

Chapter 110

Seeing William had thrown out a card, a trace of delight crept up on everyone's faces.

Finally, they got a fathead to pay!

They did not have to split the bill that cost 450,000 yuan.

After eating and drinking for free, they managed to force an idiot to pay the bill. What a day!

Rachel sneered at the side. "Why won't Director Zhao dare to take it? Do you think your card is an international card issued by the country president? Trying to act all high- and- mighty in front of the Li family? It seems like you have a death wish."

When Director Zhao took William's card, he held it up and saw the three words on it. All of a sudden, his body froze stiff. A wave of sharp pain permeated his entire body as if he had been pricked by needles.

This was...

Rachel didn't notice that change of expression on Director Zhao's face. She snorted at William and went over to see what was so special about the card.

But after Rachel laid her eyes on the card, she got so annoyed that she snatched the card and began to swear.

"Are you making fun of us? What card is this? Is it a bus pass? Or a VIP card of the bath center? Go to hell!"

Everyone was stupefied and shifted their gaze to the card.

After seeing it clearly, everyone's face turned aghast in an instant as a surge of anger rose among them.

They were fooled by this brat!

They should have known that William wouldn't be so kind. He wasn't a pushover.

Everyone encircled William and Felicity again, poking their fingers at them so close that it almost touched Felicity's nose.

"The two of you are dead meat! How dare you pull a trick in front of all of us!" Someone yelled.

"Everyone, watch out. This guy is planning to drag all of us into hot water. He deliberately threw out a useless card to infuriate the Li family. He wants to ruin all of us!" A girl shouted.

Another man at the side cursed, "D*mn it. I have despised this pair of b*stard couples since the very beginning. You guys are so mean! I don't care. Take out your credit card, or you won't be able to walk out of this lobby. Not over my dead body."

Their words were full of threats.

Felicity's heart was pounding rapidly against her chest. She pulled William and said hastily, "William, you've gone too far. If we get on the nerves of the Li family, the consequences will be unthinkable."

However, William just pinched her hand and remained still.

Seeing the rage among her ex-classmates smoldering stronger, Felicity was as antsy as a cat on the hot bricks.

Initially, the two of them were indeed innocent. Hence, they could argue with others with confidence.

But after William played such a trick, the blame was going to be on them.

Alas!

Felicity gritted his teeth and took out a credit card from her handbag. She braced herself and uttered, "I'll pay for it."

As soon as she showed her credit card, Rachel snatched it away in a swift motion, as if she was afraid that Felicity would go back on her word.

At the sight of the credit card, the crowd began to quiet down, their fury subsiding gradually.

"You won't give up until the last second, huh? Now, are you admitting defeat?" A girl continued to mock Felicity.

"There is a good-for-nothing that really does enjoy being a gigolo. He even made his own woman pay for it. Tsk-tsk." Another person on the side sneered at William.

"Let's go to pay with this card. Let me warn both of you. If there is not enough money on the card, I'll hold you responsible."

They took Felicity's credit card and walked toward Director Zhao as if they were holding a gold bar.

Rachel bowed and trod over humbly, fearing that she would irritate Director Zhao.

"Director Zhao, I'm so sorry for what happened just now. Those two people are so uncultured that they dared to fool you. I apologize to you. Here is the credit card. Please use it to pay the bill."

As Rachel spoke, she handed Felicity's credit card over respectfully.

At this time, Director Zhao finally came to his senses from the huge shock.

He could not be bothered with the card in Rachel's hand. He growled in an instant, "Where's the card?"

Rachel lifted the credit card instantly.

But Director Zhao roared, "Where is Mr. Lu's card?"

The crowd did not realize that Director Zhao was addressing William in a very respectful manner at this moment.

Rachel misunderstood Director Zhao. She thought that Director Zhao was going to have a go at William for pulling a prank on him.

She had already thrown the card into a trash can nearby. Trying to please him, she then apologized, "Director Zhao, I'm sorry. You don't need to be bothered with them. That jerk is just foolish. He should not have annoyed you with a useless card..."

When Director Zhao saw that the Peaplum Precious Card was being thrown into the trash can by Rachel, he shuddered.

He rushed to the trash can instinctively and picked up the prestigious card. Then he carefully wiped it on his designer suit, in fear of soiling the card.

Rachel wanted to grab the card from Director Zhao but he was so furious that he grabbed the trash can and put it on Rachel's head.

Rachel screamed miserably. She hurriedly removed the trash can from her head, hissing, "Director Zhao! Why are you doing this to me? The one who fooled you with this card is that jerk. Isn't it uncouth of you to take it out on me?"

However, Director Zhao snorted at this moment.

Director Zhao landed a hard slap across Rachel's face.

The scene fell into dead silence all of a sudden. Everyone's jaw dropped. They didn't know why Director Zhao would target Rachel.

Director Zhao glared sharply at the group of arrogant people before him and told Rachel, "Not only will I slap you, but I will also beat you to death! Do you have any idea what card this is?"

Director Zhao questioned as he held the Peaplum Precious Card carefully.

Everyone was at a loss, and Rachel was becoming increasingly exasperated. "What card is this? Isn't this the card to go to a bathing center? I can find a bunch of them on the street."

Director Zhao slapped her again, and Rachel's face became swollen at once.

This time, she did not dare to talk back.

"You can find this card from the street, can't you? Go and find one for me. Listen carefully! This is the Peaplum Precious Card issued by the Li family. There are only five of them in the whole Qena City," Director Zhao explained to the crowd, his eyes shooting daggers as he glimpsed at them.

His words were like a clap of thunder, blowing everyone's mind away.

Everyone shivered simultaneously.

The Peaplum Precious Card.

It was the most prestigious card one could ever ask for in Qena City!

It was ignorant of them for not being able to recognize it.

This seemingly ordinary card turned out to be the Peaplum Precious Card issued by the Li family.

The Peaplum Precious Card was reputable in Qena City.

Anyone with a Peaplum Precious Card could enjoy all services for free in all the properties of the Li family in Qena City.

Furthermore, it had no limit.

That was how powerful this card was!

Therefore, there were only five cards in Qena City.

The holders of the Peaplum Precious Cards were either rich or noble.

A rumor once said that Harper had tried to exchange one of his companies for the card, but failed.

No one could ever buy the Peaplum Precious Card, although they were rich.

It was the first time for them to see such a prestigious card!

After listening to Director Zhao, Rachel was dumbfounded.

Her body was quivering, and her heart was galloping wildly at the same time.
