanted to protect you, so he secretly nurtured a force for you in anticipation."

"Those who carved the blood-stained Qilin on the gates of their houses, all over this world, will bow to William as their king!"

Harper said chokingly.

William's heart ached. "Grandpa, I've made you worry all these years..."

Harper gave William a moment of silence before continuing apologetically. "Young Master, since you have made your choice, there is still one last wish from the Old Master that you have yet to fulfill. However I'm afraid I'm unable to help you to earn a hundred billion yuan."

William looked at Harper's old face and suddenly smiled.

"No, you can help me!"

After saying that, William suddenly took out a silver needle and stabbed several times on Harper's thigh meridians!

After a few needles, Harper broke out in cold sweat.

"Young Master, this is..."

He saw William handle silver needles very smoothly.

After a while, William pulled out the silver needle and said to Harper, "We'll earn it through our hard work. No one can deny us then!"

Harper was shocked for a while. He felt that his crippled leg, which had been disabled for more than ten years, felt a little tingle, and he burst into laughter!

He smiled, not because his legs felt better after it was treated with William's silver needles.

What he was laughing at was that the young master had inherited the old master's medical skills from when he was a child. He was no longer a novice!

What he was laughing at was that the young master had to use this move to tell him that if he would follow him to the ends of this life!

Harper laughed even more. "The young master is so talented that he doesn't fear anything!"

When William was faced with endless poverty, he could overcome it with the help of the silver needles.

He actually cured Harper's legs and earned his first sum of wealth in his life!

"Good! I am also a well-known figure in Qena City. Today, I'm fortunate enough to receive treatment from you, Junior Divine Dr. Lu. I'll repay you with great respect!"

"I'll present you a clinic I'd just established in the past two years, as the first battlefield for you to carve your own path!"

Harper's heart was in a turmoil.

"Young Master, with your strength and wisdom, sooner or later, you will become an overlord of a region!"

William nodded, holding a silver needle in his hand. This was the strongest support for him to save and kill people at the same time in the future!

"Tomorrow afternoon, please go to the Genuine Care Medical Center to deal with the procedures. My granddaughter Melissa Wang will be hosting the meeting, where we will discuss a business deal. From now on, she will only obey you!" Harper said.

"It's a pity that you're married. Otherwise, my granddaughter..." Harper looked at William, and the more he looked at him, the more satisfied he was. He couldn't help sighing with emotion.

But this sentence made William's face change.

Oh no!

By the end of this month, he needed to have made a bowl of medicine soup for Felicity Bai.

She didn't drink it today. If her heart condition that had been suppressed for ten years manifested at this time, maybe...

Thinking of this, William suddenly became anxious.

Although their fated relationship had come to an end, William could not just sit by and watch a person who had given him 10 years of companionship meet her demise.

William said goodbye to Harper and hurried out.

At this moment, the starlight was all over the sky, and it was so beautiful that it seemed that it was not part of this world.

In the Bai family, Felicity lay on her bed and clutched her heart with one hand. There were large beads of sweat on her forehead.

Her mind was in a state of shock!

Why...

"I thought I recovered from my illness when I was five."

She actually thought she had recovered, but why now...

"William!" She couldn't help but call out this name in panic.

After shouting his name, she suddenly realized something. Their 10-year relationship would cause her to never forget his name. It would forever be engraved in her heart and soul.

At the brink of death, all she could muster the strength to call out was his name.

It was a pity that he had already...

The intense pain and the unspeakable grief in her heart made her go stiff. She passed out on the bed at once.

When William arrived at the Bai family's house, he found that the lights of the Bai family's house were all switched off.

He opened the door with the key and went straight to Felicity's room.

As soon as he entered the room, he noticed the strange look on her face.

"Oh no!"

William quickly took out the silver needles. According to his grandfather's medical skills, he pierced a few needles at the key acupoints on Felicity's body. With his outstanding medical move, Felicity finally awoke!

As long as she could overcome this obstacle, this month would pass smoothly.

"Felicity, you must hold on!"

William guarded Felicity. He felt relieved after he saw Felicity's pale face gradually become rosy again.

Just as he was about to pull out the needle and leave, his hand was suddenly gently held.

William's body stiffened. He could feel the softness in her hand. He could not even move half a step.

"William, don't go... Don't go..." Felicity said softly, which made William feel upset.

However, he found that Felicity was still in a daze, so she just unconsciously called out his name.

Felicity...

William looked at this beauty who was sleeping very close to him, and his heart ached for her.

"Only at this moment, you are willing to be so close to me..." He thought of Felicity.

"It was a pity that my hand could touch your face, but could not touch your heart..."

William suddenly had a strong impulse surging through his body!

Chapter 4

He wanted to protect Felicity for the rest of his life.

He couldn't bear to see her all alone in the middle of the night, and her pain was unbeknownst to everyone...

Right this moment, there were sound of footsteps at the door.

William's eyes turned cold. He gently put Felicity down and quickly pulled the needles out of her body. Then he opened the window and jumped out!

Fortunately, her room was on the first floor of the villa. After William jumped out, he looked back at the window reluctantly and strode away.

Felicity, on the other hand, seemed to have had a long dream. It felt calm and tranquil in her dream. The only thing she remembered clearly was with a man with a wounded look in his eyes. She stayed with him for the rest of her life and never left him.

When she opened her eyes, it was already dawn.

There were two people standing in front of her.

One of them was Rebecca Zhang. Looking at the second person, Felicity felt extremely disappointed.

It was Fernando Lin, a man who had been pursuing her for a long time.

It wasn't the person she wanted to see. It wasn't 'him'...

When Rebecca saw Felicity wake up, she breathed a sigh of relief and said with a lingering fear, "Felicity, you finally woke up. Did you know that you had a heart attack last night? You almost died!"

Felicity nodded, but suddenly she remembered in a daze that there seemed to be a man who saved her...

His hands were very warm...

And yet, his heart was cold...

"Who was it..."

At this time, Rebecca pointed to Fernando and said, "If it weren't for the fact that Fernando and I had something to discuss with you, we wouldn't have known that you were having a heart attack!"

"It's all thanks to Fernando, who saved your life by doing acupuncture using his silver needles. You'd better thank him properly!" Rebecca added.

"Fernando? Was it Fernando who saved me last night?" Felicity wondered.

"Then the man in my dream..."

In that moment, Felicity's face turned pallid.

It turned out that it was a dream after all.

When she woke up from her dream, that person had left too...

Fernando looked at the delicate Felicity with a flash of heated desire in his eyes. He said sincerely, "Felicity, do you know that you are seriously ill? If it weren't for Auntie and myself coming over last night, the consequences would be unimaginable..."

"Thank you," Felicity squeezed out a smile and thanked him.

At this time, Rebecca took the opportunity to say, "Felicity, don't you understand Fernando's feelings for you? He is your savior now..."

"Mom, I will repay him for saving my life in the future," Felicity said. She was a little morose and could not help interrupting Rebecca.

Rebecca, however, was not reconciled and said, "Well, let's not talk about this for now. By the way, aren't we going to the Genuine Care Medical Center to talk about the deal today? Yesterday, I talked to Fernando, and he immediately promised to help us."

Felicity couldn't help but glance at Fernando.

Fernando smiled and said, "Haha, I have good relations with the Genuine Care Medical Center. The host, Melissa Wang, is my buddy's friend. I've already set up a meeting with them and we can sign the contract in the afternoon."

"Really?" There was a flash of light in Felicity's eyes.

The Bai family's line of work was in the pharmaceutical business. In the early years, many major hospitals and medical centers in Qena City would collaborate with the their family just so they could meet one of the Bai family's beautiful women during their negotiation.

However, since Felicity and William got married, the family's successes had been failing. Their pharmaceutical business had not been prosperous, and their deals with the hospitals and the medical clinics had not been very smooth.

For the collaboration with Genuine Care Medical Center, Felicity had asked a lot of people for favours.

However, that Melissa Wang didn't show any sign as if she could be moved at all.

Felicity didn't expect Fernando to have such powerful connections.

If this negotiation was successful, she would really owe him a big favor.

"Thank you. Thank you for your hard work that afternoon," Felicity said gratefully to Fernando.

Seeing that Felicity's attitude towards him became softened, Fernando felt even more happy.

"Hahaha, there is no woman that I can't get!" He thought arrogantly.

Felicity struggled to get up, but suddenly, she let out a cry.

She took out a silver needle from her underarms!

The first half of this silver needle was scarlet in colour...

"Eh?" Felicity couldn't help but be surprised.

Fernando's eyes narrowed.

He immediately laughed and said, "Ha ha ha, it's my fault for being careless. I was busy healing you last night, that I must have missed pulling out one needle."

After that, he took the silver needle and threw it into the trash can carelessly.

As she looked at Fernando's careless movements, she suddenly had a trace of doubt in her heart.

She politely sent Fernando away and agreed to meet him at the entrance of the Genuine Care Medical Centre at three o'clock in the afternoon.

After they left the room, Felicity struggled to get up, but mysteriously, she looked through the trash can and took out the silver needle that Fernando threw away.

She felt that there was something strange with this silver needle.

"Why did he have such scarlet-tinted silver needles?"

She couldn't think of anything for a moment, but carefully put the silver needle into the bag.

At three o'clock in the afternoon, William appeared in the Genuine Care Medical Center. He stood in front of the entrance and called Melissa on his phone. She said that she would arrive at the clinic soon and asked William to wait for a few minutes.

William had lost his beloved grandfather, plus the divorce with Felicity hit him hard. He seemed to have gone through so much misfortune overnight, to the point his stubble was not shaved, which made him seem completely bedraggled.

He went to the bathroom to tidy up his appearance.

However, he suddenly heard the sound of footsteps coming from outside.

There was also a triumphant voice. "Hahaha, brother, I've got the medicine. Thank you, it's up to you whether you can take down Felicity tonight."

Felicity?

William frowned. When she heard the voice again, he knew that it belonged to Fernando.

Fernando had been chasing after Felicity all these years as if he did not care for William's existence at all.

William knew Fernando's intentions.

"What does this guy want to do to Felicity?"

He stepped into the compartment of the toilet.

Fernando walked into the bathroom and said proudly, "Ha Ha! I heard that Felicity had signed a divorce agreement with her useless husband. Last night, I inexplicably became her lifesaver. Today, I will help her take over the negotiations of the Genuine Care Medical Center. I'll do her such a great favour, she'll throw herself at me!"

"When the time comes, all I need to do is treat her to a candlelight dinner, and then put this into her red wine. She'll have to give in to me. It's said that despite being married to that useless husband for three years, she's still a virgin, hahaha..."

Hearing all of this, William was irritated!

This Fernando!

"How dare he use such a dirty trick against Felicity?"

"Bang!"

The door of the stall burst open in an instant!

Fernando turned around and saw William standing behind him. He was stunned. "William Lu..."

William's face was as cold as ice. He rushed forward and punched him in the face!

Fernando had been indulging in alcohol and women for many years. His wanton lifestyle made him unhealthy and weak. How could he match up against William?

"F*ck! How dare you hit me?" Fernando was enraged. He dropped his phone and hit William!

However, he was extremely cunning. He even secretly slipped the bottle of liquid medicine into William's pocket, while William was beating him up.

William was so angry that he didn't notice it at all.

All of a sudden, Fernando unleashed all his strength. He forcefully pushed William away and ran outside.

William chased after him.

But as soon as they arrived at the hall, William heard a surprised voice coming from behind.

"William! Why are you here?"

When William turned around, it turned out to be the pure and beautiful Felicity!

Rebecca was there too.

Fernando rushed to the side of Felicity and said angrily, "Felicity, look, how do you know this piece of garbage? This guy, I don't know how he heard that we are going to come here, but he was hiding in the toilet and then ambushed me!"

Looking at Fernando's swollen nose and face, Felicity had a strange feeling in her heart.

She looked at William.

He looked poor and dishevelled, but his eyes were full of arrogance and recklessness!

Rebecca was furious immediately.

"William! You are worse than a beast! Did you come here to take revenge on Felicity after the divorce? Or did you choose to be here to shame our Bai family so that the Genuine Care Medical Center will look down on us and cancel the deal? You are really wicked!"

Hearing this, Felicity felt even more upset!

"William, are you really such a person?"

"You've disappointed me so much!"

"It's a pity that last night, I thought..." Felicity's mind was in a mess.

Ignoring Rebecca, William rushed straight towards Fernando!

However, he was pulled back!

It was Felicity!

Felicity looked at the irrational William in front of her, and her disappointment was even more intense.

She suddenly raised her hand and slapped William's face!

All the people present were shocked by this sudden act.

William covered his face and looked at Felicity with burning eyes. It seemed like something broke in his heart!

On the other hand, Felicity's voice choked and her face was full of desperation. "William! Do you know what you are doing? Are you crazy?"

"Well, It was I who wronged you! If you are a man, come and hit me! Why are you beating Fernando up?" she said vehemently.

"He's my savior! Where were you when I was about to die last night? When you were absent, he saved me!"

"I hoped that you were a person full of passion and courage, but it doesn't seem so anymore!"

"You've changed. You've changed so much that I can't believe it! You're horrifying..."

When William heard her pained words, he fell into a state of grief!

"Felicity, do you know what you're talking about?"

"Do you know why I hit Fernando?"

"Do you know who saved you last night?"

"You don't know anything!"

"You don't understand anything, and yet you hit me!" William's heart was in pain as he said these words to himself.

Hehe...

"Who have I been protecting and caring for, for the past ten years?"

It was not a woman, but a poisonous snake who returned kindness with ingratitude!

Seeing William's wounded eyes again, Felicity's heart suddenly softened.

"Did I go too far?"

"That's right. Everyone knows that he loves me..." She thought.

"It was reasonable for him to do anything extreme given I cut off the relationship with him in such a heartless manner..."

"However, I really don't like it when he's like that..."

Fernando, who was standing by, was proudly watching this 'show'. He felt that he ought to score full marks for his ambitious scheme.

But when he saw Felicity's eyes suddenly full of sadness, he immediately realized that something was wrong.

This b*tchy couple still had feelings for each other!

What the f*ck!

"Then, don't fault me for what I'm about to do!" He thought.

"Felicity, today, I'll show you what a heartless wolf has been beside you for the past ten years! Look at what he wants to do to you!" Fernando suddenly rushed to William and took out something from his pocket.

And when Felicity saw the item, she felt as if she had been struck by lightning!

Her family business was in the pharmaceutical industry. How could she not know what it was!

"William, you b*stard, you've reached such a level!"

"He wanted to do something to me..." She was so disappointed at this revelation.

In the past three years, she had not slept with him in the same room. Unexpectedly, he had so much hatred in his heart!

The way Felicity looked at William had completely changed!

She became vicious and cruel!

She grabbed the vial of liquid and threw it out of the door. Then, she slapped him again!

She slapped William's face!

"Slap!"

"William, from now on, I don't want to see you anymore! Leave!"

There was another slap on his face, which made William wide awake.

All of a sudden, he laughed coldly, and a hint of coldness appeared on his face.

"Felicity, if that's you want!"

"Don't forget!"

"It's me, William, who divorced you first! You and I have nothing to do with each other anymore!"

After William finished speaking, he strode outside.

Just after taking two steps, a beautiful woman with a graceful figure appeared in front of the clinic in a hurry.

When Fernando saw her, he immediately became excited. "Look, the spokesperson for the clinic is coming. Let's go, let's hurry up and go!"

Felicity was being dragged forward by Rebecca, as if she had just woken up from a dream. She followed her in a daze.

Passing by William, Rebecca shoved him aside with her body. "Get out of here! Obedient dogs don't block the way!"

Instead, William stopped and did not leave.

Rebecca whispered to Felicity, "Fortunately, Director Wang didn't see the farce just now, or it would be really shameful. It's all that b*stards fault! I'll get some people to kill him later!"

In the blink of an eye, Fernando and the other two had already stood in front of Melissa. Fernando smiled humbly and stretched out his hand, said, "Director Wang, I'm Fernando, I was introduced to you by an acquaintance. I've brought someone from the Bai family to sign a contract with you today. Thank you! You're so busy but..."

However, before he could finish his words, he saw that Melissa walked past him without stopping.

She was walking towards someone else.

She walked up to the sorrowful man and smiled charmingly, like a flower in full bloom.

"Young Master!"

Chapter 5

Fernando and the other two were completely dumbfounded!

Why!

Why would Melissa Wang walk towards that good-for-nothing man?

And she even showed such a sweet and charming smile to that bum!

After all, Melissa's reputation as a top-class beauty in Qena City was even better than Felicity's!

Felicity's temperament was graceful, innocent and pure.

Melissa seemed aloof and unapproachable, yet she had a sense of undeniable charm.

Two completely different traits on the same woman was a kind of fatal temptation for all men. Melissa's charm exceeded Felicity's purity by far.

The cold and aloof beauty, who usually didn't smile, was now smiling brightly at this useless man!

And her smile was so stunning!

Why was this happening?

The three of them did not hear it when Melissa called out "Young Master" quietly. However, her smile was enough to make them stagger on the spot!

On the other hand, Felicity's heart was filled with inexplicable bitterness.

"How did William know Melissa?"

"How does such a stunning lady favour William so much?"

The feeling was like abandoning a piece of garbage, but seeing someone else pick it up like a precious treasure!

Felicity felt a dull pain in her heart.

Last night, under her grandfather's instructions, Melissa looked up William's photos, so she recognized William at first sight.

She walked up to William and addressed him respectfully as "Young Master".

This Young Master was two years younger than herself. She realized that he seemed a little dazed, but also a little adorable.

She couldn't help teasing him as she said softly, "Young Master, is there a beautiful woman before you? Was it too dazzling that it stunned you?"

This was Melissa's character. She was as cold as frost in front of others. She always had a domineering personality, like a 'big sister' whom everyone had to respect and listen to.

However, in her heart, she was a playful little goblin.

William was roused from his daze by Melissa's words. He glanced at Melissa with amazement in his eyes, but it disappeared in a flash.

"Hello, Melissa."

Seeing that William became calm and composed in an instant, Melissa became even more curious about him.

Was this the young master that grandpa had spent an hour praising last night?

"Do I have to listen to him from now on?"

"William, you must be prepared. You'd better be able to keep things under control..."

At this time, Rebecca and Fernando had already rushed in front of Melissa, and their faces looked very unnatural.

"Director Wang, did you recognize the wrong person? This guy is a useless man from our family, the Bai family. He was just driven out by us yesterday. Today, he wants to come here to undermine our deal!" Rebecca smiled forcibly.

But this sentence instantly made Melissa's face become cold.

"Really?"

"Is that so?"

"My grandfather thinks highly of this Young Master. Is he really a useless man from your family?"

"Perhaps the Bai family is an extremely influential and powerful family?"

"That even this noble Young Master is not welcome there?"

"Interesting." Melissa scoffed sarcastically.

"Our deal? What deal?" She taunted as she smiled playfully.

Fernando hurriedly repeated himself and added, "We talked about it previously."

Melissa seemed to have suddenly realized something, which made Fernando feel delighted.

Rebecca also seemed elated.

However, when she looked at William, her face turned cold and she cursed angrily, "Get out of here! Do you think this is a place where the trash like you can hang around?"

William's face was cold. "Haha, sure!"

After that, William was about to leave.

However, someone grabbed his arm.

Under the watchful eyes of the others, Melissa was holding onto William's arm intimately!

The three people around them were dumbfounded by what they saw.

"This..."

This useless kid was trying to woo a beautiful woman way out of his league. How preposterous!

On the other hand, Felicity felt even more distressed.

"William, you've really changed!"

"How could you hook up with such a shameless woman!" She thought.

"Director Wang, you..." Rebecca felt so awkward that she didn't know what to say.

"Let's talk about our deal first," Melissa suddenly said with a smile.

Rebecca finally had a look of joy on her face.

"Director Wang, so, have you decided to agree to it?"

Melissa shook her head slightly, then suddenly placed her head on William's shoulder. She put on a coy and loving look as she said, "No, I'm pulling out."

Pulling out?

The two words hit them like a clap of thunder. Fernando and Rebecca were both defeated and filled with rage!

She was the spokesperson for the clinic. How could she pull out so unconcernedly ?

"I've decided to relinquish the signing rights for the deal to William instead, and he'll decide whether to sign it or not," Melissa said with a smile.

Her words almost made Fernando curse at her!

It was simply humiliating!

This important deal was now to be decided by a good-for-nothing!

"Director Wang, this is preposterous. Don't you think what you're doing is a little too much?"
Fernando's face was not very happy.

However, Melissa opened her red lips slightly and said, "Oh? Then you should give up. Take care on your way out, I won't see you off."

Rebecca was about to explode with anger!

Unexpectedly, the good-for-nothing who had been bullied by them just now had now changed into an emperor who wielded supreme power over the Bai family!

This lowly dog! How could he have sprouted wings and become a powerful unicorn all of a sudden?

"So, what are you going to do next? I'm waiting."
The little devil in Melissa's heart spoke again. She was indeed a sarcastic little drama queen.

Rebecca's face turned red!

"What should I do?"

What could she do now?

It seemed that there was only one way!

Rebecca looked at William timidly, but she did not dare look him in the eye.

"Well, William, after all, you were in a relationship with Felicity. Can you..."

"I can't," William didn't wait for her to finish, and he said without hesitating.

"You!" Rebecca clenched her fists!

"This b*stard!"

It was obvious that he was just pretending to be powerful. He was just a poor and useless boy. Why was he showing off his bogus power here?

"You'd better not fall into my hands!" Rebecca thought viciously.

"William, I beg you! Today's deal..."

"I won't sign it!" William was still as cold as ice.

Rebecca instantly exploded with anger!

She pointed at William with an atrocious face and scolded, "You b*stard! Do you really think you are a king? I was so shameless to ask for help from trash like you, but you don't know what's good or bad for you! Don't be so shameless!"

"William, let's go. This person is crazy." Melissa smiled charmingly at William. She twisted her little waist and pulled him into the elevator.

But at this time, William suddenly trembled.

He heard a deep cry.

It was as if he had also heard the sound of weeping.

Was it her? Did she cry?

He could not help but turn around.

He then saw Felicity suddenly smash her bag at him!

The bag hit his body and fell on the ground, and the things inside were scattered all over.

After throwing the bag, Felicity squatted down helplessly and burst into tears.

Suddenly, she stubbornly raised her face and looked at William.

"I have gone through and suffered a lot, I just hope you can take pity on me..."

"William, I don't care if I can sign the contract today..."

"I only want to ask you if you are really..."

"Ungrateful! There's someone else in your heart!"

Her words shocked William.

When he looked at the ground again, his heartlessness turned into sorrow.

Before him, was a beautiful and pitiful lady, whose heart had been broken by him.

On the ground, amongst the items that had fallen out of Felicity's bag, there was the divorce agreement that had been torn into pieces, and also a tiny...

Needle of the Ruby Flower!
