Chapter 1115

“Well! Then you call Uncle Eric first!” After hanging up the video, Avery called Eric.

After the call was connected, Avery thought about it and said, “Eric, Layla told me just now that Elliot said bad things about you... Although I don’t know what he said, I can probably tell you. You must not know him in the same way. He loves Layla too much, so he is cranky. I think that except him, all men in the world have bad intentions for Layla.”

Eric: “I have a bad relationship with him. No matter what he says, it won’t affect my relationship with you and Layla.”

Avery: “Well, did you have a good time diving today?”

Eric: “Very fun. I’ll send you the photo later.”

Avery: “Okay.”

The bathroom door was suddenly pushed open, and Elliot came out.

Avery didn’t expect him to take a shower so quickly today.

“Avery, didn’t you say you were hungry? Let’s go eat!” Elliot guessed who she was talking to on the phone, so he deliberately walked over to her and asked the person over the phone to hang up.

When Eric heard his voice, he felt that he was deliberately disgusting himself, so he didn’t care to say goodbye to Avery, and hung up the phone.

“Elliot, I always thought you had a high EQ. How could you speak ill of him in front of Eric?” Avery asked.

“I didn’t know he was there.” Elliot grabbed her hand and took her to the dining room.

“No matter how I dissatisfied him, I wouldn’t embarrass him in person.”

“Then you will be more careful next time.”

“Well.”

The dining room, The seafood dinner has been served. In addition to the delicacies, there are also a bouquet of red roses and two red candles.

The nanny turned off the lights in the dining room after they entered the dining room.

Suddenly, the entire dining room was in a trance.

Avery almost forgot that they had booked a honeymoon suite. Is this a candlelight dinner?

She sat down with a smile and asked him, "How do you feel?"

Elliot said sullenly, "It feels a little dark."

Avery: "It's called atmosphere. You, a straight man of steel, don't understand romance at all."

"Add a few more candles, aren't you afraid that you will get panicked? I don't think it's too dark. Are you afraid of eating into your nose?" As the two chatted, Elliot gradually got used to the red light of the candles.

"Go surfing tomorrow?"

"You are full of injuries, do you want to surf? Are you kidding me?" Avery teased, "You can't play in the water until your injury is healed. By the way, how did you take a shower just now?"

Elliot looked up to see her nervous, and his heart became nervous: "Shower."

"Do you want the wound to become inflamed? Your wound can't touch water, how can you wash it with a shower?!" Avery put down her chopsticks and stared at him seriously.

Elliot peeled a prawn for her and coaxed her: "I forgot that I was injured."

Avery sighed helplessly, got up from the chair, took him back to the room, and gave him medicine.

"You really don't make people worry. If I knew earlier, I would have waited until you were healed." Avery pulled his nightgown to her waist, looked at the bruises on his back, and took out the medicine she bought today.

Her phone on the bedside table suddenly lit up, and a text message came in.

Chapter 1116

Avery turned off the vibration function in the afternoon.

Elliot had his back to her, so he didn't see her pick up the phone.

Wesley sent her a message saying that she was leaving the Rishawaka tomorrow.

Avery replied immediately: [Let's meet before you leave tomorrow! You set the time and place, I will find a way to meet you.]

"Avery, can't I really play in the water? Then what are we going to play tomorrow? We can't play in the water at the beach, there seems to be nothing left to play." Elliot sat on the bed and said angrily.

"We can walk around and see, as long as I'm with you, I'll be happy."

"Well."

"Let's see what to do tomorrow." Avery felt that Wesley would probably not refuse her request, so tomorrow She had to find a way to free Elliot to meet Wesley.

And Elliot is a more suspicious person, and it is more difficult to reasonably let him go.

Unless he takes a nap.

"Are you sure you can use the medicine you bought here?" Elliot saw her coming with the medicine she bought today, "Why don't you use the medicine you brought? I think the medicine you gave me before is pretty good. I don't feel that much pain anymore. "

I want to see how the medicine here works." Avery opened the medicine, and the smell of medicine spread out.

"You really took me for a guinea pig." Elliot frowned, "Don't you think this medicine smells pungent?"

"This is medicine, not perfume. The clerk said that this medicine works very well. Isn't it at the scene?" Avery wanted to see if the effect was really that good.

Elliot endured the pungent smell of medicine and replied, "a salesman sells melons and brags about it. Have you ever seen a salesman say that what he sells is not good? Avery, you are a serious adult anyway, why are you so naive?"

This chapter is provided by . Visit for daily update.

“Hmph, I’m innocent, at least I won’t get hurt. Unlike you, who knows astronomy and geography, and understands human nature, but ends up with injuries all over the body. This medicine is probably a little irritating, you have to bear it.” Avery reminded.

When finished, she applied the medicine to his wound.

After a few seconds, he took a sharp breath: “What’s wrong with this medicine?!”

“Is it cool?”

“No! It’s burning like fire!”

“Oh, bear with it. Good medicine is bitter and good for the disease, As long as it works well. It’s a good medicine.” Avery spread the medicine all over his body, and then fanned his body with his palm to make the medicine absorb faster.

“Am I really your husband?” Elliot endured the pungent smell and the irritating medicinal effects, feeling that today’s dinner might not taste good.

“Of course you are my husband. I hope you get better soon. Maybe you can go surfing before we leave here.” After a while, Avery put away the medicine and put on her nightgown, “Let’s go, we Let’s go eat.”

The two came to the dining room and sat down in the dining chairs again.

“Did you make videocall to Layla when I was taking a shower?”

“Hmm.”

“Is she mad at me?” Elliot asked as his eyes down, “I wanted to show her our side. Eric, I didn’t see it.”

“Layla is not so angry. As long as Eric is not angry, Layla will not blame you. When we go back, just buy her a gift. “

After we’ve been here for a few days, are we going to see Hayden in Bridgedale? Will he not see me?” Elliot asked.

Avery was stunned for a moment, “Let’s talk in a few days! Mike said, Hayden has adapted to the new environment, and I am not so worried about him now.”

Apart from the honeymoon, Avery was most worried about Shea.

After dinner, they held hands and went for a walk outside.

The temperature at night was much lower than that during the day.

The sea breeze whistled past her ears, and Elliot wrapped her arms around her waist and asked, "Is it cold?"

Avery raised her head, smiled and shook her head: "Have you noticed that there are few vehicles on the road here?"

"This way The economy is not good."

"But everyone seems to be having a good time. I see a lot of people with smiles on their faces."

"Because of the environment they live in, everyone lives a similar life. There is no comparison, and naturally there is less trouble."

"Elliot, you said why everyone understands the big truth, but everyone is easily trapped by trivial matters."

Chapter 1117

"Because we are all mortals." Elliot made a metaphor, "I know you have always had me in your heart, and only me, but when I see you with other men, I can't help but be jealous. "

Such a heavy topic can be said so interestingly by you. You are really capable." She praised and thought carefully, "Let's play outside for a while! The night scene here is very beautiful."

"Are not you tired today?"

Avery was stunned for a moment, and then responded accordingly: "Then let's go to the beach tomorrow morning to watch the sunrise! It must be beautiful!"

Elliot: "Are you sure you want to get up early to watch the sunrise?"

Avery nodded and said firmly: "I've never seen the sunrise. Let's watch it together tomorrow morning!"

He wasn't interested in the sunrise, but seeing that she wanted to see it so much, he agreed.

After wandering outside for a while, they returned to their hotel room.

Because they have to get up early tomorrow morning, Elliot suggested going to bed earlier.

Avery was so sleepy that she wanted to sleep for a long time. But she made an appointment with Wesley to meet at noon tomorrow, and she had to let Elliot fall asleep at noon tomorrow.

So she can only work hard tonight, pull him to stay up late, so that he can be sure that he can fall asleep at noon tomorrow.

At night, after turning off the lights, Avery tossed in bed.

"Husband, I can't sleep." Avery resisted her drowsiness, hugged his arm, and acted like a spoiled child, "Will you tell me a story?"

Elliot: "...". His mind went blank. Telling stories, he really can't.

"Why can't you sleep?" Elliot wondered.

This chapter is provided by . Visit for daily update.

The two of them played at the beach for a long time this afternoon, and they were very tired.

If she doesn't pull him to talk now, he should be able to fall asleep soon.

"I took a nap at noon, so I'm not sleepy now."

"Would you like to play with your phone? I can't tell stories." Elliot suggested.

Avery said, "Sing to me, I know you sing well."

Elliot felt a little uncomfortable.

The two of them had been together for so long, she slept at night, and never pulled him to tell a story or let him sing.

She would only let him stay up late and rest earlier.

Elliot is like her, but the style of painting suddenly changed tonight. Naturally, he wants to satisfy her.

At 12 o'clock, Avery couldn't stand it anymore, so she let him go. The two quickly fell asleep.

At 5 o'clock the next morning, Elliot's alarm clock rang.

After he was woken up by the alarm clock, he immediately turned off the alarm clock, and then patted Avery, who was sleeping soundly.

"Avery, didn't you say you want to watch the sunrise? Do you still watch it?"

Avery was motionless.

Elliot lay down: "Then don't watch it, just go to sleep."

After a minute, Avery was in a nightmare wake up.

After waking up, she glanced at the time and immediately pulled Elliot up.

Elliot: "..."

He dared to say that the woman who pulled him to stay up late last night to sing, and the woman who forcibly pulled him out of bed now is definitely not the Avery he knew.

His wife Avery will never let him sleep well. But when he looked at her face, it was clearly true.

Chapter 1118

At half past five in the morning, the two came out of the hotel and went straight to the beach. At this point, there was no one on the beach.

Avery pulled him to sit down on the beach, and then wrapped the blanket he brought.

Her head, resting on his shoulder, looked directly in the direction of the coastline.

"Do you feel that it's very beautiful and romantic now. It's like a plot in a movie."

Elliot lacked sleep and his eyes were scarlet. When answering her question, he felt that his soul was outside his body.

“Aren’t you really sleepy? Ann, tell me the truth.”

“Of course I’m... a little sleepy. But it’s all worth it to watch the sunrise. We can watch the sunrise and then Go back to sleep.” Avery was afraid that he would fall asleep, so she reached out and squeezed his shoulder.

As a result, only after Avery pinched it, she realized that he had an injury on his shoulder.

Elliot gasped in pain.

“Sorry, Elliot! I didn’t mean to!” Avery didn’t sleep well, her mind was in chaos.

“It’s okay, it’s not very painful, just a little sore.” Elliot quickly adjusted his mood and felt the injury on his body again, “The effect of the medicine seems to be good.”

“Really? Then I’ll squeeze more?” Another squeeze on the shoulder.

“It’s good. I’ll wipe it for you at night.” Avery rested her head on his shoulder again, “I’ll squint for a while. Call me when the sun comes out.”

Elliot looked down at her. She had closed her eyes and felt like she could fall asleep in the next second.

This chapter is provided by . Visit for daily update.

Since She was so tired, why do I have to come out to watch the sunrise? What’s so beautiful about the sunrise?

Elliot sighed lightly.

At six in the morning, the sun rises from the coastline.

Elliot patted Avery’s little face: “Avery, the sun is out.”

Avery fell into a drowsy sleep. After reaching out and rubbing her eyes, she glanced at the sunrise.

“Elliot, isn’t this the stupidest thing you’ve ever done in your life?” Avery regained her sleep for a while, feeling better, “I know you must think this is meaningless...”

"If I watch it alone, it must be meaningless. Watching it with you is somewhat meaningful." Elliot looked at the sunrise and said what was in his heart, "You are my wife now, and the meaning of my existence is to make money to support my family and make you happy."

Avery was instantly ashamed and guilty.

From last night to this morning, Avery dragged him and only let him sleep for five hours.

5 hours of sleep is not enough for an adult.

"Let's go back!"

"Didn't you watch the sunrise? The sun hasn't fully risen yet. The moment when it rises is the most beautiful." Elliot took out his mobile phone and planned to record this moment.

Avery also took out her mobile phone. But instead of photographing the sunrise, she photographed him.

"Husband, thank you for watching the sunrise with me." Avery said, "When you get back to the hotel, sleep well, I won't disturb you again."

"Well. Why didn't you let me sleep last night?" Elliot looked at her and said, "You are a doctor, I am a patient now, you have no reason not to let me rest well. You are a bit abnormal."

Facing Elliot doubts, Avery cheeks burned: "You keep saying that your injury is not serious, so I didn't take you as a patient. I might have been a little bit of bed recognition last night. I promise I won't disturb you tonight."

Elliot was a little dizzy, so he didn't doubt her explanation.

After watching the sunrise, the two returned to the hotel for breakfast.

After breakfast, it was only 7 a.m.

She looked at him and said, "Elliot, Go to sleep after drinking the milk. Your dark circles are a little heavy."

Chapter 1119

Elliot did plan to rest, but listening to her words, she didn't seem to plan to rest with him.

"What about you?"

"I'll go outside to see if there are any waterproof wound patches. If there are, I can go surfing tomorrow." Avery gave a good reason.

Elliot considered it for a few seconds, then nodded: "I'll ask the bodyguard to accompany you."

Avery couldn't refuse. She was unfamiliar with life here, and there was no reason why she wanted to go out alone.

After Elliot went back to the room to lie down, she went into the bathroom, sent a message to Wesley, and asked him to meet at the pharmacy.

After a while, she went out with her bag.

The bodyguard stayed by her side, never leaving.

"Madam, you're in good spirits." The bodyguard teased.

Avery: "If you are tired, then go back to rest."

The bodyguard sarcastically said, "I'm not tired, I just don't understand why you torture my boss. What's so good about the sunrise? If you really want to watch the sun Come out, I'll take a picture for you! Why do you have to drag my boss to get up early and suffer?"

"This is the romance between the husband and wife. Are you single?"

"Sorry, my child is about to enter junior high school. The bodyguard continued to mock her, "My wife is gentle and virtuous. She will do whatever I ask her to do, and never make excessive demands on me. If she dares to let me watch the sunrise with her, I will make her cry."

Avery said, "So I married Elliot, not you. Because he will do whatever I ask him to do, and he never blames me. Even if I make Elliot cry, It has nothing to do with you either!"

Bodyguard was speechless.

This chapter is provided by . Visit for daily update.

When Avery came to the pharmacy, she asked the bodyguard to wait at the door.

The bodyguard stood obediently at the door and did not go in.

After talking with the clerk for a few words, Avery walked to the bathroom.

After entering the bathroom, she saw Wesley who had not been seen for a long time.

Wesley was much thinner, as if he had taken off his face.

The moment she saw him, her eyes turned red.

Wesley whispered, "Avery, for the sake of safety, let's keep it short! I didn't mean to make you sad when I told you about Shea's death. Her heartbeat did stop before, but she miraculously recovered after a while. Vital signs."

Avery held back tears and listened to him.

"Although her heartbeat has recovered, various organs of her body have started to have problems one after another."

"Can I help?" Avery interrupted him.

Wesley shook his head: "It's not your area of expertise. If you can help me, I will naturally find you. I want to restore Shea to health more than anyone else."

"What is Shea's situation now? Where is she? The money that came to give her treatment?"

Wesley said, "I used to have some savings. Now, while making money from seeing a doctor, I find a suitable kidney source for Shea. I came here because I took a job. The salary is very high."

"Kidney? What happened to Shea's kidney?" Avery was nervous, and a layer of cold sweat broke out on his back.

Wesley exhaled heavily, "She has kidney failure. Need a kidney transplant. I've been looking for a kidney source for a long time. I don't know how long her body will last."

Avery muttered 'kidney failure' After several times, I searched for relevant knowledge reserves in my mind.

Suddenly, her eyes lifted: "I remember this disease, it seems that the kidney source match between relatives will be higher?"

"Yes. I originally wanted to go to Elliot, but Shea refused. She spends more time in a coma and less time to wake up. But every time she wakes up, she tells me not to tell you about her illness."

Avery couldn't help crying: "Elliot is not her brother, it's useless to find Elliot. Her brother's name is Adrian... I can find Adrian."

Chapter 1120

"What's the situation with this person named Adrian?" Wesley asked curiously.

"He's in the same situation as Shea. After I performed an operation on him, he recovered well." Avery felt hopeful, "If I tell him about Shea, he will definitely be willing to help Shea."

She would not doubt Adrian's kindness, but she doubted that Henry would not let her see Adrian.

Henry and Elliot have completely torn their skins, so this matter obviously doesn't look difficult, but it's actually very difficult. But no matter how difficult it is, she has to work hard for it.

"Wesley, I will definitely help Shea find the kidney source. When you go back, stay with Shea and don't come out to work again." Avery said, took out a bank card from his bag and handed it to him, "It's not your fault that Shea has become like this. So you must not reject me."

Wesley accepted her card and raised concerns: "Adrian is with Henry now, right? You go. Is it convenient to find Adrian?"

"Henry just asks for money. As long as you give him money, he will definitely not embarrass me." Avery wrote lightly, "As long as Shea is still alive, there must be a way."

After Wesley finished talking, Avery came out of the bathroom, and the bodyguard walked up to her in a single step.

"Why did you go in for so long? If you don't come out in another ten minutes, I will rush in to find you!"

Avery glanced at the time: "Do you have to do this? I only go in for 20 minutes. What can happen?"

The bodyguard said and looked at her, "I've never seen anyone take so long to go to the toilet! If you're at home, you can go for as long as you like, but now outside, shouldn't I be a little more vigilant! If you make a mistake, the boss will let me bury you with me! Why did you go to the toilet and cry yourself?"

Avery thought that she might be too good to talk.

When Elliot's bodyguard was by Elliot's side, he never talked too much.

As a result, in front of her, the chatter was endless.

"I just read a piece of news. A middle-aged man your age had a fire in his house. He put his wife out of the window, pulled her by the hand, and he was seriously injured by the fire." Here, she looked sharply at the bodyguard, "You have to worry about watching the sunrise with your wife."

This chapter is provided by . Visit for daily update.

The bodyguard's cheeks were flushed by her sarcasm, and he didn't say a word for a long time.

After Avery bought a medical waterproof bandage, she came out of the pharmacy and returned to the hotel.

Elliot was already asleep. Avery lay down beside him, looking at his sleeping face. Her mind was full of thoughts.

Still Avery can't tell him about it. If Shea hadn't been so seriously ill, she would have told him the good news as soon as possible.

But Shea is like this now, and letting him know will only make him more sad. She could imagine that in order to cure Shea, he would definitely go to Henry. And Henry will definitely threaten him because of this.

He is a man of arrogance and stubbornness. He would rather burn with his opponent jade than be threatened.

Avery didn't want to see Elliot suffer any more grievances for Shea.

After taking a deep breath, Avery turned her back. She was very sleepy, but she couldn't sleep. As soon as she closed her eyes, she remembered the pain Shea was suffering from now.

She should go back to Aryadelle immediately and go to Henry to negotiate. But if she asked to return to Aryadelle immediately, Elliot would definitely be suspicious.

In the afternoon.

When Elliot woke up, she brought the medical bandage and wrapped it on his wound.

Avery discussed with him, "Elliot, let's go back to Aryadelle after playing one more day tomorrow! There's nothing fun here. Why don't we play in Aryadelle!"

Elliot was startled: "Return to Aryadelle the day after tomorrow?"

"Yeah! I miss Layla and Robert very much. I had a dream just now that Robert was crying and calling her mother. It was very pitiful."

Elliot looked at her red eyes and agreed to her request.
