Chapter 2323

"..."

Catherine didn't say anything. She just pursed her picturesque lips.

Shaun suddenly became uneasy and said, "Look, can you give me a name...?"

That cautious appearance reminded Catherine of the domineering and aloof Shaun before and couldn't help but "puchi" a smile.

Seeing her smiling, Shaun was relieved and hooked her little hand, "Cathy, the way you didn't speak just scared me."

"Am I so scary?" Catherine gave him a sideways look, "Shaun, aren't you crazy in front of me before?"

"Where am I crazy?" Shaun looked wronged, "I used to love face a little bit but now I don't want anything for my wife. I only want you from now."

"Then did you see what happened to Rodney? If you're sorry for me again..." Catherine smiled picturesquely, "It will be miserable."

Shaun said with deep black eyes, "Cathy, you don't know how charming you are now. You are getting smarter and more capable and it is my blessing to be able to marry you."

"It's your luck." Catherine hummed proudly With a sound.

Shaun shook off his hand and walked to the place where the car was parked.

what do you mean good luck?

Shaun frowned and chased, "Cathy, did you agree or not?"

"Think about it yourself."

Catherine didn't look back.

After being stunned for a few seconds, Shaun squeezed hard and hugged her tightly from behind and smiled softly, "Let me think about it, that's a promise."

"Did I promise?" Catherine pretended to be innocent.

"I don't care, you just agreed."

Shaun hugged her and kissed her fiercely.

"Shaun, let go, someone is there." Catherine scratched him shyly.

"Then kiss in the car." Shaun pulled Cathy to the car.

After getting in the car, Shaun couldn't wait to kiss her. He was as elated as a child begging for candy.

"Cathy, with your words, I will definitely find a way to get Sarah sentenced to the heaviest sentence."

At the police station.

When Sarah was interrogated in the small dark room, she was stunned, "What nonsense are you talking about? I have never killed anyone and never used sorcery also I have never harmed anyone. I am innocent. "

Your lover, the current boyfriend Garrett, personally accuses you of tampering with his diet." The police took out a document, "This is the ingredient extracted from the evidence he submitted. It's a lot of illegal drugs. Garrett said that when you were in bed with him, you tried to hypnotize him and it not only Garrett but also Shaun. Garrett once sought you for treatment but after one treatment, his memory returned."

Sarah was stunned when a confession was presented.

Shaun is fine, but Garrett?

Let me go, Mr. Hill Chapter 2324 | Novel By Shallow South

Chapter 2324

How could Garrett?

In the blink of an eye, Sarah suddenly understood that Garrett had never been successfully hypnotized and she had always been the one who was deceived.

"It turns out that Garrett was lying to Sarah all time."

Too many things happened recently. Sarah's brain was on the verge of collapse and she started shouting like crazy, "I didn't do it. and don't make me wrong, I'm just an ordinary psychiatrist."

"Really."

The policeman sneered, "but your younger brother has already admitted it. He said that you actually hate your stepmother. On the surface, you seem to respect Jennifer but in private, You provoked Thomas and Jennifer to quarrel over and over again and it was you who instigated him to piss off his own biological father. You, a woman, behaved so viciously that even your biological father was not spared.

"Sarah kept biting her to death and refused to admit to the police's pressing questions.

Until the police collected more and more evidence, the procuratorate filed a public prosecution with the court.

On the day of the trial, "Shaun, Catherine, Freya, Eliza, Chester, Rodney and Garrett all went."

Because the suspected scope of this case is too large and the identities of the people involved are unusual and the court has to hear it openly.

It also attracted a lot of reporters to come and there were even live broadcasts by reporters.

Because Eliza was a public figure and Catherine, Freya, and Shaun were also very famous in Australia. The live broadcast has just been launched and many people were already watching online.

It seems that Freya and Catherine were sitting next to Eliza.

Shaun was sitting next to Catherine and the man next to Shaun is looking for a good look.

The person in power of the Jewell Corporation."

"D*mn, this battle is full of bigwigs. It seems to have seen Rodney who is being interrogated today?"

"Sarah, Rodney's ex-wife..."

"Wait, isn't his ex-wife Freya?"

"It is said that she recently divorced, Freya is her ex-wife and this Sarah used to be her boyfriend is Shaun and her former friend is Chester. Catherine and Freya are both rivals in love. Anyway, it is said that Sarah has killed someone."

"My God, what is this? Devil, it's terrifying."

"..."

When netizens were discussing hotly on the Internet, the judge had already held a court session.

Garrett was the first important witness to appear in court and followed by Shaun.

Then there was the doctor in the psychiatry department of the hospital said: "When I saw Catherine, I didn't think she had a mental illness but Sarah gave me five million and asked me to admit Catherine in front of Shaun. I have this kind of disease and then I sent Catherine to a mental hospital. My family's overseas account still has transfer records but Sarah didn't use her own account to transfer money."

The prosecutor said: "After our hard work, the transfer was made. Sarah met her one of friends when she was studying abroad."

Staff of the funeral home said: "When we cremated Jennifer's body, Sarah said she was Jennifer's daughter. So we handed over the urns to Sarah and during that period, we did not pass it to anyone's hand."

Thomas was the most excited, "It was Sarah who exchanged Jennifer's ashes and the one she hated most in her life was Jennifer. Also Sarah said that she would never let Jennifer and My dad was buried together. She also said behind his back that a person like my dad is only worthy of being buried with animals. I'm sure that Jennifer's death must have something to do with Sarah. Sarah told me more than once that she would kill Jennifer. I want Charity to have nothing and after Jennifer died, Sarah asked me to be angry with my father and was saying that as long as my father died and then the company belonged to both of us."

"Not only that Sarah was very narrow-minded, Although she was gentle and kind on the surface but she has done a lot of bad things behind the scenes, when she was in the Neeson family, she often framed Charity..."

The prosecutor coughed lightly, "Okay, witness, don't say anything unrelated to the case."

Thomas quickly closed his mouth.

Chester's eyebrows moved slightly in the audience and after a while, he took off his glasses, lowered his head and wiped his lenses quietly without saying a word.

Chapter 2325

Eliza has also closed her painful eyes.

The prosecutor got up and said, "From Thomas's mouth, it fully proved that Sarah has a motive for murder, and from the mouth of Sarah's predecessor, we know that her ability in hypnotism can be described as the pinnacle and the last person Jennifer saw it that it was Sarah. Within half an hour after Sarah left, Jennifer died in an accident. We consulted with top psychologists. If Sarah first hypnotized Jennifer and caused her to fall into a trance and die, it is entirely possible."

"Nonsense, this is just your speculation." Sarah exclaimed.

"Your Majesty, this is Jennifer's physical report before her death. She is very healthy." The prosecutor handed over a document.

"There are also some cases where some people used hypnotism to kill people in the past."

After an hour-long trial, the judge finally sentenced Sarah to the crime. Because she had done too many evil things and there was a murder case, the judge directly sentenced her to death.

"I didn't kill, I didn't kill." I was framed. Sarah said continuously. she screamed in horror, "The prosecutor, You wronged me and it was the Snow family who wanted me to die and the court helped Snow family..."

The police officer on the side saw that Sarah was talking more and more outrageous and quickly covered her mouth.

The judge's face was even more ugly. "It's so ridiculous. "Justice and Honesty" written on the table below. " in big characters, you do a lot of evil, whether it is a living person or a dead person, even animals have never escaped your poisonous hands. Your methods are cruel and you know crooked ways. A court like you will never let you go out of harm's way again.

After speaking, the judge left the court with the court members coldly.

In the audience, Eliza closed her eyes and the two lines of hot tears fell from under her sunglasses and her hands were tightly clenched into fists on her knees: Mom and Dad, I finally avenged.

"Very good, Eliza, did you see that Sarah is going to be sentenced to death? "Freya happily hugged Catherine and Eliza and when she saw Eliza's tears, she was stunned.

"You.... "

"It's okay." Eliza quickly wiped the tears from her face as nothing had happened.

"Anyway, our revenge has finally been avenged." Catherine said with a smile, "Today we should celebrate."

"Yes, we must celebrate, I will treat you today." Freya was also very excited. Those grievances were all told by Thomas at the trial just now.

Once, many people scolded her for seducing Thomas and she deserved the beating.

Although his reputation has improved now, there are still some people who are jealous of him and will repeat things on the Internet based on the past.

Now, it's finally clarified.

She didn't seduce Thomas, nor did she deliberately climb onto Rodney's bed, she was all hurt by you, Sarah.

This trial gave her justice.

And this was live broadcast and many people were seen it online.

"Where is the need for you to treat guests, I'll invite you." Shaun hugged Catherine and was in a good mood, "Why don't you go to my private cruise ship to celebrate? the weather is nice and we can go fishing."

"Going to sea, Great!, I have no problem." Freya's heart moved and started thinking of someone, maybe she could be called up.

"I don't mind either." Eliza nodded, just as she was a star, she would attract attention wherever she went and no reporters would follow her on a private yacht.

"Yes, I'll bring red wine and food." Chester said lightly with his hand in his trouser pocket.

Eliza froze and glanced at him lightly, suddenly regretting that she should not have agreed to go just now.

But there was no room for remorse.

...

Not far.

Rodney quietly watched a few of them talk and laugh. Even Chester, who was always indifferent and was in a good mood with a faint smile hanging from the corner of his mouth and Freya, who had a beautiful face like a half-breed and bright smile.

Rodney really hadn't seen Freya's smile so happily for a long time and his eyes seemed to be full of glowing little stars.

Chapter 2326

Rodney's heart was inexplicably envious. He heard they were going to celebrate on the yacht.

Once upon a time, Rodney was one of them, no matter where he went, he was always part of him.

It was he who committed suicide to fall out with them one by one for Sarah's sake.

now.....

His heart was full of bitterness, he hesitated and struggled for a long time and finally opened his legs and walked over.

His eyes fell with pain and guilt on Freya.

Freya's expression turned cold in an instant. She didn't look at Rodney but just took out her phone and checked the time, "It was 11 o'clock. why don't you go?"

"Freya..."

Rodney was in a hurry and quickly stood in front of her, "I... I'm sorry, I apologize to you for what I did before, I'm so stupid and I've been scolded again and again. Sarah lied and she hurt you. I was so wrong..."

"Since you know Rodney, what you've done is so outrageous. you should understand that I have no intention of forgiving you or shaking hands with you." Freya frowned and her eyes full of impatience.

Rodney's face turned pale and her eyes were painfully red, "Freya, I'm sorry. I didn't cherish our marriage. I regret it so much and I regret it to death..."

Freya didn't want to listen to him nagging and confessed to herself here.

If she had just divorced, she might have been looking forward to this day but after she had a new relationship of her own, she completely let go of this past. she came here today purely for Sarah.

"Let's go." Freya took Catherine's hand.

"Okay."

Catherine understood that the good sisters had no other mood swings except for being impatient.

The three women walked out of the court, arm in arm bypassing Rodney.

Rodney's throat choked, as someone had slapped his face several times.

"..."

Rodney looked at Shaun and Chester behind him with difficulty.

Shaun glanced at him lightly, "I'm sorry that these these words are not omnipotent, you don't have to apologize. When some things have passed away, people may not care anymore."

As for Chester, he didn't say anything. Followed Shaun and left.

Rodney's body froze.

Things have changed...don't care....

Rodney understood the meaning of these words too well.

Rodney would rather Freya stand in front of him now and laugh at him and accuse him, rather than ignore the marriage between the two.

He even heard passers-by pointing at him as he left the courthouse.

"Rodney, the husband of the murderer just now."

"Wouldn't he be afraid of sharing a bed with such a terrifying woman who could even kill his parents?"

Let me go, Mr. Hill Chapter 2327 | Novel By Shallow South

Chapter 2327

"Oh, why are people afraid? For the murderer, Rodney didn't even want his ex-wife and daughter."

"was there something wrong with his brain?"

No wonder he was wearing a cuckold."

"..."

Rodney was like a walking corpse. Let everyone say it. Because even he was so disgusting with himself.

In the past 10 years, what kind of devil has Rodney fallen in love with? He finally saw it completely today.

.....

In the parking lot, Shaun opened the car door and before getting into the car, he suddenly said to everyone, "You can get on the yacht first and Cathy and I will go to the Civil Affairs Bureau to get a certificate before we go."

Not only Catherine but everyone else was stunned.

Freya's eyes widened and then she screamed excitedly and grabbing Catherine's arm, "Why didn't you tell me about such an important matter, and didn't you say you wanted to wait for me and planned to leave me alone? Are you married?"

Catherine's beautiful eyes blinked forcefully.

Shaun put an arm around his waist and said domineeringly, "Cathy promised me that she would remarry me if Sarah was sentenced to death."

"But...it's not necessary now." Catherine was speechless, "Besides, she didn't bring the household registration book..."

"I brought it for you." Shaun pointed to the two large books in his pocket.

Catherine: "..."

"Don't worry, it won't take much time to get the certificate and it's on the way." Shaun took Catherine into the car and left first.

Freya got into her sports car with a sad, depressed and disappointed face.

As soon as the car drove out of the courthouse, Ryan's phone called, "Congratulations, I saw the live broadcast and Sarah was sentenced to death."

"..."

Freya didn't answer him.

Ryan was stunned for a while, "Why don't you talk? shouldn't you be very happy?"

Freya said angrily, "I am happy. But just now Cathy and Shaun were going to talk about the marriage certificate and they asked for it again. I suddenly feel unhappy after getting remarried."

There was silence on the phone for a while and Ryan suddenly said seriously, "I'll bring the household registration book too and let's go have fun together."

"You're crazy." After Freya was startled, she laughed and scolded, "I want to marry and want to be beautiful."

Ryan said with a smile, "It's not impossible. I'm ready to marry you at any time. You are ready to go to the marriage hall."

After being disturbed by Ryan, Freya was not so depressed but a little flustered and said, "But...I didn't. We didn't date for a long time.... "

Ryan said softly, "I know, I'm just expressing my thoughts to you. Actually, Catherine and Shaun have lived together for a long time and they have two children. In the eyes of outsiders, these two have long lived together." They are husband and wife, and remarrying now only makes the two of them more justifiable and their children will be very happy."

"That's..." Freya curled her lips and said, "I actually think it's too cheap. Shaun was so hurtful at the beginning and now he is remarried so quickly. It's too cheap for him."

Chapter 2328

"As long as they are happy and Catherine is such a smart woman and she is willing to let it go which shows that she really loves Shaun."

"It's also... .."

Freya knew very well that her situation was different from Catherine's.

Freya and Rodney only got together because of their pregnancy while Shaun and Catherine got pregnant because they fell in love with each other. Shaun's body never betrayed Catherine from beginning to end....

"By the way, we're going to celebrate on the yacht later. Ryan... do you want to go with me? Do you have time?" Freya asked ryan.

Ryan laughed softly, "It's the first time you invited me to see you Friends. Okay, I will come."

"Aren't you very busy?"

Ryan said softly, "I know that you will celebrate today, in order to prevent you from drinking too much, so I have finished the work ahead of time. Today I've been waiting for you all day."

"You're acquainted." Freya's heart became sweet and she always thought so thoughtfully,
"Then come here quickly."

when they got on the yacht, Eliza and Chester also went up first.

The two even changed their clothes.

Eliza put on a white long floral chiffon trousers with a ball head tied on her head. She was tall and fair-skinned. Even she wore anything casually and her star temperament could not be concealed.

Freya blinked and said, "Eliza, I finally understood why every time you dress casually, there were people imitating you on the Internet. Tsk tsk, when I saw your outfit, I wanted to wear it."

Eliza explained with a light smile, "I feel more comfortable wearing trousers. The dressing room has prepared clothes. All of which are new."

"That's true."

Freya's eyes turned to Chester leaning on the railing again. He was wearing thin white clothes and white trousers and his short black hair was slightly messed up by the sea breeze but it didn't affect his appearance at all but made that handsome face a little more unruly.

Freya seldom saw Chester like this and couldn't help being sucked in by the handsome man.

Freya leaned into Eliza's ear and whispered: "Don't say, Chester's face is really one in a thousand, that figure... tsk tsk, when the wind blew just now, I could see the pectoral muscles on his lower abdomen.

Eliza was speechless, she knew Chester's figure better than anyone else but she was calm, "Actually...that's it."

Freya gave her a meaningful look, "I understood, it's true that I've seen it a lot."

Eliza: "..."

Eliza was a little embarrassed. In fact, Catherine knew about Eliza's relationship with Chester and it was normal for Freya to know.

"Don't think too much." Freya put her arms around Eliza's shoulders, "Isn't it just sleeping with a man? Chester said he was sleeping with you, but why didn't you sleep with him? It's no big deal for everyone to solve their needs."

Eliza: "..."

She could hear Freya comforting herself, but...she wanted to say that she actually...has no need for that.

It didn't take long for Shaun to come up with Catherine in his arms and both of them had sweetness on their faces. Especially Shaun, who smiled with a spring breeze, "Guys, Come here and let's take a look at the marriage certificate of me and Cathy, I just took it, it's good-looking. Is it?"

Catherine bumped him with her elbow in a funny way, "It's endless."

"That's right." Freya said deliberately, "It's like I haven't seen a marriage certificate. I even have a divorce certificate. alright?"

Shaun's face stiffened. Catherine couldn't help laughing "Puchi", "What a coincidence, I have had it too."

"Cathy..." Shaun's face was filled with resentment.

"Okay, stop joking. I wish you a happy wedding." Eliza toasted, "Treasure your wife, she is willing to give you a chance. and it does not mean that she will give you a second time in the future."

Shaun hugged Catherine tightly, "I definitely won't. I.. I will cherish her. I will spend my whole life loving her."

Let me go, Mr. Hill Chapter 2329 | Novel By Shallow South

Chapter 2329

Catherine raised her head and looked at Shaun's gentle black eyes and her heart overflowed with sweetness.

Shaun looked down at Catherine's sweet eyes and couldn't help kissing her lips.

"I can't stand you two anymore and don't torture the man." Freya covered her eyes numbly.

"Forget it, you're not a single anymore." Catherine joked.

Just as she was talking, there was a sudden movement from the back of the yacht. Not long after, Ryan walked in. He was wearing a white shirt and black trousers and matched with that young and tender face, just like Like a gentleman. there was a smile on the corner of his mouth and his long and narrow eyes glow with bright streamers and his whole body looks as clear as water.

Freya thought why Ryan was extraordinarily handsome today? She also thought Chester was very handsome just now, but compared to them, Ryan had both the stability of a mature man and the sunshine that Shaun and Chester didn't have. .

To have such a boyfriend was quite a proud capital.

"Sorry, I'm late." Ryan smiled slightly and then walked to Freya's side naturally and held her hand.

Everyone was stunned, especially Chester. He didn't know about Freya and Ryan which was a bit surprising.

"Although you may know it from the past, I still want to introduce you solemnly..."

Freya coughed lightly while holding Ryan's hand a little embarrassedly, "This is my boyfriend."

Congratulations."

Shaun took the initiative to shake hands generously.

"Treasure our family Freya well." Catherine winked.

"I will." Ryan and her clasped their fingers together with a happy smile on his handsome face.

The relationship between the two has always been secretive and low-key, and now, she finally brought Ryan to meet her friend.

"I didn't expect it." Chester raised his glass in surprise.

No wonder Freya was so indifferent to Rodney's confession just now.

Also, with better things around, who would think about the bad things in the past.

Although Rodney had a good relationship with Ryan in the past, Chester had to admit that Ryan was not a simple person. He was already a secretary to the president at a young age, and his future prospects were limitless.

Since he has this opportunity, he doesn't mind making friends.

In the afternoon, Shaun drove the yacht out to sea.

When driving to a blue bay on the edge of an island, the yacht stopped.

Three men went out to the deck to fish with fishing rods.

The sun fell on the sea, and the weather in late spring was slightly hot.

The three men changed their shirts and trousers, and put on short-sleeved and cropped trousers, but it didn't affect any of the three's looks at all, and even a good figure was like a perfect male model.

When the woman sitting on the second floor drinking red wine looked down, she only felt that this moment was particularly pleasing to the eyes.

Especially Freya and Catherine.

The eyes of the two fell on the other half of their beloved, and their eyes were sweet.

Only Eliza was indifferent from beginning to end, and her heart was always filled with the trial that morning.

Catherine shook the red wine glass and smiled softly, "I didn't expect Ryan to be in good shape. I took a peek at him when he was changing his clothes just now. He still has abdominal muscles and no fat."

A black line appeared on Freya's beautiful forehead.

"Why, blame me for peeking?" Catherine winked.

"I'm not that stingy." Freya rolled her eyes at her, "In front of Shaun, peeking at other men, are you not afraid of the explosion of the vinegar bucket?"

"I said it all, I peeked, and didn't let it go. Anyone who finds out that a good best friend's boyfriend must be carefully observed, who knows whether it is reliable or not." Catherine smiled and hooked her lips, "Come on, toast to Sarah's death sentence."

The wine glass was touched in the air.

Freya asked, "When will the death penalty be imposed?"

Let me go, Mr. Hill Chapter 2330 | Novel By Shallow South

Chapter 2330

"I asked, it should take two months." Eliza looked at the blue horizontal line in the distance and said that she didn't actually like the sea because her body was drowned in the sea.

"It will take so long."

"Isn't it good, death is a relief. The scary thing is the panic in the past two months. you think, knowing that you are going to die soon. when you are still alive? are you trembling every day? , I'm afraid I can't sleep at night." Catherine asked with a playful smile.

Freya was stunned for a moment and suddenly felt very happy.

At this moment, there was a sudden movement from below.

The three looked down, only to find that Ryan had caught a fish.

Freya immediately ran downstairs excitedly and Ryan just took a black fish from the hook.

"Wow, you're amazing, you caught a fish so quickly." Freya looked at Ryan with twinkling eyes.

There were others beside her, Ryan was a little embarrassed to see her, "It's just luck, this should be a black-headed fish."

Freya didn't care, anyway, it was her boyfriend who fell into the fish first. "Does this fish have many spines?"

"Not many."

"Then I'll eat it at night."

"Okay, I'll make it for you to eat at night." Ryan's voice was calm and soft but there was a hint of doting.

Chester was quite calm and Shaun, who was in love, looked sour.

"Cathy, what fish do you want to eat at night?" Shaun turned his gaze to his wife who was approaching and his tone was also very gentle.

Catherine glanced at him lightly, "Don't talk like you can catch whatever fish I want."

"..."

Shaun was choked.

Only Chester glanced at Eliza, who had not come down on the second floor, a sarcastic light flashed in the bottom of his eyes.

Anyway, she's really indifferent.

Among the women I have raised, she is really the worst class.

...

it was 5 p.m.

The three men caught a total of six fish.

Ryan caught three, Shaun two, and Chester only one.

When it was almost dinner time, Ryan carried the fish to the kitchen.

Shaun rolled up his sleeves and came in, "Let me help."

Although he used to be very bad at cooking in the past year, in order to please his wife, his cooking skills have improved a lot.

Although this progress is big in his own right.

It wasn't long before Ryan saw the way he was cutting the fish and couldn't help frowning, "Brother Shaun, go and peel the garlic for me, I'll do it myself."

Shaun could only step aside silently and then Seeing Ryan skillfully scraping off the fish scales, he opened his stomach.

He was silent for a while then lowered his head and silently peeled the garlic.

This is what Catherine and Freya saw when they came in to visit their husbands.

For Catherine, she still knew how much her husband weighed but Ryan's performance surprised her.

Before, she heard Freya say that Rodney's cooking was delicious and she knew it.

But she didn't know that Ryan was so skilled in cooking.

The knives for cutting vegetables are comparable to what she has.

Chapter 2331

Originally, Freya was still thinking about whether she needed help. It seemed that she was useless.

"Ryan, you are amazing. You can also cut fish. Have you ever cut it before?" Freya blinked her eyes.

When the two of them were cooking outside, Ryan bought the fish from outside and they had already made it. Well, just cook, Freya saw this side of him for the first time.

"No, but when I went to the market to buy vegetables, I saw how people cut fish." Ryan smiled slightly.

Shaun has also been to the vegetable market and he has also seen cutting fish, but he can't.

The young man now... It's too hard for people to survive. Fortunately, he already has a wife.

"Ryan, You're awesome." Freya continued to praise.

Catherine was so nauseous that she dragged Freya out and joked, "I can't see it, now the mouth is quite sweet and I have never seen you boast so much when I was with Patrick before."

Freya was taken aback for a moment. Immediately, she said, "What can Patrick boast about?"

Catherine was speechless. There was nothing to brag about and she didn't know who was chasing others before.

"At that time...Cathy, you were young and ignorant." Freya said loudly: "My vision is only the handsome ones in the university. When you broaden your horizons, you will find that there are better ones. Ryan is good-looking, gentle and considerate, able to work, successful in his career and considerate as overall very good."

Catherine gave her a deep look, "Have you been in a relationship?"

"Cough."

Freya blushed violently.

"It looks good in that respect, doesn't it?" Catherine smiled ambiguous.

"Alright... alright."

Freya hurriedly slipped away after the chat couldn't go on.

.....

Dinner was served on the deck on the second floor.

Ryan cooked eight dishes including two marine fish. One was steamed and the other was braised and the large lobster, snails, and sashimi that were prepared in the kitchen earlier.

All had an authentic seafood meal in the evening.

Everyone was in a good mood and drank a few bottles of red wine.

Freya, Catherine, and Eliza also drank a lot of wine. Especially Eliza, who drank a full two bottles as she was a good drinker. Even she was dizzy and could keep walking without shaking.

All were staying until leave the yacht at 9 p.m.

Freya's steps were swaying. In fact, she was not drunk but was very excited. She was so excited that she didn't want to worry about it so much because Ryan held her whole body in his arms.

"Do you need to find a driver to deliver it?" Shaun asked.

Ryan shook his head and pointed to the hotel opposite and said, "I won't go back."

"That's fine, have fun." Shaun hooked his lips and was watching the scene of Ryan hugging Freya across the road. He felt in his heart inexplicably a little itchy then he turned his head and said to Catherine, "Do we want to... don't go back, find a hotel..."

"No, I promised Suzie tonight. I will go back." Catherine shook her head decisively.

"Wife..." Shaun held her little hand in despair, "Today is the day we talk about the evidence and it is also the wedding night..."

"I didn't say I wouldn't accompany you. It's not impossible for Suzie and Lucas to sleep at night..." Catherine raised her long eyelashes under the street lamp, a small face glowed with a moving expression after drinking. Blush, "We are different from Freya and the others. Their relationship is secret. In the Ministerial Palace, it is still a brother and sister relationship..."

Shaun said helplessly: "Cough, I want to change the environment and change something. Is it fresh?"

"Well, it turns out that you are no longer fresh to me, so forget it." Catherine turned her head and left.

"Wife, that's not what I meant..."

Shaun quickly caught up with tears in her eyes.

.....

In a beachfront hotel.

After Ryan took the room card, he hugged Freya and got out of the elevator.

As soon as the door was opened, without even turning on the light of the room, the two hot young bodies were tightly pressed together.

Not just the body, but the kiss.

Let me go, Mr. Hill Chapter 2332 | Novel By Shallow South

Chapter 2332

During the recent period, Ryan was busy with work and Freya was thinking about Sarah's affairs. Usually, they only met for dinner or in the Ministerial palace.

Both were very happy that day.

Freya introduced him to her friends. Ryan's excellence made Freya as sweet as eating honey.

When the two were on the yacht, they had already exchanged several loving glances privately.

In addition, the two of them drank alcohol tonight and after entering the room, they were no longer out of control.

Ryan hugged her and his passionate kiss almost melted her, "Freya, I love you..."

"Ryan, I love you too."

Freya's eyes gleamed.

She was not drunk before but now she is really drunk and hooking Ryan's neck with passion...

.....

The next day, the consequence of the trouble was that both Ryan and Freya slept very late.

Freya woke up from Ryan's arms.

she was still in a trance.

Thinking of her own initiative and absurdity last night, her face turned red.

She looked up at Ryan beside her again. Ryan's eyes were closed and his eyelashes were like feather brushes, long and thick.

This was the first time the two of them had spent the night outside and it was the first time Freya saw his sleeping face on the bed.

Ryan was good-looking in the first place but when he fell asleep, he looked like a big boy.

"You said... how can you look so handsome with your hair so messy even when you're asleep."

Freya gently pinched his nose.

"I just found out now that it's not a loss for you to find me."

Ryan was sleeping suddenly opened his obsidian-like eyes.

"So you're pretending to be asleep." Freya was suddenly embarrassed. After pinching his arm, she turned around and didn't want to pay attention to him.

"The conscience of the world, I didn't pretend, I woke up a long time ago, I just don't want to open my eyes and I want to keep this moment for a while."

Ryan hurriedly pulled Freya back and said, "Freya, It's the first time I've seen one. When I wake up, I can see the woman I love, do you think I am dreaming?"

Freya's heart skipped a beat and hooked his neck, "You are not dreaming, I am."

It turned out that Ryan wanted to be with her It's about the same.

It's not her first time.

When the two people are not only in love in the mind, but also in further communication with the body and some feelings seem to be unable to stop.

"Well, I know you're there." Ryan lowered his head and pressed his lips up.

"No, I didn't brush my teeth..." Freya's shy little face flushed.

"Exactly, I'll help you brush." Ryan chuckled and deepened the kiss.

Kiss and kiss, the air starts to heat up again.

"Don't you want to go to work?" Freya was so shy that she almost admired Ryan's good physical strength.

"Forget it this morning on vacation."

At this moment, Ryan felt that nothing would pull him away from the bed.

After that, their phones rang several times. But no one paid attention.

After it was over, Ryan picked up the phone and went to the balcony to make a call.

Let me go, Mr. Hill Chapter 2333 | Novel By Shallow South

Chapter 2333

After Freya got her mobile phone, she found that there were several missed calls on it, which were from Aunt Loretta.

She thought it was related to Dani, so she hurriedly called back.

Aunt Loretta received the call and said in a low voice, "Miss Freya, Master Rodney came over this morning, and he has been playing with Dani."

Freya was stunned for a while and then said: "Then Look carefully and don't let him take Dani out, and don't let Dani bump into each other. After all, he had no experience in taking care of children."

"Okay, I know, but I From what Master Rodney said, he meant to stay for lunch."

"Whatever, I'm going to the company today, and I'll be back very late."

After hanging up, Freya struggled to get up and go to the bathroom to take a shower.

The bathroom was a bit messy. It was messed up last night when Ryan carried her in to take a bath.

Thinking of the intimacy and absurdity last night, Freya's little face became hot again.

She quickly turned on the shower and let the hot water distract her.

Ryan was already neatly dressed. His spirit was shining and eyes were bright and scorching.

Ryan said softly: "Freya, I have to go to the office and I have an urgent document that I need to sign. I just had someone bring breakfast, you can come here after you finish bath and rest here for a while."

"Oh."

Although Freya was a little lost, she understood that as the president's secretary and she was sure to be busy and was able to take time off yesterday to accompany him."

"Freya, It's better not to go back and not to meet Rodney." Ryan said suddenly.

"You know."

Freya was startled but there were not too many surprises. After all, many people in the Ministerial palace were familiar with Ryan, and it was normal for someone to tell him when Rodney came.

Ryan kissed her forehead, "Freya, I suspect that Rodney wants to get back with you and It would be better to avoid him. Okay, I'm leaving now and You don't seem to be particularly worried."

Freya blinked and looked at Ryan as he just explained something so lightly which is a bit unreasonable, "Ryan, It's not that I'm not worried, it's because you gave me enough security yesterday."

Ryan smiled lightly with a satisfied spring smile on the corner of his mouth.

Freya is inexplicable that she said yesterday not last night and the difference was still very big, "Did I do something?"

"Freya, You officially introduced me to your friends and I'm very happy. "Ryan left this sentence with a smile and left.

Freya sat on the bed for a while.

Just by formally introducing him in front of Freya's friends, does Ryan feel so secure?

With such an awkward relationship between the two, Ryan doesn't care about other people's jokes at all.

It didn't take long for the hotel's breakfast to be delivered.

In the afternoon, Freya met Catherine at Freycatheli.

Freya saw that cathy's little face was also moistened with spring. She couldn't help smiling ambiguous.

"It seems that Cathy and Shaun had a good time last night and she even put on a scarf."

Cathy, You're not bad, aren't you."

Catherine winked, "Did you take any measures?"

When Freya mentioned this matter, Cathy felt embarrassed.

From last night to this morning, Ryan and Freya used so many C*dm packets which were given by front desk , so when she checked out, she seemed to feel the strange gaze from the front desk.

"Done....."

Catherine raised her eyebrows and said: "Ryan's identity was not ordinary and many people knew you and your relationship... couldn't be hidden for too long also his family will find the real relationship soon and most of the colleagues around him are his father's."

Freya groaned, "I...I know."

Chapter 2334

"Freya, It's good that you know, I just remind you that if you want to stay with Ryan all the time, then you have to prepare for gossip. If you can't face it, then break up early."

Catherine said very Directly but she could see that Freya was getting deeper and deeper into this feeling.

Cathy didn't mean to break up the two but she just gave Freya a vaccination.

Freya nodded thoughtfully and her originally sweet mood suddenly became heavy.

Catherine suddenly said, "Let's have a meeting later. and Let's discuss the acquisition of Osher Corporation."

"Hum"

The topic jumped so fast that Freya was stunned.

"Freya, Didn't you watch the morning news? Yesterday's lawsuit against Sarah was known to everyone. Now the whole country was laughing at Rodney and Osher Corporation's stock fell to the limit in the morning, and a large amount of money escaped. Osher Corporation's situation was the same before. It's not very good, it's very likely to be delisted this time."

Freya shook her head, "I slept in the hotel in the morning and didn't have time to watch."

She was just very strange, Osher Corporation was like this and Rodney was still in the mood today Come to see Dani?

In the office building of the Ministerial Palace.

Ryan had just finished the urgent business at hand when the inside Telepnoe line suddenly rang. Ryan picked it.

"Come to my office." Nathan's voice came.

Five minutes later, Ryan was standing in front of the President's office.

"Come in.."

Nathan closed the cap of the pen and said lightly: "Where did you rest yesterday?"

Ryan frowned displeasably, "Dad, I'm already an adult, do I need to report to you where I'm going?"

"Then, as the president, I ask you where you went yesterday?" Nathan lowered his face seriously, "As you are my secretary, I have the right to know your whereabouts."

Ryan lowered his eyes and said: "I was with Shaun yesterday. we were fishing and then accompanied by Chester and Freya."

Nathan was slightly surprised,"Ryan, When did you get close to them? why didn't you come back at night? not even Freya."

Ryan said, "We drank a little wine. It was late night after getting off the yacht, so we found a hotel nearby and stayed."

Nathan said coldly, "It looked like you drink a lot." "I called you in the morning and you didn't answer it. I have a document for you to rush back to draft. Ryan, You are good and you understand your work. You are not an ordinary secretary. You are the secretary of the president. In the event of an emergency, being late may cause huge losses to this country. When did you become so immature, our mobile phones should be able to keep in touch 24 hours a day."

"I'm sorry..."

Ryan's face turned sad.

Nathan gave him a deep look, "Ryan, I warn you, don't do anything that will disappoint me."

Ryan nodded.

When Nathan left, Ryan clenched his fists hard.

...

In the evening, Freya simply stayed in the company to work overtime. she didn't return to the Ministerial Palace until more than 7 p.m.

As soon as she entered, she heard Dani's laughter coming from the toy room that followed by Rodney's voice.

"The man haven't left yet..." Aunty Loretta came over and whispered.

Chapter 2335

Freya frowned.

She didn't want to meet Rodney.

But when she was hesitating whether to go upstairs to take a shower or to greet Dani first, Rodney walked out of the toy room with Dani in his arms.

When Dani saw Freya, her eyes lit up and she stretched out her arms to hug her Mom.

Rodney came over quickly and Dani immediately threw herself on Freya.

In order to prevent her daughter from falling, Freya also took two steps closer and hugged her daughter quickly.

Because of this, Freya and Rodney were getting closer.

A familiar feminine fragrance floated into the tip of Rodney's nose. Rodney looked at the charming smile on her pink and white face. He realized that he hadn't seen her up close for a long time.

Once upon a time, Freya slept beside him.

But Rodney didn't appreciate it.

Originally, they should be the happiest family of three in the world.

Rodney's heart had never been so painful before. It was so dense that he could not wait to drink a bottle of poison and his intestines would rot and die.

Freya kissed Dani's little face. The mother and daughter quarreled for a while and found that Rodney was still standing by the side with motionless, bloodshot eyes staring at her motionless, hiding pain, annoyance, remorse.

The smile on Freya's face gradually froze and said, "Mr.Rodney, It's very late, you can go back."

"Okay."

Rodney nodded and said goodbye to Dani and left.

The next day, just after Freya went downstairs with Dani in her arms, she found Rodney sitting on the sofa in the living room again and seeing the two of them came down. He quickly waved to Dani: "Dani, Dad is here, You miss me Yet?"

Dani blinked her eyes. Her eyes were a little dazed. She seemed to think for a long time with her small head, before she remembered that this was familiar and she seemed to be here yesterday.

Freya handed Dani to Aunty Loretta and said; "Go feed Dani some milk first."

Aunty Loretta hugged Dani and walked away. Rodney's arm froze in the air and he said sadly : "I can also feed Dani with milk and I did it yesterday."

Freya turned to him coldly and said: "Rodney, aren't you busy? As far as I know, Osher Corporation's condition is very bad. Do you still have leisure time to accompany Dani here every day?"

"Freya, I know, does Freycatheli want to acquire Osher Corporation?"

Rodney's dark pupils were full of sluggishness, "I have completely stinked Osher Corporation's brand and I want to let it go. It's too difficult to restore word of mouth. If you buy Osher Corporation to make you happy, then let it go."

"What makes me happy?"

Freya was stunned and speechless and after a while she said: "Rodney, You think my acquisition of Osher Corporation is simply out of revenge . you In the long run and I'm no longer Freycatheli's president and the company's decisions are not made by me."

Rodney was stunned and then Asked: "Freya, do you really...don't hate me at all and I used to hurt you that much..."

Let me go, Mr. Hill Chapter 2336 | Novel By Shallow South

Chapter 2336

"Freya, I'm not as narrow-minded as you think. It's a very unhappy thing to hate someone all the time."

Rodney was suddenly tragic.

The saddest thing in this world is that the person she once cared about, she doesn't even hate you anymore.

If she hates herself, he will be happier.

At least hate it, it means you still care.

After a while, Rodney said in a low voice: "Freycatheli is your own brand, and Freya, you want to make it bigger. Since that's the case, I don't want to resist anymore, so let Osher Corporation become Freycatheli's stepping stone."

"Don't say it. It seems that you voluntarily sacrificed Osher Corporation to fulfill me." Freya didn't like what Rodney said, "Even if it wasn't Freycatheli, being acquired would be Osher Corporation's end and Freycatheli can still offer a better price."

Rodney smiled bitterly, "Freya, Well, I was wrong. My reputation is bad, if I continue to manage Osher Corporation, no one will be willing to pay for it."

"understand."

After finished speaking freya found that there seemed to be nothing else to say between the two.

Rodney suddenly said, "I...I'm going to see Dani."

Freya asked coldl, "Rodney, are you planning to stay here all day today?"

Rodney froze, "I'm the child's biological father and I didn't fulfill my father's responsibilities before. So, Now I want to spend more time with her. you won't... want to stop me from taking care of my Daughter."

"You can take care of your daughter but I'm afraid you have other thoughts." Freya bluntly looked into his eyes, "Rodney, I hope you can understand that I have no interest in turning back."

Rodney handsome's face suddenly turned pale and his pain could not be hidden gradually, "Freya, you don't have to rush to overthrow everything. I have done a lot of wrong things in the past, and the mistakes were very outrageous,so you hate it. I am normal now but we are still young and there are countless possibilities in the future. Freya, you can also observe it and I will get better, really..."

"I'm sorry, I'm still young but you are a man who is going four." Freya interrupted him lightly, "You are still a man who has experienced two failed marriages. Every time you divorce, you send your two wives to the hospital..."

Sarah deserved it. She lied to me too much. As for you, I... I misunderstood..." Rodney explained with guilt, "Freya, If not, you also kicked my ribs off so that I can also taste that taste."

"Sorry, I have no interest in violence."

Freya shook her head, "Rodney, You are here with me and all the guarantees have no credibility. I don't want to give you any chance. What you do in the future has nothing to do with me. Do you think you are worthy of me now?"

Rodney was stunned.

Freya said rudely: "Your company is facing delisting and your investment has failed and you have been completely abandoned by the Snow family. Even you are older than me and you have a past history of domestic violence and derailment. As for me, the president. The goddaughter of her, owns a thriving company and I am also the youngest formulator with a promising future in the world. Our family's Lynch Corporation is developing rapidly. You and I are already the difference between cloud and mud. If it weren't for your daughter, I won't stand here and talk to you for a long time."

Rodney's face gradually turned from white to blue and then turned red.

He really never thought about these things but after thinking about it that Freya didn't seem to be wrong at all.

Once, Rodney felt that he was aloof and Freya was just a daughter of a small place in Melbourne and it was her honor to be able to climb the Snow family.

Now in a blink of an eye, the identities are reversed and it is herself who is not worthy of her.

Freya said lightly, "Rodney, I don't mean to humiliate you. In your current status, you can ask the wealthy family in the country, who is willing to marry a serious daughter to you. Even if it is a daughter of a second marriage, People will also consider it. why do you want to climb up on me in a delusional way?"

Chapter 2337

Rodney was hit and wished to disappear in place.

His pale thin lips trembled slightly but he was unable to refute it.

"Freya, no matter... Anyway, I'm Dani's biological father. Think about it for Dani, it will always be better for a child to live with his biological parents..."

Rodney thought For a long time, this seemed to be his only advantage.

He didn't know that, saying these words made Freya even more disgusted. She didn't want to talk nonsense with him a word, but this person was always here.

"Brother Rodney, don't you think it's too late to say these words now?" Ryan's voice suddenly came from the door.

Ryan changed his shoes and walked in. Rodney and Freya were talking just now but they didn't notice Ryan's coming.

Ryan wore a black suit with a silk tie, exuding the meticulous and noble aura of a professional elite. He naturally walked to Freya's side and said, "Brother Rodney, When you cheated, did you think about Dani? You even wanted to grab Dani's custody and hand it over to Sarah to take care of the children."

Ryan's words made Freya instantly remembered the darkest memory in the past.

The originally calm eyes immediately filled with disgust.

If Ryan hadn't helped Rodney with Sarah's animal cruelty personality, Rodney would definitely have abused his own daughter.

Rodney also realized it immediately and he couldn't help shivering, "I...I was..."

"Of course you didn't know that at the time."

Ryan interrupted Rodney rudely, "But there are not so many regret medicines in this world, it's not that you can recover the past if you want to regret it. Some mistakes can't be made up and you are in your thirties, can you? Be more mature Brother Rodney, you always do whatever you want. If you want to replace it with any woman, she will not let you touch the child at all based on what you have done. Freya has not deprived you of your responsibility as a father and please don't. Harassing Freya in the name of being close to the child."

Freya nodded subconsciously. She felt that Ryan had simply spoken her heart.

Rodney seemed to be slapped, especially when he saw his ex-wife standing with his cousin, he was almost mad, "Ryan, this matter was between me and Freya."

"What Ryan said is what I want to say."

Freya thought for a while, "You stay where I am for a whole day, it's really not good, it will affect my future love, so, anyway, Sarah is already in jail. If you want Dani, you can take her back to the Snow family's old house and bring her back in the afternoon. Dani is still young, so I don't mind if you take her to those messy places and children resist. Poor strength, easy to get sick."

Rodney really couldn't help it and then said, "Freya, Dani is still so young, you can't wait to fall in love. Can't you be so lonely?"

"In a hundred days, you can't wait to get married." Freya was speechless, "I can't stand loneliness, what's wrong with it? Whoever rules that women can't fall in love after divorce that is none of your business."

"You..."

Rodney's throat was choked, so he could only stare at her with red eyes.

"Rodney, please don't harass me again. It's really annoying. That kind of taste is like someone pressing your head to eat garbage that others don't want. OK, you understand."

Freya finished speaking and walked away.

Ryan also followed her.

Let me go, Mr. Hill Chapter 2338 | Novel By Shallow South

Chapter 2338

Both Freya and Ryan took Dani to the front yard for breakfast.

Dani was held by Ryan and Dani's big black eyes looked around.

Rodney followed up cheekily, "Dani, can Dad take you to grandma's house?"

Dani simply turned her head and hugged Ryan's neck, as Ryan was his father.

Rodney was jealous, "Ryan, give me my daughter, I want to take her back to the old house and Freya agreed just now."

Ryan said seriously, "You can take Dani there after I go to work. Dani doesn't want to leave me now. If I force her to you, she will cry. she is no longer a little baby who doesn't understand anything and then she will turn over and have her own thoughts, understand."

"Just because I understand that's why I want to develop more feelings with her," Rodney said impatiently, "Ryan, do you want to be a father to my child? I tell you, this is a dream."

Freya's expression changed slightly. She hurriedly looked at Ryan, he was still as calm as ever. His face didn't change in any way and he didn't seem to want to pay attention to Rodney at all.

Freya breathed a sigh of relief.

This approach seems to be the best.

"Ryan, do you have the guts to think about it? but don't have the guts to admit it."

Rodney sneered, "If you want to like children, don't you know how to find a woman to have one yourself? What's the matter with holding someone else's child."

Nathan and his wife, who were walking in the garden suddenly frowned when they heard these words. Especially Heidi, who was particularly displeased, "Ryan from our family has done his due diligence towards Dani and is much better than you. What right do you have to make irresponsible remarks here."

All three were startled.

Especially when Rodney looked at the cold faces of Heidi and Nathan, a flash of respect and fear flashed instinctively.

Since these two became the prime minister and the prime minister's wife, the authority of the superior has become more and more serious and he has become worse, and now he is embarrassed to look directly into the eyes of his uncle and aunt.

"Aunty Heidi, that's not what I meant..." Rodney explained in a low voice.

Nathan asked indifferently, "Didn't your father say that he wants to send you abroad."

"I...I don't want to go abroad." Rodney lowered his head, "I can't bear to give up Dani."

Heidi sneered, "I can bear to see you before but now I can't bear it."

"Uncle and aunty, scold me, anyway, I already know I'm wrong." Rodney broke the jar, "I will stay in Australia in the future and will take good care of Dani."

"Rodney, taking care of the child is not enough for her to eat and drink well. Her behavior and thoughts are taught by her parents by words and deeds. Rodney, As for you, you have problems with your own words and deeds. What do you educate a child well?" Heidi bluntly accused Rodney, "Let her grow up like you?"

"I...I will change." Rodney blushed and said.

Heidi sneered, "What do you want to change? You have no career and reputation right now. Your father asked you to go abroad because he hoped that you would start a new in a different environment but now you only know that you are pestering your ex-wife and children and you still have How much is it, do you want to eat it all your life?"

Rodney gritted his teeth and couldn't listen anymore, that why was he being scolded by Ryan just now and now he's being scolded by Heidi, "Aunty Heidi, you have no right to say that to me, I know my own affairs and... Dani is also our family's affairs."

Meaning, it's not her turn to take care of it.
