

Chapter 2909

Xenia and Yennie backed away instantaneously when they sensed the poisonous mist.

Hansel caught the opportunity and shouted at Wallace, "Quickly! Take Chester!"

Then, he rushed toward Chester.

Hansel was a cunning man. He knew that if he returned to the Ghost World empty-handed, the King of the Dead would definitely punish him. He would have to take Chester since he could not take the two Nine Saint Oracles with him.

Wallace heard Hansel and reacted quickly. They grabbed Chester from both sides and promptly flew into the distance. In the blink of an eye, they had disappeared into the dark night.

Xenia and Yennie were exasperated.

The two cunning envoys had not forgotten to take Chester with them when they fled.

Xenia and Yennie were furious; they were about to pursue them.

However, it did not take long before Xenia fell from the high altitude; she was indescribably weak and lethargic. The moment she landed on the ground, her face was so pale that she could hardly speak.

"Xenia—"

Yennie hurried to Xenia's side, and she supported Xenia by holding her arms gently. Yennie looked worried as she asked, "Xenia, how are you? How do you feel? Why did you do that? Why did you burn your Nascent Soul?"

Xenia smiled weakly. "If we don't take the risk, then we will still be trapped in the Six Ways Soul Destruction Formation."

She looked in the direction where Hansel and Wallace fled indignantly. "What a pity that they managed to rescue Chester and take him away; we won't be able to find out Darryl's whereabouts."

Yennie took a deep breath, her face solemn and unforgiving. "Even if Darryl escapes to the end of the world, we will avenge Cynthia."

Then, she supported Xenia, and they walked down the hill slowly.

Yennie knew the most important thing then was to find a safe place for Xenia to recuperate. She had burned her Narcent Power, so she must be exhausted.

What?

As they passed by a wide street, Xenia and Yennie saw a new notice about the cultivator community had been put up on a signboard at the intersection.

Yennie frowned and helped Xenia get closer to the signboard for a better look.

Yennie and Xenia were overjoyed to see the words on the notice.

The South Cloud World had issued the announcement. A Nine Saint Oracle had asked the South Cloud Empress for a favor to search for the other Nine Saint Oracles. The Empress had promised to put up notices in all the nine continents. The other Nine Saint Oracles were requested to reunite at the South Cloud World.

What great news!

After they read the notice, Yennie and Xenia held hands happily.

Why had they never thought of asking the other royalties in the Nine Mainland to issue a similar notice?

"I don't know who put that up, but it's awesome that they managed to get help from the South Cloud World Royals!" Xenia exclaimed as she smiled weakly.

Even though they were frustrated when they lost Chester, their spirit lifted when they saw the notice.

Yennie smiled and led Xenia away. "It's not too late; let's go to South Cloud World."

Somewhere, on the other side...

After Darryl taught Sonya the method to produce the Vigor Pill, he immediately bid her farewell.

After leaving the secret chamber, Darryl rushed toward the border between the World Universe Continent and the New World Continent. Ambrose's letter mentioned that he, Sara, Yvette, and the others would be waiting for him at the border.

After several hours of flying, Darryl finally arrived at his destination—a courtyard nestled in deep mountains and dense forests.

The environment was peaceful and quiet, which was the perfect place to live in seclusion.

That was another residence that belonged to Celine. As an Honorable Pianist, Celine liked traveling around the Nine Mainland. Therefore, she had a sanctum established in each continent.

Chapter 2910

Darryl slowly walked into the yard after admiring the surroundings.

"Darryl!"

"Father!"

The people in the yard rushed forward and gathered around Darryl excitedly.

"Brother?"

Sara was over the moon. She walked up to Darryl, trembling with excitement. "I am relieved to see that you are fine. I thought you were trapped in the New World Palace —"

Sara plunged into Darryl's arms as she spoke.

Darryl smiled and patted Sara's shoulders to comfort her. "How can I possibly be trapped in the New World Palace? By the way, how did everyone get rescued?"

All eyes were on Sara.

Yvette smiled faintly and said, "All thanks to Sara." Then, she gave a detailed account of how they were rescued.

Whoa!

Darryl was shocked; he looked at Sara incredulously. "Is that true?"

He was amazed; he thought Ambrose had rescued everyone, especially when Lord Kenny ordered Ambrose to be beheaded. He thought it was related to the Carter family. To his astonishment, it was Sara who had rescued everyone.

Even though Sara was Fang Mao's disciple and the Thousand Appearances Figure, she had limited experience in the cultivator's world.

"Brother!"

Sara smiled at the sight of Darryl's surprised look, and she exclaimed proudly. "Don't underestimate me. I've grown up, and I'm no longer the little girl you used to protect."

Darryl chuckled; he was relieved.

The next second, Darryl looked around him and noticed what had happened to Yvette and everyone else. He was shocked.

"You—" Darryl took a deep breath and asked in surprise, "What happened to your internal energy?"

Darryl realized that Yvette and Dax had nothing in their energy field, and all of them were like ordinary people; they had no trace of internal energy.

How could that be?

Darryl was confused. He looked around again and asked, "What on earth happened?"

Sigh!

Everyone exchanged looks with each other and sighed almost at the same time.

Then, Yvette stepped forward; her beautiful face looked furious. "It's all because of Zhang Jue. We had to take his Scattered Energy Pill, and we lost all our internal energy."

Yvette gritted her teeth resentfully.

Lord Kenny would not have captured her if she had not lost her internal energy.

Dax growled in a fury. "Darryl, Zhang Jue is too ambitious, and he is determined to destroy all of us. There's no forgiving him, and he should be eliminated!"

Everyone else agreed with Dax.

"Yes, Zhang Jue should have been killed when the Nine Mainland and the Raksasa Tribe ceased the war!"

"That person is way too cunning and mean."

F*ck!

Darryl was furious when he heard about what had happened. He clenched his fists, gritted his teeth, and roared, "Zhang Jue—him again!"

Zhang Jue had framed Darryl with defiling Chang Er; he had ruined Darryl and the Elysium Gate Sect's reputation in the Nine Mainland and attacked the Carter family members.

All those incidents fueled Darryl's anger.

"Darryl!"

Suddenly, a slender figure with a calm temperament slowly walked out of the room. It was Celine.

Sara had joined Celine after she rescued

Yvette and the others. Then, she had bumped into Ambrose, and that was how she ended up at the secluded place, together with the rest.

Celine diligently looked for a solution to help Yvette and the others who had lost their internal energy. She was reading ancient books in the room and hurried out when she heard Darryl in the courtyard.

Chapter 2911

"Thank you!"

Darryl smiled at Celine and thanked her sincerely.

He knew she had been helping his family and friends during the difficult time.

Celine smiled and said, "There's no need to thank me. I've tried many methods and found many elixirs and pills for them to try, but none of them worked!"

"Darryl, you are very skilled in alchemy, is there any way to restore their internal energy?"

Yvette, Dax, and the others had their eyes on Darryl with great anticipation.

Darryl's skills in alchemy were unmatched in the Nine Mainland. He must have a way to help them.

Darryl smiled bitterly and shook his head. "This is the first time I have encountered such a situation! But don't worry, let me think about it."

Darryl might have looked calm, but he was rather anxious.

'Zhang Jue is too vicious! How did he make the Scattered Energy pill? I have never seen anything like that in the Infinite Elixir Manual.'

Darryl wanted to try producing some antidote, but he quickly dismissed the idea.

Three years ago, Megan had caught the Carter family and gave them the Dark Day Pill. He had been overconfident at that time; he thought that the Dark Day Pill was similar to the Heaven Cult Elixir. As a result, his antidote had caused everyone dizziness and stomach ache.

Chapter 2911

Darryl was wiser from his past experiences; he dared not take the risk.

"Do you have any idea?"

Celine asked after Darryl was quiet for a long time. "Is there a way to help them?"

Darryl took a deep breath and shook his head sourly.

Oh...

Yvette and the rest felt lost.

Even Darryl was helpless at the situation. Did it mean that they would never recover their internal energy for the rest of their life?

The next second, Darryl thought of something. His eyes flashed, and he said, "I don't have a solution, but the Divine Farmer can definitely do it. Three years ago, he returned to Mount Buzhou with Brother Zhu to live in seclusion. But Mount Buzhou stretches for several thousand miles. It's huge, and it'll be difficult to find them!"

Darryl thought of Zhu Bajie when he said that.

Chang Er had chased him in the secret underground passage at New World Palace, and he had run into Zhu Bajie. He even managed to subdue Chang Er with Zhu Bajie's help.

Zhu Bajie had taken Chang Er to Mount Buzhou to seek help from Divine Farmer when he saw her condition. Half a month had passed, and Darryl had no idea how it went.

"Darryl!" Dax looked speechless. "By saying that, your suggestion does not help at all!"

It was useless to know that Divine Farmer might have a solution as it was impossible to find him.

Darryl scratched his head in embarrassment. Suddenly, he thought of something. "Well, there is someone else besides Divine Farmer!"

"Who?"

Everyone around asked in unison.

Darryl smiled. "Holy Saint Sect Master, Lu Dongbin!"

Lu Dongbin was a Daoist Master; he was well-versed in ancient and modern knowledge. Even Yang Jian was fearful of him. Darryl thought that Lu Dongbin must have a way to heal everyone.

However, the downside was Alan had subdued Lu Dongbin when Darryl left the Holy Saint Sect. There was bad blood between Alan and Darryl, so he would never tell him Lu Dongbin's whereabouts.

However, it would be easier to locate Lu

Dongbin than the Divine Farmer.

Darryl had decided to go to the Holy Saint Sect!

His gaze grew firmer when he had a plan set before him.

After he made up his mind, Darryl got Yvette and the others to immediately set off with him toward the North Moana.

Darryl did not know Alan did not have Lu Dongbin under his control. The man was trapped in the Illusion Virtual World within the Universe Caiabash.

Chapter 2912

After a few hours, the group finally arrived at the border of the North Moana Continent.

"Darryl!"

Celine looked in the direction of Mount Buzhou and said softly, "Why don't we search separately? Queenie and I can look for the Divine Farmer in Mount Buzhou while you and the others can head to the Holy Saint Sect. That way, we won't be wasting any time."

Darryl pondered and nodded. "That's a good idea! Be careful."

The King of the Dead's men had been very active in the Nine Mainland. Even though Celine was very powerful, she and Queenie were only a team of two and easily outnumbered. It was always good to stay vigilant.

After they agreed with the plan, Celine and Queenie left for Mount Buzhou.

Meanwhile, at the Endless Sky Organization altar...

Half a month ago, Zhang Jue had held the Supreme Conference at the North Moana Palace in Chang Er's name. However, Jack and his followers had destroyed his event and captured almost everyone from the major sects. There were many Endless Sky Organization elites amongst those prisoners.

After that, Darryl and a mysterious woman appeared and defeated Jack. They saved the captured sect members and the Endless Sky Organization's disciples.

The Endless Sky Organization was a massive sect with many disciples scattered all over the Nine Mainland. They were not quite affected, even after some of their disciples had suffered the mishap. However, there had been no news of Zhang Jue, so the entire Endless Sky Organization was running without a leader.

The altar was crowded; almost all the Altar Masters from all the Branch Altars had gathered there. Two of Zhang Jue's disciples, Vito and Karen, were also there.

There had been no news of Zhang Jue, and the Endless Sky Organization was in a mess. The disciples had gathered to discuss solutions and strategies!

"Attention, please!"

Vito looked around the altar and said, "We don't know where Master is, but the Endless Sky Organization can't go another day without a leader. Let's recommend someone to take up the role as an interim leader!"

Karen, who was next to Vito, nodded. "Yes, after choosing the interim leader, let's send a search party for Master. I think Senior Brother Vito has the capability and strength to be the interim leader!"

Whoa!

The attendees in the hall rose to clamor; many people nodded in agreement.

"I think it's appropriate to have Vito as the interim leader!"

"Yes, he is the Sect Master's disciple, and his strength is convincing."

"Let's choose Vito!"

Vito smiled; he was elated by the responses.

Squeak!

Suddenly, the main hall entrance was pushed ajar from the outside. Alerted by the movement, everyone turned around to check what had happened.

A slim figure slowly walked into the hall.

The woman wore a long black and red panel dress that accentuated her charming curve and exquisite features. She looked aloof; it was Jackie Yale.

'What?'

Vito, Karen, and everyone else were dumbfounded to see her.

Why was she there? Zhang Jue had attacked Jackie about two months ago, and she had been severely wounded. Then, she had left the organization in embarrassment. The entire Endless Sky Organization had known about that. The crowd could sense the unwelcoming breath of aura from Jackie; she appeared stronger than before.

Jackie merely sneered at the crowd's reaction.

She was ready to take back everything she had lost from the Endless Sky Organization.

Jackie and Zhang Ju had founded the Endless Sky Organization together, but after it developed and grew, Zhang Jue fought for absolute leadership with despicable tactics. Jackie had never forgotten how she was mistreated. Half a day ago, she learned that the Endless Sky Organization would hold a secret meeting at the altar, and so she decided to make a surprise appearance.

"Vito!"

Jackie swept her gaze past Vito and jeered, "Do you really think you can be the leader? With your skills?"

Vito was embarrassed by the comment. He wanted to refute, but he decided not to say anything after he sensed Jackie's powerful aura!

Jackie, on the other hand, paid no attention to Vito's expression. She looked around the altar and spoke to the various Altar Masters. "Zhang Jue had done so many bad things, so maybe he's suffering retribution for his actions. That's why all of you can't find him. Plus, I'm most qualified to be the leader."

Whoa!

Chapter 2913

The hall fell silent.

After that, to everyone's dismay, an Altar Master stepped forward and knelt before Jackie; he said, "Pleasure to meet you, Sect Master!"

Zhang Jue and Jackie had co-founded the Endless Sky Organization. It was natural for Jackie to succeed in the leadership role in Zhang Jue's absence. Besides, Jackie was so powerful. Who would dare to go against her?

"Pleasure to meet you, Sect Master!"

Soon, most of the disciples in the hall followed suit. They knelt and pledged their loyalty to Jackie.

F*ck!

Vito and Karen were shocked and angered by the crowd's reaction. They stood motionless and glared at Jackie coldly; they were definitely dissatisfied with the result.

"The two of you are not satisfied with me as the leader?" Jackie frowned and questioned coldly.

"Certainly!"

Vito took a deep breath and took a step forward courageously. "My master kicked you out of the altar; you're no longer part of us. What makes you think that you can be our leader?"

Karen sneered disdainfully. "Jackie, you don't even dare to show yourself when Master is here. Now that he is gone, you're here to contest for the seat as the new leader. You won't succeed, not with Senior Brother and me here today!"

Karen finished her sentence and charged toward Jackie, aiming a palm attack at her!

At the same time, she yelled, "Senior Brother, let's attack her!"

Oh...

Everyone was stunned!

No one saw that coming. They were surprised that Karen would make such a decisive move!

On second thought, Vito and Karen were Zhang Jue's powerful disciples. They might be able to defeat Jackie if they joined forces.

"Coming!" Vito did not hesitate. He charged forth and teamed up with Karen against Jackie.

Buzz...

The two executed their force; the air in the hall distorted.

Vito and Karen did not have the guts to go against Jackie before that. However, they had taken many elixirs to improve their strength; they wanted to try their skills against her. At the same time, they also wanted the opportunity to set their place in the Endless Sky Organization.

"You guys are digging your own grave!"

Jackie furrowed her eyebrows when the duo charged at her. Her gaze turned hostile and unwelcoming in an instant. She bellowed, and her figure leaped into the air to greet her attackers!

Wham!

A dull vibration reverberated from the three palm attacks. The strong force struck Vito and Karen, and they retreated almost at the same time. Their faces were pale.

It was apparent that Jackie had the upper hand in the attack. After all, She was once a famous figure in the Yellow Sea Continent, and her background was not something that Vito and Karen could match.

Vito and Karen were shocked.

Jackie seemed small and frail; they did not expect that she would be so powerful.

Jackie smiled disdainfully as Vito and Karen tried to recover. Then, she darted forward and slapped Vito!

Slap!

Jackie maneuvered all her strength in the palm attack! Vito grunted, and his face paled. The impact threw him more than 20 meters away as he vomited a few mouthfuls of blood.

Jackie was an arrogant woman; she would not spare Vito, who had challenged her so openly.

"Senior Brother!"

Karen yelled and was about to rush forward to help Vito. Without warning, Jackie got in front of her and slapped her too!

Karen trembled and instinctively tried to resist the sudden attack, but Jackie was too fast for her to react!

Wham!

The slap sent Karen flying more than ten meters away. Finally, she landed next to Vito.

Chapter 2914

Gasp!

Everyone gasped in horror!

Jackie was way too powerful; even Vito and Karen's combined forces were nowhere near her match.

Click!

A longsword appeared in Jackie's hands with a crisp sound. Her pretty face seemed displeased as she slowly approached Vito and Karen. "Since the two of you are not happy with me as the leader, there's no need to keep you alive."

Vito and Karen were terrified; their expressions showed it all.

Vito dripped with cold sweat; he was no longer his old arrogant self.

Thud!

The next second, Vito and Karen looked at each other and knelt in unison. They repeatedly begged for mercy. "Forgive us, Sect Master. We will be your loyal followers from today onward..."

Vito felt so devastated to say that.

He thought Jackie was beneath his master, so he and Karen could deal with her easily. He did not expect her to be so powerful.

Jackie maintained a straight face when the two begged for her mercy.

A few seconds later, Jackie sighed and said coldly, "If that's the case, then I shall let you two live. But bear in mind that I'll crush you if you dare to disrespect me in the future!"

Jackie had wanted to kill them for opposing her so openly in front of so many Endless Sky Organization's disciples; she could take that opportunity to establish and strengthen her position. However, a bloodbath was the last thing she wanted to do when she had only just regained control of the Endless Sky Organization.

More importantly, those two were Zhang Jue's fondest disciples; they might be useful in the future.

Phew...

Vito sighed in relief; he wiped the cold sweat off his forehead and thanked Jackie repeatedly. "Thank you, Sect Master. Thank you, Sect Master!"

Karen, who was next to Vito, was equally grateful.

Then, they stood up cautiously and held their breath nervously.

The hall was quiet, but the atmosphere was gloomy and depressing.

"Sect Master."

An elite disciple walked into the hall and spoke respectfully to Jackie, "I've got the news that Darryl took the Carter family and went to North Moana Continent. It seemed like he wanted to ask for some elixir—"

The Endless Sky Organization's disciples were scattered all over the continents, and they were familiar with the affairs in the cultivators' world.

Darryl!

Jackie's beautiful face seemed conflicted and resentful when Darryl's name was mentioned.

There was one occasion where Zhang Jue drugged her. Darryl had taken her away at the critical moment, but he had sullied her instead.

Jackie had always been proud of her chastity, more so than her life, despite the fact that it had not been planned or staged. That incident planted a seed of hatred in her heart. She had always wanted to kill Darryl to avenge herself.

"I got it!"

Finally, Jackie's red lips parted, and she waved her hand gently. "All of you may go now!"

Jackie's face was calm when she gave the command, but her eyes revealed her anger.

She wanted to bring the Endless Sky Organization's elites to intercept Darryl and kill him, but she decided not to do it. Otherwise, many people would know that she had lost her virginity to Darryl.

"Yes, Sect Master!"

Everyone responded to the order, and they slowly left the hall!

As everyone left, Jackie started to write a letter. Then, she ordered her men to send it to the Sun Set Sect.

Jackie wanted to ask for help from the Sun Set Sect's Sect Master.

Jackie had a plan. She knew she was no match to Darryl by herself. However, her success was pretty much guaranteed if she were to join forces with her sister.

On the other side, Darryl, Yvette, and the others went through an arduous ten-hour journey before arriving near the Holy Saint Sect!

Chapter 2915

Darryl glanced emotionally into the distance at the cluster of buildings that loomed amidst the clouds and mist on the mountain's crest. It was like a fairyland.

Darryl was thinking about Diana.

When he used the Wonder Travel Amulet to flee the Holy Saint Sect, he and his master, Diana, were teleported to different locations. Nearly half a month had passed since then, but Darryl had no idea what had happened to her.

Alan became the Sect Master and gained control of the Holy Saint Sect, so Darryl would not be able to get Lu Dongbin's news from Alan. He would not get anything if he were to head straight there.

Darryl thought about it and turned around to look at Yvette and the others. "Take a rest here; I'll see if I can get any news!"

Yvette and Dax did not have any internal energy. It would be troublesome if Darryl brought them to the Holy Saint Sect, and they got into a conflict with Alan. It was better if Darryl went by himself.

Yvette, Dax, and the others nodded.

Yvette reminded Darryl softly. "Be careful!"

Darryl mumbled a response and then took a deep breath. He decided to sneak into the Holy Saint Sect Altar, taking advantage of the darkness around him.

What?

When he approached the foot of the Holy Saint Sect Mountain, Darryl suddenly stopped in his tracks. He felt as if something was wrong.

"Die, Darryl!"

Two figures rushed out of the woods with a longsword each; they aimed the weapons at Darryl! It was obvious that they had been waiting to ambush him for a long time.

'Damn it! Alan knew that I'm coming, and he sent someone to ambush me in advance?'

Darryl was taken aback; he quickly dodged the attack. He was stunned when he saw his attackers!

There were two women in front of Darryl; one looked cold and arrogant, and the other seemed charming.

It was Jackie and the Sun Set Sect's Sect Master.

"Sect Master!"

Finally, Darryl reacted and looked at the Sun Set Sect's Sect Master with a smile. "It has been more than three years since we bid each other farewell at the Yellow Sea Continent. Time really flies; I did not expect that you would become more charming."

Darryl looked relaxed as he made conversation with them.

The Sect Master's face flushed when she heard the compliment; she was embarrassed.

"Darryl, you b*stard! I admired you, but I didn't expect that you would sully my sister! I must kill you today!"

Jackie, who was next to her sister, narrowed her eyes resentfully. "Sister, there's no need to talk nonsense with him!"

She was rather excited. She thought that it would be too late to intercept Darryl when she reached out to her sister for her. She was surprised to bump into Darryl there and then.

Things were working out so well that it seemed like even the gods wanted Jackie to kill Darryl that day to resolve the hatred she had for him.

'So, that's why they're here!'

Darryl sighed. He was helpless when he felt the burning resentment in Jackie's eyes.

'F*ck! The intimate relationship had been completely incidental. Zhang Jue had drugged her, and she was out of her mind. I wasn't even actively involved in it. It's so unreasonable that she believes I ruined her!'

Darryl thought about it and sighed sourly. He said, "Jackie, I will give you an explanation about what happened between the two of us, but I have more important things to do right now. I hope you can let me go for now. Is that okay?"

Yvette and Dax were still waiting for Darryl to bring news from the Holy Saint Sect.

"Stop trying to talk your way out of this!"

Jackie's face was frosty; she was not up for nonsense. Then, her hand gripped the longsword tightly as she aimed it at Darryl.

Jackie attacked with full force! The air distorted wherever the longsword passed!

At the same time, Jackie's sister bellowed and slapped Darryl with a palm attack!

Darryl chuckled and stood rooted in place; he was as steady as Mount Tai!

"What?"

Darryl sighed when the two sisters attacked him simultaneously. He immediately dodged from the Sect Master's longsword and went to her side.
