

The Charismatic Charlie Wade Chapter 4081

When Bernard Arnault heard this, his whole person was sad and his face was full of sauce.

He knew that he was being targeted.

The key is that he was targeted, and all the people around him who were bidding for Huichundan were all cheering for it.

It was also at this moment that he realized that he was not only hated by the customers of his brands, but also hated by other rich people.

He also finally realized the evil of the distribution system.

It is to see that you like something, and then pinch your psychology to increase the price in another way.

If you protest, the seller will tell you that this is our sales policy.

And Bernard Arnault's desire for rejuvenation is not just liking, it is related to his health and longevity.

With his current physical condition, if lung cancer makes a comeback, he basically has no choice but to die.

Moreover, he has experienced the pain of anti-cancer treatment twice, and he does not want to experience the third time in his life.

Thinking of this, he could only grit his teeth and ask Jasmine moore with a humble expression: "Miss Jasmine, I don't know how you want me to distribute the goods... My cash flow is not that abundant..."

Jasmine moore nodded and said, "Don't worry, we won't push you to a dead end because of the distribution."

Having said this, she smiled slightly and continued: "If you follow your brand's distribution strategy, the ratio of the general distribution amount of popular models will start at one to one or even higher?"

Bernard Arnault's eyes suddenly darkened. If he really distributed the goods on a one-to-one ratio, it would be 140 billion US dollars. Where did he get so much money?

Just when he was desperate, Jasmine Moore said again: "Of course, we are more particular about what we do than you, so we finally decided to let you distribute the goods according to the ratio of 50%. Since your bidding price is 72 billion, the distribution amount is 36 billion, and the total is 108 billion."

Bernard Arnault said in desperation: "I don't have so much money... I can take out a maximum of $80 billion in cash now..."

Jasmine Moore nodded and said, "In this case, you can also apply for installment payment."

Bernard Arnault hurriedly asked: "How to pay in installments?!"

Jasmine Moore said: "For a total of 36 billion US dollars of distribution, you pay 8 billion first, and the remaining 28 billion will be paid in ten years. We can waive your installment fee for this. You know, if you do it outside For consumer loans, the ten-year interest rate is at least 50%."

Having said this, Jasmine Moore added: "I believe that with your ability to attract gold, it should be very easy to spend 2.8 billion US dollars every year, and after you get a whole rejuvenation pill, as long as there are no accidents, the lifespan will be at least Twenty years or more, so if you look at it this way, it must be a very good deal for you."

Immediately, Jasmine Moore changed the topic and said, "Of course, you can also not accept it. Our distribution policy is the same as yours. We advocate voluntary distribution, not compulsory distribution."

Bernard Arnault finally understands what a murderous heart is.

What is the difference between forcing others to distribute goods and saying that they are voluntary distribution?

But on second thought, isn't it the same way for your own brand?

Thinking of this, he could only sigh that he had done it himself.

And although his heart was extremely painful, when he thought of Huichundan, he still made a decision in an instant, gritted his teeth and said, "Okay...I accept it!"

Jasmine moore nodded and said seriously: "No. 016, since you voluntarily and actively accepted our delivery policy, then you need to pay 80 billion US dollars first. In order to ensure that you perform the contract, we also need to sign a series of Do you have any objection to this legal document, Huichundan will be given to you after the legal document is signed?"

Bernard Arnault shook his head and said sullenly, "No... I have no objection..."
