Chapter 3: De-condensation Pill

Mo Zhu did not want to see the Fang family together, so she came out as well. A man in black stood outside.

“Young Master Huo asked me to pass this to you.”

Mo Zhu played with it in her hand casually. It was a piece of jade, and it was obvious that it was worth a lot of money. Coincidentally, Mo Zhu was short of money recently, but she was not someone who took other people’s things for free. Thus, Mo Zhu took out a small black bottle from her pocket.

“Give this to Young Master Huo.”

This was given to her by Yun Jing. She still had many bottles at home. Based on what she had observed on Huo Xuan’s condition just now, although it couldn’t save his life, it definitely had some use. She still wasn’t too sure about Huo Xuan’s exact condition, but her initial judgment was that he was poisoned.

In the Huo family’s house

Huo Xuan stood in front of the floor-to-ceiling window. His facial features were as perfect as a sculpture, and there was a hint of white on his cold lips. However, it still couldn’t hide his noble aura.

Mo Wu entered, following behind Xu Huan.

“Master Huo, Ms. Mo asked me to pass this to you.”

“That kid.” Xu Huan accepted the bottle and chuckled. He then opened the bottle, and a grave expression suddenly appeared on his face.

Mo Wu also looked over, and his expression froze. “That’s a de-condensation pill?”

“That’s impossible, right? Ms. Mo just came from the countryside. How could she have a pill that was auctioned at sky-high prices in the underground auction market?”

However, high-quality medicine could be identified from the color and taste. This de-condensation pill looked better than the ones from the underground auction market. This was a de-condensation pill, and it was highly possible that it came from that divine doctor.

All these years, they had been looking for the whereabouts of the divine doctor. If they could find him, there would be hope for Master Huo's illness. However, no matter how they looked for him, there would always be someone behind the divine doctor to help him erase his traces. Even if they mobilized top-notch technicians, they wouldn't be able to accurately locate his exact location.

With this medicine, would they be able to find the whereabouts of the divine doctor and cure Master Huo's illness?

Hope bloomed in their eyes as they looked at Huo Xuan.

The man still had that cold look on his face, as if it was someone else who was terminally ill. However, when he heard Mo Zhu, something flashed past his eyes.

"I'll go look for Ms. Mo now!" Mo Wu rushed out hurriedly.

Xu Huan looked at Mo Wu, who was in a hurry. He wanted to say something, but he had already left before he could. Thus, he just let him go and sat down beside Huo Xuan.

"Does Mo Zhu know the divine doctor? That shouldn't be the case, right? She's just a kid. She might have had some fortuitous encounter, and she didn't know the value of this thing, thus giving it to you by accident. We've been searching for the divine doctor for so long, but we still haven't found him. How could we have found him through the appearance of a child? Mo Wu was too rash, but it was also because he was worried about you. What do you think?"

As Xu Huan spoke, he turned to look at Huo Xuan, only to find that his face was unusually pale. Xu Huan quickly helped him sit down. Even though he looked like he was in pain, there wasn't a single hint of emotion on his noble face.

For so many years, every time his illness acted up, Xu Huan would always see him endure it alone. Just like that, he endured it for two years. Xu Huan sighed, he was anxious and uneasy. Just as he was about to call Huo Xuan's personal doctor, he caught a glimpse of the bottle that Mo Zhu gave and immediately brought it over to Huo Xuan.

Not long later, Huo Xuan's expression improved. At that moment, Huo Xuan's personal doctor arrived as well. He performed a full-body checkup on Huo Xuan. Having just experienced immense pain, he looked exhausted.

"Mr. Huo's condition has been alleviated, and the spread of his condition has been suppressed. There is an increase of two more months before it will spread to his heart!"

"That's great, in this case, we have two more months!"

The man leaned back against the chair and narrowed his peach blossom eyes. His brown eyes were deep and unfathomable.

"Master Huo, no matter what, Ms. Mo gave us the medicine. Shouldn't we go and thank her?"

"Let's do it tomorrow." Huo Xuan looked at the dark green bottle thoughtfully.

On the other side, Mo Wu went back to look for Mo Zhu. At that moment, Mo Zhu had already returned to the Fang family's house. She was informed that someone was looking for her outside. Qin Ya and the others had also heard it and knew that it was Huo Xuan's subordinate. They did not dare to be negligent and quickly got Mo Zhu to go.

Mo Zhu walked down the stairs unhurriedly. "What's the matter?"

Mo Wu knelt down in front of Mo Zhu. "Ms. Mo, please save my Young Master. I'm willing to repay you with my life."

"I can't save your young master, and I don't need your life."

Mo Zhu just stood there, her eyes cold and unmoved.

Upon hearing Mo Zhu's reply, Mo Wu had already calmed down. He realized that Mo Zhu was just a young lady from the countryside who did not even have the ability to protect herself, much less save his young master.

Mo Wu got up slowly. "Sorry to disturb you, Ms. Mo."

Mo Zhu looked at Mo Wu's figure, her eyes a little cold.
