

My Bossy CEO Husband, Chapter 210: Not A Good Woman

After what Josie said, Ryan's eyes became cold as ice.

"Ryan..."

"Enough! That's impossible!" Ryan said vehemently.

"Ryan!"

Afraid that the two of them would argue, Luke quickly covered Josie's mouth.

"Mom, stop this nonsense! Do you still think it's not clear enough? What do you want to prove by getting another paternity test done? Precious is a matching donor. Isn't that the best proof?"

Josie pulled Luke's hand away and said, "I'm being cautious!"

Luke rolled his eyes and responded, "I know what is going on in that head of yours. You are unable to accept that Wendy is the mother of my brother's two children!"

The door to the ICU opened with a creak. Wendy heard Luke's words as she came out of the ICU. She pursed her lips and took off her mask.

Ryan hurried over.

"Wendy..."

"His fever is gone, but he is still weak. He is resting now."

Ryan's eyes fixed on her red eyes.

His jaw tightened, and he asked her in a hoarse voice, "Are you hungry?"

Wendy was stunned to hear Ryan ask such an unexpected question.

"You haven't eaten anything for more than 24 hours."

"I'm not hungry."

Ryan was concerned about her.

"I have asked some to bring food here. It is in the ward."

"I said, I'm not hungry!"

Wendy avoided his gaze.

She felt Precious tighten the grip on her hand.

When she looked down, she saw Precious looking at her with tenderness and expectation.

"What's wrong, sweetheart?"

"Mommy, I'm hungry. Would you eat something with me?"

"Mommy, this is the first time we will be having a meal together as mother and daughter. We have been separated since the time I was born. Now that we have finally found each other, you won't refuse me, will you?"

Precious blinked her huge eyes and looked at Wendy with longing.

Wendy was moved.

How could she refuse her daughter? Finally, she relented. She went with Ryan and Precious to the ward.

The ward was full of takeout food.

No one had slept the entire night, neither had they eaten anything. So they all sat down to eat.

Wendy sat on a chair, and she quietly sipped some warm water.

It was a luxurious VIP ward with two bedrooms and a living room.

The ward was well-equipped.

In order to avoid any awkwardness, Luke turned on the TV.

Everyone watched the TV while eating.

Precious kept serving food in Wendy's bowl.

Soon the bowl was full.

"Mommy, eat something. You are too thin."

Wendy gave a small smile and reluctantly had two bites.

At that moment, the TV was broadcasting news about Wendy. She had been the hot topic of discussion for the past two days.

The TV was broadcasting Ruben and Cacia's interview.

Both of them confirmed various scandals that involved Wendy.

Cacia hypocritically persuaded Wendy to come home.

Although Roger had shown Wendy the video before, she was still disgusted when she saw the two of them.

She put down her chopsticks.

Luke almost spat a mouthful of rice.

He swore angrily and changed the channel.

"Looking at those two annoying people, I feel nauseous!"

A cold light flashed in Ryan's eyes.

'It seems that Ruben hasn't learned his lesson yet. Or else he wouldn't have agreed to do the interview.' Roger also put down his chopsticks and said worriedly, "This time, it has gone too far. I'm afraid it's difficult to prove Wendy's innocence."

Kane agreed.

"I've spoken with the PR department. Even Randolph doesn't know how to save Wendy this time."

Ryan ordered Kane, "Inform the media that we will hold a press conference four days later."

His face did not give away what he was thinking.

'Four days later...' Wendy thought as her eyes flashed.

It would be just right.

By then, Raymond's surgery would be over, and she could finally concentrate on solving this problem.

Kane nodded, "Okay!"

In everyone's eyes, Ryan was a legend.

As long as he was willing to handle the problem, there was nothing that he couldn't do.

At that moment, Wendy replied coolly, "No, thanks!"

"Wendy..."

Roger wanted to say something, but he was interrupted by Wendy.

"This is my personal business. I will find a way to solve it."

Ryan glanced at Luke.

Luke immediately understood.

"Wendy, this is where you are wrong. You are an actress that represents Glory Media. Therefore, the company is obliged to clear the rumors for you. Kane, don't you think so?"

Luke winked at Kane slyly.

Kane answered, "Yes. Wendy, Luke is right. We are also preparing a new play for you once the filming of the Story of Concubine Ivanka gets completed. So, in other words, not just yours, but the company's reputation is also at stake. So we have to help you."

Wendy held the cup tightly and said nothing. It was settled.

They all were discussing how to deal with the sandals.

Only Anson noticed the sullen look on Josie's face.

After they finished eating, Anson found an excuse and left with Josie.

On the first floor of the inpatient department, there was a large rest area.

It was built primarily for the patients to take a walk.

The air here was fresh.

The grass was green, and the trees were lush.

After the heavy rain last night, the air was fresher, and the surroundings were clean and crisp.

The fragrance of sweet osmanthus wafted through the cool breeze.

Anson and Josie walked hand in hand on the cobblestone path.

Josie looked serious as she was lost in thought.

“Josie, let’s sit down here for a while.”

“Okay.”

When Josie came back to the present, Anson was pointing to a wooden bench.

They both sat.

Seeing Josie’s expression, Anson patted her comfortingly on the shoulder and said, “Are you still worried that Ray will not forgive you?”

“No.”

“Then what are you thinking about?”

“Honey, did you see the interview that Wendy’s parents gave?”

Anson nodded, “Are you unhappy because of that?”

“It’s not that I have anything against Wendy. But don’t you see? Her own father came forward to expose her and confirm her scandals. So tell me, what does that tell you? Do you seriously think she is a nice woman?”

“Just because of that?”

“Honey! Shouldn’t I be angry? Wendy is not a good woman! How can Ryan be with her? Anyway, I will never agree!”

Anson thought helplessly, ‘Why is Josie so stubborn? Why can’t she see it clearly? It doesn’t matter whether we agree or not. As long as Ryan is determined, he will not give up.’!

The fact was that Anson supported Ryan completely.

Ryan was not an inexperienced young man but the CEO of Oliver Group. He had dealt with different kinds of people before.

Anson did not think that someone could cheat Ryan so easily.

Also, not just Ryan, but Precious, Luke, and even Roger spoke highly of Wendy.

They all came from influential families.

It was not that easy to get close to them.

But they all liked Wendy very much.

That proved that she was a girl with a good heart and a kind nature.

“Josie, I think that Wendy is a good girl. Since you already have a set mind, you can only see her shortcomings. Put aside your prejudices and try to see her for who she is. Maybe you will like her.”

Rate this Chapter