Chapter 1146

Avery was stunned. She did not expect that the father and son would insist on making such a choice.

Where did their courage come from?

“Why didn’t they listen to the persuasion? Why!” Avery’s eyes were red and her fists clenched. She growled lowly.

“Avery, I’m fed up with being fussy. Since I started my business, I have been compared to Elliot. Everyone thinks that I don’t have the courage and ability of Elliot. I admit that I am indeed not as strong as him. So this time, I’m going to take risks and show my courage.”

“It’s ridiculous.” Avery laughed angrily, “You can’t show courage when you should be courageous, and when you shouldn’t be stupid, you have to show your so-called courage.”

“Shut up.” Cole was ridiculed and said angrily, “Avery, I’ve made it very clear. My dad and I have both thought about it. Shea was seriously ill to save your son, Robert. That is your duty. You go to Elliot and no matter what reason you use. Let him give us one-third of his shares. Otherwise, you will never find Adrian.”

Avery knew that there was no room for change, so she was angry and hung up the phone.

How to talk to Elliot?

Avery can’t speak at all. She had never asked Elliot for money, let alone asked him to give up part of his equity.

Although Elliot had always been generous to her in terms of economics, and had said several times that everything he owned was hers, but if Avery really wanted to ask him for money, and Elliot wanted equity, then Avery didn’t dare.

Avery knew him very well, and if she asked him for money for her own enjoyment, Elliot would definitely give money. But if Avery ask him for money, whether to transfer it to someone else or to someone he hates most, he will definitely not give it.

The first primary school in Avonsville.

Elliot and Layla arrived at the school in time. Elliot was invited into the classroom by the teacher, and Layla was taken to the group activity by another teacher.

After Elliot found Layla's seat in the classroom, he sat down.

When other parents saw Elliot, they looked at him one after another.

Elliot is a well-known richest person in Aryadelle, and everyone is more familiar with his name and appearance.

After Elliot started his business, he never sat on the stage at any meeting. He wasn't used to it, but besides that, everyone looked at him like a monkey in a zoo, making him fidgety.

If Elliot knew it earlier, he brought Avery with him. He took out his mobile phone and sent a message to Avery: [Everyone is looking at me, am I too pale?]

Avery endured the pain and pretended to return to him as if nothing had happened: [whoever looked at you, look back. Take out the momentum of your Sterling Group president.]

Elliot always listened to her, so he put down his phone and looked around. Sure enough, after he met everyone's gaze, everyone was embarrassed to stare at him.

He sent a message to Avery: [I feel that my face is too white. Turned my phone screen white.]

Avery: [A successful man, don't stare at his face all the time.]

Elliot: [...]

But Elliot has nothing to do now.

Sitting in front of his daughter's small desk, it seems like he is back in school days.

What's worse, the teacher just told him that he wanted him to speak on the stage as the parent's representative before the parent-teacher meeting ended.

The teacher said that he sent a message to Avery last night about this.

What's outrageous is that Avery didn't tell him.

Chapter 1147

Elliot continued to send a message to Avery: [Teacher Rayner said he sent you a message last night and asked me to speak on stage today, why didn't you tell me last night? I have not prepared at all, what will I say when I come on stage later?]

Avery: [Didn't we quarrel last night, so we went to bed early. I also only saw the news of Teacher Rayner this morning.]

Elliot: [What shall I say on stage later?]

Avery: [Say whatever you want! Think of what to say.]

Elliot: [My mind is blank.]

Elliot has never held parent-teacher conferences and has no experience. If it is a meeting in the company, let him say something casually, this will not happen.

Avery: [Just thank the teachers in the class and say that the teachers have worked hard. By the way, I would like to call on the parents to make concerted efforts to assist the teachers and manage their children well...]

Elliot: [You don't think these words, is it hard to tell? I hate this kind of speech that seems to say a lot of words but every word has no meaning.]

Avery: [Then think for yourself. You hurry up and start drafting now.]

Elliot: [...]

After all parents arrive, the parent meeting will begin.

Elliot found a pencil and a notebook from Layla's schoolbag and started drafting.

The teacher saw Elliot's behavior very clearly on the stage. He doesn't know what Ell was writing at his desk.

A successful person like Elliot with his own aura is serious and charming.

The teacher commented on the students one by one. When it came to Layla, Ell finally raised his head and began to listen to the teacher.

“Layla is a beautiful and sensible little girl. It can be seen that her usual home education is very good. She not only studies well, but also has a good relationship with her classmates. She is very helpful...”

When the teacher said this, a parent raised his hand.

“Teacher Rayner, I don’t think Layla is as good as you said. I told you that she beat my son last time, but my son said that Layla has not apologized to him until now. Her temper is so fierce, Her family must be something wrong with education.”

When Elliot heard this, he frowned. He hadn’t heard of Layla’s habit of hitting people at school.

Seeing that Elliot’s face changed, Teacher Rayner immediately explained: “That’s right, Layla didn’t hit someone for no reason. It was Cohen who first pulled Nina’s braid and made Nina cry, that’s why Layla started beating Cohen. Cohen has already apologized to Nina, but Layla felt that it was right for her to help her good friend, so she didn’t apologize to Cohen.”

After hearing what the teacher said, Elliot said solemnly, “My daughter is right. Parents of boys with girls’ braids should reflect on how to educate their children well. So as not to grow up and go astray.”

Cohen’s mother: “???”

Her son grabbed the pigtails of the female classmates, how could she curse her son for going astray?

“Mr. Foster, boys are a bit naughty, I don’t think it’s harmless to fight with each other...” Cohen’s mother said dissatisfiedly.

Elliot said unceremoniously, “You don’t have quality. Why should you let other boys take the blame with your son? My son won’t pull girls’ pigtails. Do you think it’s harmless for your son to slap and mess around, but my daughter does. What’s the problem?”

“No wonder your daughter is so fierce.” Cohen’s mother couldn’t quarrel, but she could only get angry.

“Let your son be careful in the future, or he will be beaten by my daughter again.”

“Hehehe...your family is rich. Why don't you go to a noble school? Squeeze with us ordinary people to go to school. Do you seem to have a sense of superiority?”

“Anyone will feel superior in front of a shrew like you.” After Elliot finished speaking, Cohen's mother ran out crying.

Avery's jaw almost dropped after hearing about this!

Chapter 1148

Avery rushed to the school immediately.

In the classroom, the parents' meeting continued to open, and Cohen's mother, accompanied by a teacher who was standing outside the classroom.

“Mrs. Tate, you're finally here.” Cohen's mother looked aggrieved, “Your husband is too fierce in front of so many people. He doesn't give me any face at all.”

Avery: “My husband is indeed a little fierce . But Teacher Rayner sent me a message to explain the situation, I think you need to calm down. We have talked before about my daughter hitting your son. I thought you let it go, but I didn't expect you to bring it up again.”

But your daughter did not apologize to my son. My son has apologized to Nina.” Cohen's mother was not convinced.

Avery reasoned with her, “Your son should have apologized to Nina. If your son doesn’t pull Nina’s braid, my daughter won’t beat him. If my daughter make a mistake, she will be punished. And your son is the one who made the mistake not my daughter. Of course my daughter doesn’t need to apologize to your son. I taught her this.”

“Right or wrong, I believe all parents have a decision. If you continue to make trouble, Aren’t you afraid that your son’s classmates won’t play with your son?” Avery suggested.

Cohen’s mother: “Are you threatening me? Do you want to join other parents to exclude my son? I want to transfer my son to another school.”

“It’s good. The little girls don’t have to worry about being pulled by your son after all. ” Avery smiled.

Cohen’s mother left angrily and planned to find the school leadership theory.

In the classroom, Elliot waved to Avery.

The parent meeting has come to an end, and soon, it will be the parent representative’s turn to speak on the stage.

Elliot decided to let Avery come to stage. Avery entered the classroom, and Teacher Rayner smiled at her: “Next, we will invite Layla’s parents to speak on the stage.”

Everyone immediately applauded. Elliot smiled gently and applauded with everyone.

After Avery came to stage, she said: “Hello everyone, I’m Avery, Layla’s mother and I’m very happy to participate in this parent meeting. Today is the first time Layla’s father has participated in his child’s parents’ meeting and he is very much looking forward to sharing his experience with you.”

Avery finished speaking, took the lead in applauding, and welcomed Elliot to the stage.

Elliot: "..."

In the warm applause of everyone, he bravely walked up to the stage.

After he came to stage, Avery stepped down immediately.

"Hello everyone, I'm Layla's father, Elliot. I'm very happy to be here today for my child's parent-teacher meeting." Speaking of which, his mind went blank. After a few seconds of silence, before Avery appeared in his mind Teach him the formula, "First of all, I have to say to the teachers, you have worked hard."

Avery: "..."

The lines were very familiar.

"At the same time, parents should help teachers and manage their children well. I hope that things like pulling girls' pigtails will not happen again in the class in the future. Otherwise, my daughter will not be merciful. My daughter will beat up whoever kid's mischief at that time, don't come to us to complain."

Avery applauded again, indicating with his eyes that Ell could come down.

Ell understood and immediately stepped off the podium.

After the parent-teacher meeting, the two came out of the school.

Avery laughed out loud, "Elliot, it's the first time I saw you so nervous. You weren't nervous when you said your vows in public at the wedding."

"I'm afraid I'll embarrass my daughter."

“Layla likes you very much, Even if you’re really ashamed, she’ll stand up for you.” Avery said, changing the subject, “Let’s go out to lunch!”

“Okay. What to eat?”

“Eat hot pot. I haven’t eaten hot pot in a long time. I want something spicy.”

“Are you sure?” Elliot is very picky about food, especially not spicy, “Don’t you like spicy food?”

Chapter 1149

“I didn’t eat spicy food until I was with you. Because you don’t eat spicy food, I changed my taste.” Avery complained, “When I’m not with you, I can eat spicy food especially.”

“Okay, let’s go eat mandarin duck pot.” Elliot was very moved, so he decided to accompany her to eat.

Cole has been swiping his mobile phone all morning, hoping that Avery can contact him again. He thought that Avery was a woman who valued love and justice, and he thought that Shea’s illness would definitely allow Avery to compromise.

As a result, after Avery hung up the phone in the morning, she never contacted him again.

Cole gritted his teeth and said, “I’m wrong. Isn’t she planning to save my aunt? What a ruthless woman.”

Henry was making tea, feeling restless in his heart. He was a little shaken last night. After taking over the Tate Industries and selling it for money, he could sell a lot, and he also avoided a head-on conflict with Elliot.

After their father and son took the money, they could leave Aryadelle and spend the rest of their lives in other countries in peace.

But last night, Cole didn't agree with Henry's idea, and he was willing to give up until he took Elliot's shares.

Henry couldn't resist, so he could only follow him.

As a result, it ended up in a situation where nothing could be gained.

"Avery can marry Elliot, which shows that Avery is not a good person at all. Elliot puts interests above everything else, and Avery is bound to be like him." Henry realised, "Avery is willing to take the Tate Industries. Come out and make chips for us, this should be the trump card she can come up with. Don't think Elliot's shares."

Cole gritted his teeth.

Henry drank a cup of tea, his heart was cold and said, "They would rather sacrifice Shea than exchange shares for Adrian's kidney. You should think about how to make a living next. I want to support your uncle."

"Dad, I'm really not reconciled. If we miss this opportunity, we won't be able to turn over again." Cole put down his phone and said solemnly.

Henry glared at his son then said, "Isn't it that you don't want Avery's company? I inquired about it. If Avery's company is resold, it can sell at least $3 billion. I was told by someone else that you rejected Avery this morning. If I knew I could sell for so much money, I shouldn't have let you fool around."

“You can also ask her for it again now.” Cole blushed.

“Go to her and ask for it.”

“I’m not going. Dad you go. I can’t afford that shame.” Cole refused.

“You bum! You can’t afford to lose that face. Can I afford to lose that face?”

“Then don’t!” Cole clenched his fists, “Actually, we can be more ruthless. Anyway, I only support you, I can’t support my uncle! So...”

Henry’s eyes widened: “What do you want to do?”

At restaurant.

Avery’s cheeks were flushed after eating hotpot for a while, and after a while, her eyes were also red.

Elliot poured her water and asked, “Is it spicy?”

Avery reached out and fanned her face: “I used to be good at eating spicy food, but now I can’t.”

“Then don’t eat it.” Elliot handed the water to her and removed the dishes in front of her at the same time.

Avery took the water, took a sip, and the tears fell down with a ‘swish’.

Elliot was startled.

“It’s so hot, it actually made me cry.” Avery put down the water glass and laughed and unable to control her tears, “Elliot, you said before that everything you own is mine, right?”

Chapter 1150

“Yeah.” He handed the tissue in front of her, staring at her, “Why do you keep shedding tears?”

Avery wiped away the tears with the tissue: “It’s probably been too long since I’ve eaten spicy food, so I can’t stand it. Thinking of how good you are to me and the child, I feel like I own the whole world.”

“Shouldn’t I be happy?” Elliot looked at her wet eyes, and there was a thorn in his heart.

“I’m happy! I’m very happy.” Avery held up the water glass and took another sip of water, “Elliot, I was browsing Facebook last night, and I accidentally saw some netizens say that you value money interests more than anything. Netizens also said that you married me because I am not bad at making money. If I didn’t have the ability to make money, you would definitely not marry me.”

Elliot face paled in shock by these remarks.

Avery continued, “That’s why I asked you that question just now.”

“Do you think what I said to you was to coax you?” Elliot voice was obviously a little colder.

Avery smiled and said, “Of course I believe you. But after reading those words on the Internet, it is inevitable that you will be cranky. I didn’t question you, just chatted with you.”

Elliot said, "Avery, you are questioning me. If you don't question me, you won't ask at all."

Avery said, "Well, if I am questioning you, you can question me too."

Elliot said, "What am I questioning you? I have nothing to question."

"Then you say, money is more important than me?" Avery looked at him seriously, wanting to confirm his answer again, "Is your company more important than me?"

Elliot didn't expect her to pursue this question. It always felt like Avery was being stimulated. Avery tears were not because of spicy, but something else.

"Is it because I can't give you a sense of security?" Elliot stared at her blankly and asked, "We didn't know each other for a day or two, or a year or more. Would you really not know the answer of your question? Even if I told you the answer, but you are still uneasy."

Ell questioning made Avery eyes wet instantly.

"It has nothing to do with security, I just want to hear what you have to say." Avery held back her tears and said almost unreasonably, "I didn't ask you 'love me or not' every day."

Elliot was choked by her words. For a moment, he felt that Avery was holding her lifeline.

"If money is more important than you in my heart, then I don't have to waste so much time with you, and I don't have to waste so much time with my children. I can go to work in a company now, thinking about how to make more money, not with You eat hot pot here that I don't like." Elliot used these words to express his attitude.

Avery was quite satisfied with Elliot's answer.

“If I want your company, will you give it to me?” Avery lowered her eyes and asked this ‘excessive’ question.

“What do you want my company to do?” Elliot thought for a few seconds, then replied, “You have two companies, aren’t you busy enough? If you want money, I can give you all the money you earn. Or you took my company and sold it for money.”

Avery: “...”

For a while, Elliot’s answer made Avery speechless.

Avery could see that Elliot was really willing to give his the company, but he just needed a valid reason.

Elliot knew Avery didn’t love money that much, so Avery couldn’t find any good reason to want his company.

Avery mood gradually calmed down and asked, “Elliot, are you nervous? Did my question scare you?”

“It’s not your problem that scare me, but I don’t understand why you cry.” Elliot handed the fruit plate to her, “Avery, Eat some fruit.”

“Probably I’ve been too busy recently. Once I’m free, it’s easy to think wildly.” Avery took an apple with a fork and handed it to her mouth, “But I won’t doubt it anymore. Elliot, thank you for loving me. I will love you more than me in the future.”

Hearing Avery’s promise, all the dark clouds in Elliot’s heart dissipated. However, he was still a little worried: “Avery, Are you really okay?”

“I’m okay. I’m about to have my period, so my hormone levels are out of balance and I’m a little emotional.” Avery pulled out a gentle smile and continued, “I won’t eat spicy food again in the future. Facts have proved that it is better to keep things in the past in memory, and cherishing the present is the most important thing.”
